Luther, of the east, has rented the P. O. Martin house in East Dallas. Phone in your mohair fleeces Secretary Fertion if you want to be included in the pool. It did not rain in Dallas on Easter, so we need not be apprehensive of the next seven Sundays. The republican Taft forces are planning for a big rally here next Saturday with Charley Fulton as the chief attraction. I carry a full line of everything and expert watch and jewelry repairing done at my jewelry store on Main street.—J. H. Shepherd. A little daughter of Ed. Koub died at Salem Thursday, and was taken to Ballston for interment beside her mother, who died not long ago. In his auto Tuesday night Conrad Staffin took over to Salem Oscar Hayter, C. B. Sundberg and Carl Williams, where the latter was made a Knight Templar. A farewell family dinner was given Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Woods, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lovelace, last Saturday afternoon, just before they started for Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Mapes desire to express their heart felt thanks to the members of the Christian church, and to all others who responded so graciously in their behalf in their recent misfortune. Mrs. John Driscoll, mother of Jerry Driscoll, the genial clerk in Black's grocery, passed away at Erie, Pennsylvania, March 31st. She was aged 52 years and had been bedfast with rheumatism for years. The funeral services of the late J. A. Lindeman were held at the Lewisville church Sunday morning by Rev. S. M. Wood, of Corvallis. There was a large turnout of the many friends who had known him for 40 years. The Woodman hall was the scene of great hilarity Tuesday night, ending up the attendance contest with a big banquet to some 70 people. W. G. Vassall had the members put on some stunts afterward that caused much merriment, and an extra quantity of noise. Fire broke out in J. S. Bohannon's ash and door factory at Independence late Friday night, but the flames were extinguished before much damage occurred. Fire again started in another part of the building Saturday morning and this was also discovered in time to prevent conflagration.—Statesman. Last Friday night the residence of Basil Mapes, on what is known as the Harris place, east of town, burned to the ground, Mrs. Mapes being awakened by the roaring of the flames. The young couple, who have been working hard to make them a nice home and meet their financial engagements are now without a home or clothing of any kind. The accident is most regrettable, with all the attendant circumstances, and it would be well if substantial sympathy were offered.

Dallas may have an Episcopal church next. John Crippen and wife of Smitfield, have a new daughter. A West Salem farmer thinks he may discover a gold ledge in his well. I am prepared to haul away your garbage at any time.—Ed Plaster. Wm. Wilkins is up from Portland looking after his property interests here. J. S. Smith, an Alaska mining man, is visiting his old friend, John Sweeney. You have tried the rest, now get the best in the West—Dr. Lowe's glasses. George Conley went to Portland today to be operated on for cancer of the tongue. Walter M. Pierce candidate for U. S. senator on the democratic ticket, was a caller Tuesday. Monday evening a shower party was given Miss Laura Poling at the home of Miss Gladys Carter. The Evangelical church ladies will have home baking for sale at Butler's cash grocery Saturday. J. B. Thompson and wife, of Dallas, were in the city today, guests at the St. Francis.—Albany Herald. Frank Hubbard has withdrawn from the county judge race, and J. S. Dunton from that of school superintendent. Yesterday morning at the court house Judge Hardy Holman made one flesh of Bernard Bramhall and Flora Killion. Wm. Herzog returned Wednesday evening from Portland, where he has been in attendance on Mrs. Herzog, who has been quite ill. Frank Meyer brought us in a White Leghorn egg Saturday that measured 7 1-2 by 6 1-4, which is certainly going some for that little fowl. Hon. C. A. Johns, a former Dallas lawyer, has moved from Baker City to Portland, where he will act as an attorney for the Harriman lines. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lovelace returned Friday night from a several months stay on the Sound. Mr. Lovelace says this was the first loaf of his life. All repairing neatly and substantially done on watches, clocks and jewelry by R. W. Bennett at the Shepherd jewelry store Main street to which satisfied customers attest. A family row at Broadmead Sunday caused our correspondents to the city papers to make a big writeup over nothing. Too much fire water was the cause, but no one was shot as reported. Frank Thomas was over from Dallas Saturday and traded teams with Joe Stowe, taking the little bay team to Dallas and leaving a large black team formerly owned by Mr. Stowe here.—Amity Standard. Frank VanNortwick and family leave Saturday for their new home on the J. L. Riggs place, for which he lately traded. C. A. Cook, who bought the delivery outfit, also assumes charge that day. D. A. Elkins has begun suit in the circuit court against W. C. Shortridge for the sum of $201, with interest at 8 per cent from February 15, 1911, on a promissory note. The note was given to another party and assigned to the plaintiff for collection. Mr. Elkins is attorney for himself.—Eugene Guard. Call at Hotel Gail next Wednesday and Thursday and have Dr. Lowe show you the new invisible Goric Bifocals with which you can see all distances. They make you feel young without making you look old. Free demonstrations. Scores of Dallas references. Will be in Independence, Friday, April 19th. Sunday evening Sheriff Grant picked up an escapee from the asylum named Frank Griffith in the vicinity of Rickreall and returned him to the asylum. He refused to be arrested in the Ramsey house, but the sheriff sort of rough-housed him and he took another notion. He got away from the asylum Thursday evening. Mr. O. B. Rippey, a prominent merchant of Dayton and president of the insurance company there, came in to see us Saturday. He was visiting his old friend Mr. J. L. Castle. Sunday morning he received a phone message that his wife had passed away suddenly of heart failure, a most lamentable ending to his otherwise happy visit. Mrs. M. Hayter gave a reception Tuesday afternoon in honor of the Grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Pauline Moore-Riley, of Baker City. A most pleasant afternoon was passed by those present, other guests of honor being Mrs. E. Kirkland, of Independence, and Miss Flora McCallon, worthy matrons of the local lodges.
