Riley Craven brought up the matter of a secret committee on advertising propositions, with which our merchants are continually dunned, the proper policy, as it did in the motion made, to all soliciting, and the same was unanimously carried. The president will now appoint a secret committee of three, whose duty it will be to investigate and report on the matter.

Mr. Hyster is a popular young man, being an active church worker and a graduate of Dallas College. She has taught school for several years in this county, having charge of the sixth grade in the Dallas public school for the last two years. The writer wishes here to acknowledge his lack of ability to describe what the bride was dressed except to say that it was not a lullaby.
