WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—It cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over your case with us.

It is probable that in the near future a proposition will be presented to the business men of Dallas for the establishment here of a patent washboard manufactory which has been proven a great success, but now inoperative on account of the high price of oak in the east. The plant will employ anywhere from 10 to 20 men. What Dallas needs is a number of diversified factories, and they will come.

The most enthusiastic crowd that has greeted any speaker since our campaign two years ago assembled at the court house Tuesday evening to hear Rev. Leon Myers, pastor of the Christian church of this city, answer the arguments of ex-Mayor Rose. The way Rev. Myers gave statistics that completely covered every argument put up by Mr. Rose surprised even his closest friends. At the close of his address a call was made for funds to carry on the dry campaign and in a few minutes over $200 was raised, the largest amount ever raised in Dallas for temperance work at any one meeting.

DeHAVEN-ELLIOTT.

Two Popular Dallas Young People Made One Flesh.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott, near town, at 12 o'clock yesterday, Rev. G. F. Hopkins, pastor of the Methodist church, united in marriage Miss Belle Elliott and Mr. Glenn DeHaven. The home was most artistically decorated for the occasion, and the happy couple were spliced under a beautiful marriage bell. The bride looked lovely, and carried a boquet, which was caught after the ceremony by Miss Iva McDaniel. Little Mildred Stafrin was ring bearer, and Miss Alpha Wilson played the wedding march. The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for Portland, where they will make their home, being accompanied to the train by a host of friends who gave them a magnificent send off. Only a few friends were present at the ceremony outside of the numerous relationship, and a bounteous repast was furnished to all before going to the train. We were promised a full writeup of the event by interested parties, but it failed to show up. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and has been prominent in our midst in school, church, and social life, and her presence will be much missed from such circles. The groom is well known to all, having spent a number of years here, but has lately been a resident of the metropolis.

The Itemizer wishes them both a long and happy married life.

JUST A FEW PLAIN FACTS.

We desire to submit a few plain facts regarding the Normal School situation in Oregon to the voters of Polk County. The State of Oregon owns in fee simple the property at Monmouth; the buildings and the ten acres of land about them. The State of Oregon will have one or more Normal Schools, because we must have teachers—all the States educate their teachers and encourage their young men and women to go to the State Normals for this special training: the United States government maintains a National Normal, at Manila, P. I., with George N. Briggs as president. If it is good policy for all the other States, and it is for they are increasing the number, and for the U. S., it certainly is for Oregon. Granted then this argument, it becomes a question of location, taxes, etc. It goes without saying that the location at Monmouth is ideal for this work. Easy of access, in a healthful locality; within easy reach of the State capital, also of the metropolis, and surrounded by a rich rolling country it is hard to imagine a place better fitted for this work. Again the expenses for the students, many of whom are earning their own way, is here reduced to a minimum.

The question of the taxes is one in which we are all vitally concerned; it seems to us the situation reduces itself to this: the State owns and controls this property; a fair valuation of it would be more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00); this is ready for operation as soon as funds are provided for paying this expense; if a man pays a tax on one thousand dollars, ($1,000.00) this will cost him four cents only a year and cannot cost him more till the law is changed by the people. If he pays taxes on five hundred dollars, ($500.00) then two cents a year, etc. If this property is abandoned it will have to be purchased by the tax payers at a very much greater outlay of money, for real estate in the towns is very high, and when the number and size of the buildings are considered, as well as the large campus, it tells its own story.

When a man stops and thinks this over it is simply a plain business proposition, and there is no argument on the tax side at all against the proposition. We feel to urge the voters to think this over carefully, for our position is right on this matter.

WILLAMETTE SESSION ENDS.

Independence, Or., October 12.—(Special.)—The Presbytery of the Willamette which has been in session in the Calvary Presbyterian church for the last two days, closed its sessions last evening. Lyon, of Newberg, delivered an address last evening on "Religious Education" to a crowded house. The moderator of the Presbytery was Rev. B. H. Baker, of Florence.

The most of the ministers will go direct to Pendleton, where the Synod of Oregon will convene Thursday evening.

Hirschberg, president of the Monmouth & Independence railroad, placed a special train at the disposal of the ministers and delegates, and the Presbytery was taken to Monmouth, two miles west, and conducted through the buildings of the State Normal by J. B. V. Butler, president of the normal committee.

WM. GALLOWAY,

Circuit Judge 3rd Judicial District Candidate for Re-Election.

In commending Judge Galloway Judge W. M. Ramsey says:

"A judge should love justice and hate iniquity and possess a robust integrity, and be able to hold the scales of justice firmly and evenly. He should be no respector of persons, deciding for or against parties as their rights appear to him according to the measure of the law. He should be "no trimmer." I have known Judge Galloway for many years and I believe he possess these judicial qualities. He has in more than one instance in the past shown that he has the courage to stand by his convictions of duty in difficult positions, and if re-elected I believe he will maintain his high record for honesty and courage.

A Nest Made From a Leaf.

The tailor bird of India, a tiny yellow creature, makes a most curious nest. To escape snakes and monkeys this bird takes a dead leaf, flies up into a tree and with a fiber for a thread and its bill for a needle sews the leaf to a green one hanging from the tree. The sides are sewed up, an opening to the nest thus formed being left at the top. The leaf, apparently hanging from a twig, would never be taken for a nest.

WEDDED.

Popular Dallas Lady Becomes the Bride of Tacoma Physician.

The marriage of Miss Helen North Wright and Dr. Weldon Pascoe, of Tacoma, was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger. Mr. Pascoe, father of the groom, a presiding elder of Detroit, Mich, performed the ceremony, preceding which there was a half hour of music, the last number being the beautiful Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, sung by Mrs. Walter Tooze, Jr., Miss Georgia Martin, Mr. George and Mr. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., Mrs. Louis Gerlinger accompaning. The bride was very beautiful in a shimmery gown of silk messaline trimmed with real lace. She was given away by her mother, Mrs. Wright, of Hancock, Michigan, who was attired in a gown of soft grey silk. Miss Bertha Wright, the maid of honor, wore a pale yellow gown of soft silk and carried an immense arm boquet of asparagus fern. Little Georgiana Gerlinger and Bayard Taylor preceded the bridal party down the stairs carrying boquets of white sweet peas and clematis.

The house was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, chrysanthemums, sweet peas, asters, and knots of white ribbon. The color scheme in the living room was yellow; and pink was the prevailing note in the dining room. The big round table, at which the bridal party, numbering a dozen, was seated, was lovely with its profusion of pink tulle, ribbon and sweet peas, pink shaded candles and silver. Many beautiful wedding gifts were on display in the den.

The wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Pascoe, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Taylor, Dr. Hunt, of Albany, Dr. Pichard and Mr. Richardson, of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. C. L.
