Call a New Pastor.

At a meeting of the Christian church officials last Sunday a call was unanimously extended to Rev. Victor E. Hoover, of Cottage Grove to accept the pastorate of the church here. Rev. Leon Myers has concluded to take a post graduate course in theological work at the Eugene university for the next year, and while so doing will act as student pastor at the Silverton church. Mr. Myers leaves here with the sincere regret of his fold who honor him for the noble work he has done since here—one hardly equalled owing to his untiring efforts in that direction. Mr. Hoover is unknown to us, but comes with high recommendations.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Get Rid of the Weeds Next Tuesday.

Upon the request of the city council I hereby designate Tuesday, July 16th, as a general weed pest eradication day. This action is taken for the purpose of promoting encouraged activity in destroying unsightly conditions due to obnoxious weeds that have become too numerous in the city limits and are required by law to be eradicated. Cooperation is asked for united action in cutting down all weeds and grass on above date and particular attention is called to objectionable conditions along sidewalks when weeds are an obstruction.

Signed J. R. CRAVEN, Mayor.

LIST OF AUTOS GROWING.

The other evening a number of us got to discussing the increasing number of autos in town over last year. We concluded to see how many we could remember, by guessing the number at 50. Edwin Jacobson thought there were not that many and lost the ice cream on it, as 57 were thought of, and some may have been missed. See if we forgot you: I. N. ARTISANS MEETING.

Have Large Competitive Drill at Armory.

Last Monday night at the armory was one of the gala events of the Artisan membership of this section. Early evening brought two large motor trucks filled to capacity with people, one holding those from Airline and Suver Assemblies and the other a crowd from Salem.

The drill hall of the armory had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, the principal feature of which was a competitive model drill between teams from Airline, Salem, Wells and Dallas. Each team was composed of 16 members, and all put on the realistic work in fine shape. Dallas lodge putting in some extra fine evolutions under the leadership of Mrs. Ella Metzger. The prize was a banner and Salem team carried it off home with them. Several grand lodge officers were present and made speeches which were well received. A bunch of a dozen candidates were initiated and several names were proposed for membership.

The visitors numbered about 300, and a most enjoyable evening was spent until nearly midnight, when all repaired to the Woodman hall, where a banquet was served. The tables were laden with everything one could desire on such an occasion and the visitors were profuse in their compliments regarding the hospitality and entertainment of the Dallas lodge. It was late in the morning before the joyous affair came to a close, and the delegates from McMinnville, Salem, Airline, Whiteson, Wells and Rickreall left for home.

The speakers were Attorney General Crawford, Mrs. Dibble, organizer, and other master artisans, and the supreme master artisan, H. S. Hudson.

Mrs. Haines, wife of our driller at the Whiteaker well, passed away last week at Hillsboro, and the body was shipped to her old home in Pennsylvania for interment. She was a most estimable lady and a long sufferer from tuberculosis, 11
