That the Pacific Northwest need not take second place with any other section of the country in feeding and fattening livestock is shown by the recent killing of a 2100-pound steer at the Portland stockyards that dressed but 72.14 per cent. So far as known this is the best percentage ever shown anywhere. The much boasted corn belt is surpassed. The champion steer at the recent national livestock show in Chicago dressed 66.2 per cent.

Christmas was duly and truly observed by all residents of Dallas, and was an occasion of good cheer and festivities from which there were hardly any exceptions. The churches all held exercises and had trees on Christmas eve, and all were made exquisitely happy, especially the younger ones, by receiving gifts appropriate to the season. Many preferred their trees at home, by their own fireside, and family reunions were numerous. The giving spirit was uppermost in the hearts of all, and for once in the year all animosities and jealousies were buried in the giving and receiving of mutual congratulation upon the birth of a Christ child.

OUR POLK COUNTY PROPHET.

From Washington comes the weighty news that Ralph Williams, national Republican committeeman from Oregon, says Mr. Taft will be nominated and triumphantly elected. And it's our Ralph, too, our Ralph who grew to be a statesman amid the clover fields and tall grass of Polk county. What a joy that in presidential politics it is an Oregonian who knows who's who and what's what. If the gentleman from old Polk tells them at Washington that it is to be Taft, it must be Taft and there is not much use to hold a convention. Nor to hold an election. It is all over but the inauguration. La Follette's boom is punctured, Sagamore Hill is a hole in the ground. The colonel has abdicated, and the progressives are laid away in cold storage. Pinchot doesn't know whether to turn around or go ahead, and the Democratic Mule has swallowed a gallon of whiskey and kicked itself to death. All this is what is meant in what our Ralph says to the big men at Washington. It is what has come to pass because Polk county rose up on her hind legs and produced a real statesman. But, let's see. Wasn't it our Ralph that helped to pull off a great assembly movement in Oregon?—Portland Journal.

THE NEW YEAR.

Looking back over our files we find the following pertinent editorial in the issue of December 31, 1880, and reprint it, standing fast for all the promises made by the editor of 31 years ago:

"Today the book closes for 1880, and with the next morning's dawn the year 1881 will have entered upon its course. It is well at this time to take a retrospective glance at the past, and discover if we can what good works we could have accomplished if we had only made proper use of the means within our power. Every person who is placed upon the earth has his mission to accomplish, and by his acts he is judged. Time is ever fleeting, and the many opportunities it presents must be embraced if we wish to keep pace with the world we live in. That the era for hard, earnest work has dawned with the advent of the present century none can deny, and if we wish to be 'no sluggard in the race of life' we must fully realize that there is no success without labor. Have you, kind patrons, accomplished the work you intended in the year about to close? Have you made use of the opportunities presented to you and profited by them? If not, now make a new resolve. Promise that for the coming year you will so comport yourselves that when the Itemizer again wishes you 'A Happy New Year' it will greet you with good promises well and faithfully observed.

The Itemizer, in greeting its numerous patrons, while not boasting of its excellence as a live local paper, would state that the promises it made a year ago have been faithfully kept and that time and labor have been equally devoted to make our paper a welcome guest to the family and the fireside. Encouraged by the support received in the past, we enter upon the new year with renewed hope and shall do all that lies in our power to merit a continuation of the support now so generously extended to us. We wish our readers a Happy New Year."

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper cover. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

HIS ECZEMA GONE AND BOILS CURED

Eczema Began When Three Weeks Old. Arms, Shoulders and Breast a Solid Scab. Boils Broke Out During Teething. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and He Was the Picture of Health.

"My son was about three weeks old when I noticed a breaking-out on his cheeks, from which a watery substance oozed. A short time after, his arms, shoulders and breast broke out also, and in a few days became a solid scab. I became alarmed, and called our family physician who at once pronounced the disease eczema. The little fellow was under his treatment for about three months, by the end of that time, seemed no better. I became discouraged. I dropped the doctor's treatment, and commenced the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in a few days a marked change. The eruption on his cheeks was almost healed, and his shoulders, arms and breast were decidedly better. When he was about seven months old, all trace of the eczema was gone.

"During his teething period, his head and face were broken out in boils which I cured with Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Surely he must have been a great sufferer. During the time of teething and from the time I dropped the doctor's treatment, I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, nothing else, and when two years old he was the picture of health. His complexion was soft and beautiful, and he had a mass of silky curls. I had been afraid that he would never be able to walk, but I feel that I owe a great deal to the Cuticura Remedies." (Signed) Mrs. M. J. Jackson, 24 E. Jackson St., Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 24, 1910.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a liberal sample of each, with 25-cent booklet on the skin and hair, will be sent, post-free, on application to Fetter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 53, Boston.
