RESOLVED THAT WHETHER YOU PLAY FOOT BALL OR SEE OTHERS PLAY FOOT BALL YOU MUST BE DRESSED RIGHT. YOU WILL WIN OUT BETTER IN THE GAME YOU PLAY, IF YOU WEAR GOOD CLOTHES. BUSTER BROWN

SOME PLAY FOOTBALL, BUT THERE IS ONE GAME WE ALL PLAY--SUCCESS. WE HAVE A LOT TO DO WITH OUR SUCCESS OURSELVES; YET OTHERS ALSO HAVE A LOT TO DO WITH OUR SUCCESS. YOU CAN HAVE AN OPINION OF YOURSELF. THIS IS A GOOD THING TO HAVE, BUT IT WOULD BE A BETTER THING FOR OTHERS TO HAVE A GOOD OPINION OF YOU. OTHERS JUDGE YOU FIRST BY YOUR CLOTHES. HOW ELSE CAN THEY FIRST JUDGE YOU? BECAUSE THEY SEE YOUR CLOTHES BEFORE THEY HEAR YOU SPEAK. WEAR GOOD CLOTHES THEN, IN WHATEVER GAME YOU TAKE PART. SOME OF THESE THINGS MAY HELP YOU WIN.

A RECORD BREAKER.

First Time Snow Came Here in November for 44 Years.

The slight snowfall and consequent colder weather of last Friday and Saturday was certainly an eye opener for our older residents, and has rather—breaking all former records as it surely did—made us seem the greatest of prevaricators to our new comers to whom we have boasted of not getting a snow fall much before Christmas. The fact is that snow in the air thus early is something entirely unheard of. Ye editor has been here 27 years and never saw the like, but Mrs. Anna Coad informs us that when she was a girl of 10 years, some 44 years ago, snow fell to a slight extent on the 10th of November. Well, we have had several records broken in the last few years in the weather, and we might as well prepare for more of it. Peradventure the many new easterners who have come out here have brought some of their home weather with them, or we might lay it to the comet.

HOPS AID THREE FAMILIES.

Sheridan Farmers to Visit Old Homes as Result of Rich Yield.

A singular incident accompanies the proposed trip of three Sheridan ranchers and their families back East. Sheridan Braley, Steve Braley, his brother and A. W. Fletcher came to the Willamette Valley just 19 years ago, settling in the Sheridan country. This year Sheridan Braley netted $5800 from his hop crop, Steve Braley $4500, and A. W. Fletcher $6000, and all the men have decided that they will return East to Pennsylvania with their three families for a visit. All three ranchers have fine farms in the Goose-neck country, southeast of Sheridan, and their hops are among the fine ones. Oregonian.

MUSCOTT-PALMER.

Young Couple of Dallas Decide to Join Future Fortunes.

At the home of Mrs. Charley Baker last Sunday evening Rev. Leon Myers made one of Mr. Henry L. Muscott and Miss Dora L. Palmer, the ceremony occurring at 7 o'clock, and being witnessed by only the relatives of the bride and groom and a few of their most intimate friends. The happy couple are well known to all our people, and as a tribute to the esteem in which they are held the band went up Monday night and gave them some of their finest selections. Mrs. Muscott is the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer, and in her many years residence here has endeared herself to all by her ladylike qualities. Mr. Muscott is the junior partner of the transfer firm of Shaw & Muscott, and by his genial qualities and strict attention to business has worked up a trade that is hard to beat. The Itemizer and their many friends extend hearty congratulations.

Unique Locomotive.

Craven Bros.' show window has been the scene of a large crowd this week, attracted there by a unique display of what can be performed with different articles of hardware and tinware. By the use of such articles the clerks have constructed a fair sized locomotive with tender, complete in every detail, except the motive power. It does not take long for the looker on to see that considerable ingenuity was exercised in thinking out the many parts, assembling them so perfectly, and making of the complete whole the perfect model it is. Take a look at it.

Gone Into Effect.

The new model liquor license law went into effect yesterday, and each saloon and drug store now has tacked up in a prominent place a placard bearing the names of some half dozen residents to whom they are forbidden to sell liquor or to allow in their business place.

Baptist Church.

Sunday school 10 a. m.; subject, "Ezra returns to Jerusalem." Morning service 11 a. m.; subject, "A wonderful spectacle." Evening service 7:30; subject, "Watch and pray." H. JOHN VINE, Pastor.

DALLAS COUPLE WED.

Two of Our Promising Young People Join Life's Fortunes.

Last Saturday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al. Erickson, Rev. Edgar W. Miles, pastor of the Presbyterian church, with the impressive ceremony of that association securely wedded Miss Emma C. Erickson and Mr. Hilga Lindall, the marriage taking place at 8 o'clock, and Mr. Gus Boman and Mr. John Wick acting as the lawful witnesses of the event.

The home of the bride was beautifully decorated for the occasion with seasonable beautifiers and after the happy couple had been thoroughly congratulated by the 60 friends and relatives present to witness the happy event, a delicious luncheon of ice cream and cake was served. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful, ornamental and valuable presents, and at a late hour some 50 additional friends gathered on the outside and treated them to an old fashioned charivari party, of which good music was not the prominent feature; noise, no matter on what produced, seemed to be the only desired thing.

Sunday afternoon the wedding party were given a dinner at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. August Boman, to further assist in sending them along their new pathway.

Mrs. Lindall was born in Nebraska and has been a resident of Dallas for the last ten years. She is good looking and accomplished and has an unlimited number of friends.

Mr. Lindall is a nephew of Gus Boman, and has been out from the old country some four years. In that short time he has fully proven his worth as an estimable citizen, and is a trusted employee at the big sawmill.

LECTURE SERIES OPENED.

E. Hofer Delivers Address on Fiction at Monmouth School.

The first of the series of popular lectures was given Friday night at the chapel of the state normal school before a large audience. After the lecture a reception was held at the home of President and Mrs. J. H. Ackerman, which was attended by the faculty and many prominent citizens of Monmouth. The normal school has about 100 students enrolled, and is equipped for special work of training teachers.

E. Hofer, of the Board of Regents, was introduced and delivered an interesting address on "Fiction as related to Life." He said that Hamilton W. Mabie in the United States and John Saintsbury of Edinburgh University, were the greatest living critics of the present age, and their opinions were worth following in estimating the value of works of fiction. Oregonian.

Closing Up Negotiations.

DEDICATE SCHOOL HOUSE.

Residents Gather in New Seat of Learning at West Salem.

Residents of West Salem gathered in large numbers in the new West Salem school house Saturday for the purpose of dedicating the building to public education. An excellent and varied program was rendered, while talks by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alderman, Polk County School Superintendent Seymour and Mr. Thomason, correspondent for the Oregon Journal, of Portland, were made. In all the event was a very auspicious one for the new school and marks a new era in the prosperity and advancement of the city across the river.

Superintendent Alderman told some of his humorous stories and soon won the hearts of the students by his simplicity of language and illustration. His talk to the parents in regard to cooperating with the teachers in bringing the school and the home closer was full of sound wisdom. He illustrated how teachers, students and parents may work together for the advancement of the children. He said that the people of Polk county were gaining a great reputation for the building of new school houses, and that he is frequently called by Superintendent Seymour to dedicate ceremonies.

Superintendent Seymour told how the school was built and gave four causes that entered into the building, he showed how the people of Polk county were gaining a great reputation for the building of new school houses, and that he is frequently called by Superintendent Seymour to dedicate ceremonies.

The following program was rendered: Piano solo, Beth Bedford; recitation, Mildred Douglas; recitation, Dale Smith; song, "Sweet Summer," girls of the school; recitation, Raymond Means; recitation, Mary Simon; duet, "Rose of the Garden," Ruth Bedford and Mildred Douglas; recitation, Ronald Hogg; recitation, Louise Bragdon; clarinet solo, Kay Mickre; recitation, Mere Putnam; song, "Bonny Flag," by three girls; reading, Perry Reigelman; address, Superintendent Seymour; vocal solo, Inez Dennison; address, Superintendent Alderman; duet, Misses Anderson. Statesman.

Former Dallas Girl Marries in Portland.

Otis Fisher and Miss Pearl Talbot were married at the home of the bride's parents; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Talbot, 372 Stark street, November 1st, Rev. D. R. Lowens officiating. Decorations of palms, ferns and white carnations were used throughout the house, and the ring service was read beneath an arch of white flowers. Only immediate relatives and a few friends were asked to the wedding. The bride was attended by Mrs. J. C. Talbot. J. C. Talbot was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will be at home to their friends after November 12th. Oregonian.

Went Through the Window.

Tuesday afternoon was the occasion of a large gathering on Main street as if it had been a fire, it being occasioned by a couple of loggers raising a disturbance in the Jap restaurant, and one of them taking a header through the window to escape the irate proprietor. There is too much of that kind of business on that corner, and if a quiet place cannot be run it should be closed up.

Dislocates Her Shoulder.

Friday, Aunt Nan Brown, who makes her home with John Ritter on the Luckiamute, slipped in the yard and fell in such a manner as to dislocate her shoulder and terribly strain the attendant ligaments. Dr. Staats was called and soon had the old lady resting as quietly as possible.

Beezley Gets $35.
