

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET.

As far as is known of their findings to date, they indicted Majors on two counts for assault on West Salem ladies; also Charley Hewitt for burglary. They failed to indict J. C. Cochrane, for obtaining money under false pretenses; Elmer Kemp, charged with stealing a horse and buggy; Joseph Graham, with assault for rape; N. A. AUGUST WERNER DEAD.

Passes Away at His Jefferson Street Home Monday.

At 3 o'clock last Monday there passed away at his home at 800 Jefferson street in this city one of Polk County's representative citizens, a man who during his years of residence among us had endeared himself to all of his acquaintanceship by his many sterling qualities. August M. Werner was a man thoroughly honest in every respect, following out the rule through life that he would treat others as he would like to be treated. During his life among us he had not accepted office, nor taken any particular interest in public life, his age prohibiting much out of the ordinary except a quiet home life, and his desires tending in that direction. Besides his wife and family he leaves many warm friends to sincerely mourn his passing to that great beyond, where the troubles of earth cease to bother and the reward earned there is allotted.

Mr. Werner was born November 10, 1837, at Lobsens, Germany. He came to America in 1855, and settled in Princeton, Wis., moving in 1863 to Blue Earth, Minn., where he was married to Miss Amelia Domes in 1867; twelve children were born of this union, three of whom have since died, the rest being Mrs. J. W. Sasse, of Appleton, Minnesota, Fred A. and George H. Warner, of Perrydale; Will Werner, of Corvallis, Albert A. and Ben J. of Dallas; Walter, O. and Ed A. of Ponoka, Alta, Canada; Mrs. J. O. Hooker, of Beaverton, and also one sister Mrs. Augusta Missall, of Beldon, North Dakota.

The funeral was held from the home at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Chester Gates officiating. Flowers were supplied in abundance, and numerous friends were in attendance, and relatives from a distance were, Miss A. M. Domes, of Portland, a niece; Fred Missall, of Portland, and Gust Missall, of Albany, nephews. All the children were present except Walter and Ed, who live at such a distance as to be unable to get here.

The remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, in a steel grave vault.

The family desire to here express their sincere thanks for the many beautiful flowers and other kindnesses shown during sickness and death.
