In Justice Court. Monday before Justice Holma Chas. Livesley brought suit against W. H. Pelker & Pelker for non-independence, for possession of the latter's hop yard on which a four years lease has been obtained, only three of which had been used. It was tried before a jury consisting of W. A. Simonton, P. A. Finshet, D. J. Riley, John Bird and M. D. Ellis, and they found for Mr. Livesley, but the case was appealed and will now go to a higher court.

Farewell Reception. At the circle last evening Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Starr, prior to their departure to take up their residence in Portland, were tendered a farewell party. The evening was spent in social entertainment and banquet, the partners to the latter being secured by severed hearts in honor of Valentine day. A. P. Starr got the first prize and Wayne Greenwood the booby prize, losing all his hearts. Miss Mamie Montgomery, organizer, was also present.

Christian Church. Bible school 10 a. m. Morning service 11 a. m. topic, "How We Know that the Spirit Beareth Witness with our Spirits." The text is Rom. 8:16 Read entire chapter. Junior Endeavor at 4. Senior C. E., 6:30. Evening service 7:30. Subject, "How I may know I am saved." Don't miss these services. Special music each service.

LEON L. MYERS, Christian minister. REVIVAL SERVICES. The revival services at the Methodist church have been well attended from the first and the crowds are growing in number every night. The preaching is plain, forceful and convincing. There have already been a number of conversions who are now rejoicing in what God has done for them. From 30 to 50 voices are in the choir every night, with Miss Merritt's solos makes the song service one of the most attractive features of each evening unless you enjoy the beaming faces and words of appreciation of those who have been converted. This is a great revival, large crowds, good singing and a hearty welcome to all comers. All who hear Miss Gleason preach, and Miss Merritt sing are delighted and charmed. We hear words of appreciation from all who hear them. A lot of new seats have been put in to accommodate the people and more will be put in at once to insure that all who come will have a seat. Our building is well lighted and heated and best of all God is with us and has honored his messengers by bringing men and women to himself. All are invited to come and enjoy these privileges with us. Friday evening will be given to the college and high school students. Monday evening seats will be reserved for men, with a special address to men.

Miss Gleason will speak at 11 p. m. on "The Great Need of the Church Today." In the evening her subject is "Tekel." Services will continue every night next week. Kopiaih Coal. First class Kopiaih coal in any quantity delivered to any part of the city promptly on telephone call. Leave orders with S. M. Ray & Co., phone 31. W. L. Barber, dealer in coal.

SENTIMENT OF WOODROW WILSON IN WILSON, PEOPLE COUNTRY SHOWN GREAT DEMOCRAT SEE TRUE FRIEND

Editorial Comment Proves Woodrow Wilson Is Almost Unanimous Choice for President. Judge Stringer of Illinois Recognizes Him as the Logical Leader of the Party. Voters of Both Parties Sure Best Interests of Country Will Be Served by His Election.

GROWS STRONGER EVERY DAY IS FITTED FOR WHITE HOUSE CONFIDENCE IN TAFT LOST

Democratic Party Has Opportunity of Signaling its Return to Power With the Election of an Ideal Chief Executive. Renomination of Present Chief Executive Will Mean That Progressive Republicans Will Turn to New Jersey Statesman.

BY LAWRENCE B. STRINGER, Democratic Candidate for the U. S. Senate From Illinois Against Lorimer. Before meeting Gov. Wilson, I was somewhat predisposed in his favor, from having read many of his productions and having admired the great comprehensive grasp of economic conditions which pervade all his political utterances and writings.

Still well predisposed in his favor, until I had personally met and conversed with him, I was not convinced of his availability as a candidate for President. Since meeting Gov. Wilson, however, all doubt in that regard, in my own mind, has been removed. Gov. Wilson is presidential material of the exact kind and quality required at the present time. To begin with he is an intellectual giant, with a broad comprehensive grasp of every public situation. Throughout the east, he is universally regarded as the brainiest American living today.

Michigan for Wilson. Marquette (Mich.) Minn. Journal—The New Jersey candidate has a big following among the Democrats of Michigan and stands a fair show of winning the Wolverine delegation to the National convention ranged behind his banner. Wisconsin Seeing the Light. Milwaukee (Wis.) Journal—Just go ahead and nominate Taft, with Willson on the opposing candidate, and see what happens to the Grand Old Party right here in Wisconsin. There'll be the worst grade-crossing horror that ever happened north of Neneah.

Ever Seen Wilson as Next President. Roswell (N. M.) Record—The Republican newspapers are afraid of Woodrow Wilson for 1912 and their fear is made manifest in a variety of ways. Since the election of last week when New Jersey did not do so well as it might have done, these papers have taken occasion to renew their attacks on Wilson. But, nevertheless, Woodrow Wilson will be elected president of the United States next year.

His Worth Recognized. Long Branch (N. J.) Record—Picture the great man in the editorial sanctum of Editor H. P. Bennett at the Press office. There you will find photos of statesmen of the past, present and future. Governor Wilson, of course, is in the line. Instead of putting Wilson's name under the portrait he has placed there, the text is: "A Man." General Trend Toward Wilson. Windsor (Glas.) News—According to the sentiment of the country, as shown by interviews in newspapers as well as editorials, the trend toward the nomination of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for the presidency is growing stronger every day.

They Are Afraid of Him. Ottawa (Kan.) Republican—It is significant fact that the Taft newspapers all have a special antipathy for Woodrow Wilson. They make a prominent display of every item of news that seems to favor any other candidate for the Democratic nomination. Woodrow why? Wilson Boon Overshadows All. Boston (Mass.) Traveler—The Woodrow Wilson boom nowadays is making several other presidential nominations sound like muffled drums. Would Draw From Republicans. Fresno (Cal.) Herald—The nomination of a man like Woodrow Wilson on the Democratic ticket will bring to its support all the really progressive strength of the Republican party.

People for Wilson. Huntsville (Ala.) Times—Woodrow Wilson is the most favorably talked of presidential candidate in the running. This is because the people are for him. Highest Type of Character. Houston (Tex.) Chronicle—Signs are multiplying on every side that Woodrow Wilson is the best man for the Democrats to put up, because he is the highest type of Democrat, an American of the character and caliber of the country's elder statesmen whose names illuminate the pages of our history. Appeals to Thinking People. Springfield (Ill.) Reporter—Governor Woodrow Wilson recently said in a public address: "The immediate thing we have got to do is to renege popular government." Irrespective of past party alignments, or party prospects, it is a pronounced theme which will appeal strongly to a great many thinking people. It is one that the Republican leaders in Vermont and elsewhere can afford to ignore?

And He Has Something to Say. Knoxville (Tenn.) Sentinel—An exchange is perturbed with fear that Woodrow Wilson may talk too much. The veiled meaning of this hint is that it is wiser for a candidate to whangle his attitude on the trusts than to take the public into his confidence. However, we can see no objection to public discussion so long as one has anything to say.

Candidate's Announcement. I beg to announce my candidacy for the nomination for county assessor, subject to the will of the republican voters of Polk county, in the primary election to be held April 19, 1912. W. A. AYRES.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

BY HON. FRANK G. CANNON, Former United States Senator From Utah. I have traveled in ten states since leaving Colorado a month ago. The cry of the Democrats in these states—Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and even Missouri—is for LaFollette and Wilson. The Progressive Democrats want the Republican party to nominate Robert LaFollette for the presidency; so that if the Democratic party shall lose—the people will win.

And Progressive Republicans want the Democratic party to nominate Woodrow Wilson; so that if the Republican party shall lose—the people will win. You will observe that the Progressives do not have a choice between LaFollette and Wilson. The Progressive party is for LaFollette and Wilson. The Democratic party is for LaFollette and Wilson.

But there remains Wilson, whose nomination by the Democratic convention can only prevent the election of either LaFollette or Woodrow Wilson. But the Progressive Republicans are able, they have the energy, the intellect and the courage to fight for the nomination of Woodrow Wilson.

At all times and places, says a writer in Success, Woodrow Wilson has counseled opening our government to the light. This is the most significant thing that he has done. "Every community is vaguely aware of what the political machine upon which it looks stands for. It is not until the machine is broken down that the people are engaged in business on a large scale and the suspicion which attaches to the machine itself has been removed.
