ALL TIRED OUT.

Hundreds More in Dallas in the Same Plight.

Tired all the time; Weary and worn out night and day; Back aches; head aches; All on account of the kidneys. Must help them at their work. Let one who knows tell you how: W. C. Johnston, 1021 Mil St., Salem, Ore., says: "About a year ago I had an attack of lagrippe and upon recovering I noticed that my kidneys were disordered. I suffered from pains in the small of my back, especially severe at night, and when I arose in the morning I was very lame and sore. I became tired easily, felt languid nearly all the time and was also subject to headache and dizzy spells. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and I began their use. The contents of the first box gave me great relief and I am now in excellent health." (Statement given March 30, 1906.)

THREE YEARS LATER. On November 20, 1909 Mr. Johnston said: "The statement I gave for publication three years ago, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

This Bible school is thoroughly equipped and graded, with capable teachers who instruct the pupils only after a careful study and preparation. Every teacher is a Christian in theory and practice. Myers, Mrs. H. G. Black. Junior teachers—Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mrs. H. B. McDonald. Intermediate teachers—H. G. Black, C. W. Reynolds. Senior teachers—L. Myers, Mrs. H. C. Seymour, Wm. Caldwell, E. M. Smith, G. W. Meyer. We invite you to an investigation of our methods and teachings and practice. Bring your children where they can learn of Jesus from teachers with clean hands and pure hearts. No one is permitted to teach others except the pure heart. No one whose hands are daubed with the filth of a deck of cards, or whose character is besmirched with iniquities and giddy as well as sinful whirl of the dance is permitted to tell your pure children the tender story of Jesus Love. Come let us reason together saith the Lord.

GOOD RECORDS OF TWO GOVERNORS

JUDSON HARMON AND WOODROW WILSON HAVE MANY PROGRESSIVE LAWS TO THEIR CREDIT.

Harmon Worked Under Much Greater Obstacles

Ohio Legislature Enacted as Many Reform Bills as Any in the United States—Has Record of Progressiveness.

Columbus, O., June.—Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, and Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, both considered Democrats, presidential timber from coast to coast, have impressive programs of legislation to their credit.

Both met with opposition in their party ranks when they championed measures and both made fights to obtain legislation they believed the people wanted and needed. Governor Harmon won out over greater obstacles, for an investigation resulted in bribery charges being filed against several legislators, who had been opposing his bills. Most of the important legislation in Ohio came after the bribery charges were filed. By persistent pounding and hammering, Governor Wilson succeeded in pulling his reform bills through the New Jersey legislature.

Hon. Judson Harmon, Governor of Ohio.

Governor Wilson's legislative achievements are better known outside his native state than are Governor Harmon's, for the reason the latter has been tied down in Columbus by a long session which ended only last Wednesday. The New Jersey lawmakers finished their work two months ago, and their accomplishments have been advertised throughout the United States.

Under the guidance of Governor Harmon the general assembly enacted 17 important bills that the enlightened citizens had been pleading for in vain for several decades. Governor Wilson's legislative program, as widely advertised, includes bills.

The Harmon Bills.

The big bills on the Harmon program are:

The Oregon plan of nominating and electing United States senators by direct vote of the people.

Placing the Ohio judiciary beyond the clutches of party bosses by electing all judges on non-partisan ballots.

An employers' liability act making provisions for all injured workmen from a fund made up by contributions by employers and employees.

A public utility commission with authority to regulate issues of stock, rates, mergers and service.

A corrupt practices act that will make vote buying in primaries and elections a dangerous undertaking.

A limited initiative and referendum for Ohio cities.

A central board of control for 19 state institutions to take the place of 19 separate boards of trustees with their corps of employees. This will place subordinate employees in the institutions under civil service.

A shorter ballot by abolishing boards of infirmity directors of three members each, in every county of the state and turning their duties over to the county commissioners making a large saving. A reform of Ohio election laws to prevent corruption and fraud, also a strict system of registration to prevent floaters voting.

To have delegates to the 1912 Ohio constitutional convention nominated by petition only and elected on non-partisan ballots.

A nine hour work day for employed women.

A back-to-the-farm movement by requiring agriculture to be taught in all Ohio village and country schools.

Ratification of the proposed income tax amendment to the federal constitution.

Memorializing congress to call a convention to provide for the direct election of United States senators.

Insuring the honest handling of all state money by depositing in banks under the competitive bidding plan.

A complete reformation of tax laws that will put tax dodgers out of business and will compel corporations and owners of intangible property that have been dodging taxes to place their holdings on the duplicate the same as small property owners. Included in this is a maximum one per cent tax levy limit bill.

Providing for the construction of a women's reformatory and placing all girls in the state correctional institutions under the control of women.

Residence Burns.

The residence of Mrs. S. F. McKinney was almost wholly destroyed by fire Saturday evening. After the day had been so pleasantly spent by everyone a gloom fell upon each and all as they witnessed the home go up in smoke.

Mrs. McKinney is a widow with a family and certainly deserves the sympathy of all in her loss. The actual loss in dollars and cents has not yet been ascertained. There was no insurance on the property. The cause of the fire is not known. Mrs. McKinney has not decided as to what she will do in regard to another home.

OBESITY CURED.

A Remedy That Is Not Liable to Attain Wide Popularity.

Peter the Great was once traveling incognito in a part of Finland, when he met a very fat man who told him that he was going to St. Petersburg. "What for?" asked the czar. "To consult a doctor about being so fat, which has become very oppressive."

"Do you know any doctor there?" "No."

"Then I will give you a line to my friend, Prince Menschikoff, and he will introduce you to one of the emperor's physicians."

The traveler went to the prince's house with a note. The answer was not delayed. The next day, tied hands and feet, the poor man was dragged off on a cart to the mines.

Two years after Peter the Great was visiting the mines. He had forgotten the incident of the fat man, when suddenly a miner threw down his pick, rushed up to him and fell at his feet crying:

"Grace, grace, what is it I have done?"

Peter looked at him, astonished, until he remembered the story.

"Oh, so that is you?" he said. "I hope you are pleased with me. Stand up! How thin and slight you have become! Go, and remember that work is the best cure for your complaint!"

Wanted—An Interpreter. It was a case of assault, and the literally downtrodden wife was laying her grievances before the magistrate.

"He started by giving me a buff on the nut," explained the angry complainant.

"My good woman," rebuked the magistrate, "you mustn't talk like that here. I suppose you mean he gave you a blow upon the head."

"Yus, yer washup. An' then 'e tried ter do me in by chuckin' 'is 'bacsy box at me."

"By which I presume you mean," interposed the justice of the peace severely, "that he tried to injure you by precipitating his box of tobacco at you. Pray proceed and avoid slang and inform the court what other injuries he inflicted upon you."

"Well, then, he—er—he—"

"Come, come," snapped the magistrate, really beginning to lose his temper. "Don't waste the time of the court."

The ill used wife looked about her helplessly.

"Excuse me, yer washup," she exclaimed at length, "but I was wonderin' what was the pet name in this 'ere court for a buff on the jib?"—London Tit-Bits.

Saves Trouble.

"After all, it is an advantage to have a sophisticated husband."

"In what way?"

"Well, it isn't necessary to waste time hunting through his pockets at night!"—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Good Reason.

Wantano—Why do you call that boy of yours Flannel? Dumo—Because he just naturally shrinks from washing.—London Tit-Bits.

If God were to send two angels, one to rule an empire, and the other to sweep its streets, each would feel that his place was the place of duty and honor and would be satisfied with it.—Cecil.
