A party of surveyors from Albany consisting of Morris, Lyle and Carson Bigbee, Earl Vanoken, Olin Douglas and one or two others were in town the latter part of last week. They were surveying an electric line from Albany to Dallas. The surveyors passed back Wednesday evening, having finished their work. It is supposed that Hill interests are behind the work.—Monmouth Herald.

Last Sunday our Portland express changed time, it now leaving here at 6:55 in the morning, instead of 6:45, and getting in at night at 7 20 instead of 8:05. This brings our evening papers in much earlier, and is a good move all around, as it leaves Portland but a few minutes earlier in the evening than it did before. The cause assigned for the change is the making of better time on account of repairs to the road.

Dungan & Holman have taken over the stocks of paints and oils handled by Adams, and will in the near future put in a full stock of the different lines belonging to that trade. For the present, parties desiring anything of the kind will please go to the Adam's store. Mr. D. J. Riley has commenced the erection of a building on Washington street, 26x30 in size, in front of the old boarding house now there, and on its completion the firm will use it for their place of business. They intend to handle the very best of everything necessary for painting, and will in their new quarters have one of the finest stocks in the valley.

The Spaulding mill which has been shut down for about two weeks, started up Monday morning with enough logs on hand for about a day's run. However they have a few more coming down the river from Yeager's landing and hope these will keep them running until the logging train can get through again. The train has been held up by a combination of accidents. Just before the Fourth three of the donkey engines were broken in the camps, and repairs which were ordered at Dallas, were by mistake sent to The Dalles, which caused considerable delay. In addition to this a railroad bridge was burned out which added to the difficulty. However the company thinks the train will be running again Friday.—Newberg Enterprise.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaint is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure. Sold by all druggists.

The small boy who inserts himself in some kind of a vehicle, and propells it with one foot is one of the worst nuisances that pedestrians have to encounter on our streets. It sometimes requires a mighty nimble person to get out of his way and prevent a colision. In fact that kind of locomotion, especially on the main business streets, should be at once set down on by our city dads.

Carl Graves left for Ballston this afternoon, where he will receive this evening from the government a shipment of rainbow trout, with which he will stock Graves lake near that place. These trout are said to be fine eating. Fred Toner has applied for a shipment of brook trout, which he intends to let loose at Ellendale. He received a wire this morning that they will be up tomorrow morning. There will be about 6,000.
