Formerly Dallas Resident.
 W. J. Demorst was committed to the insane asylum Monday from Wilderville, near Crants Pass. He was formerly an attendant at the asylum, but sometime ago became insane and was sent to the Medical Lake asylum, Washington state.
 About two months ago he was sent to the Oregon asylum but later was paroled. He took French leave while working out and went to Jefferson where he worked as a carpenter. He worked there a few days and went to Cottage Grove where he has a brother who is a dentist. Attendants were sent there to bring him back but in the meantime he and his brother left. Finally word was received that he was at Wilderville and attendants brought him back yesterday.—Statesman.

Crosses and Lilies
 These are two of the emblems of Easteride. We have hundreds of cards and letters of greeting in which they form the main feature.
Bunnies and Eggs
 For the children's amusement, we have many cards and novelties bearing these popular emblems. Easter Sunday comes on April 7th; less than ten days from now. Remember your friends with one of our beautiful cards.
