Better Than Ice
Ice affords but temporary relief from heat—a cooling breeze is more effective.
Iced food or drink drives the heat of the body to the surface, making the skin feel hot and disagreeable; a breeze reduces the temperature of the skin by process of evaporation, thus keeping the whole body cool and comfortable. The G-E 8-in. Oscillating Fan provides the ideal breeze for homes and offices—the swinging breeze that circulates the air in all parts of the room, so that all the occupants enjoy the benefits of its cooling influence.
Let us install one in your home or office. Its breeze will keep you cool all summer for less than a cent-an-hour.

Praises Perrydale Band
Among the various musical organizations which help to enliven the spirits of a large crowd last night, was the amateur band from Perrydale, under the leadership of J. P. Caldwell. The organization of 35 men was one of the first bands on the streets of this morning, and dispensed all sorts of music, both classical and semi-classical, and lots of rag-time. In their neat blue uniforms streaked with white braid they made a very good showing and attracted much favorable comment. The uniforms of the Perrydale contingent were formerly those of the Journal Carriers' association. The band proper has only been organized since last October. "It is just a little country town band," said Director Caldwell this morning, but I believe that we have demonstrated what we can do. Our band has done a lot to advertise Perrydale."—Journal.

Patronize One Another for the Uplifting of Town and County.
WILL COME SOMETIME.

An eastern man the other day, when we were talking about natural gas, said he would rather have an owner's interest in a gas well than the town of Dallas. That seemed to us a very exaggerated statement, but when we take into consideration that such a well, providing the flow was sufficient, could be made to supply the town of Dallas with light and heat, the city of Salem with the same, and, if necessary, could easily be piped to the metropolis to supply our thousands. It is well known that nearly within our city limits we have natural gas in quantity, but what quantity has never yet been determined. Before long someone with sufficient capital to sink wells and experiment will undoubtedly be found, as it is a money making proposition that cannot always lie idle. Our development needs the utilization of all our resources, especially our natural ones. There is hardly any question but that where gas is found at all it may be found in quantity, all that is needed being to continue probing until the right spot is struck. The finding of natural gas would prove a god send to our people in the way of cheaper fuel and the many different things for which it might be used. For instance, in the burning of brick it has proven of much more advantage than the present method, and Mr. Partridge would welcome it as a long lost child. Gas would also create other industries, which we now lack on account of the high cost of fuel. Like the finding of oil, this is an industry we are held back from by lack of capital, but it will come sometime, and the sooner the better for our advancement.

SUFFRAGE IN COLORADO.
Have the suffragists no sense of humor or of the fitness of things, that they continue to quote Governor Shafroth of Colorado in regard to the beauties of woman suffrage? Have they forgotten the fact that Shafroth was forced to resign his seat in congress in face of the most convincing mass of evidence that pointed to corrupt politics in sending him to congress? Have they forgotten that the evidence brought forth the fact that women were as corrupt as men in that memorable corrupting election?
Woman suffrage of Colorado carried off equal honors with manhood suffrage, when the Shafroth method of election was made to an appalled world. It becomes Shafroth to speak of the beauties and the purifying effects of the woman vote.
To ask such a politician to express himself on the women suffrage question—and expect the public to take him seriously, is offering insult to average intelligence.—Ex.

MUST HAVE CANNERY.
A couple of weeks ago the Itemizer put in a plea for a cannery at Dallas because so many of our growers had goodly portions of their crops of strawberries left on their hands. Now we are compelled to reiterate the demand on account of the surplus of cherries, logan and other berries. This is a wonderful valley for the propagation of all kinds of small fruits, as no particular care has to be taken in the selection of land on which to raise, most varieties bearing prolifically by just sticking them in the ground and letting them alone, and so far are without pests. Every farmer has berries going to waste, and most of them cherries in the same condition. A cannery would see these vines and trees made a source of revenue instead of simply a supply for the family. Another season must not see Dallas without a cannery. We have waited too long, already.

Last Saturday night really marked the opening of our band concerts, as it was the first evening that the temperature was really pleasant in summer garb. From 8 until 9 our main street was a pretty sight, crowded as it was with pedestrians, autoists and rigs of all descriptions. The court house green was covered with lolling groups and dancing children, all showing to advantage under the numerous electric lights. The band numbers were continuously applauded, and everyone was out for a good time. Our farmers should all take a layoff of Saturday nights, come to town and help us enjoy our good music. As far as we know Dallas is the only town in Oregon furnishing a weekly treat of this kind entirely free to everyone.
A small electric plant of one and one-third horse power, suitable for lighting purposes and for driving small motors, is now made which is cranked like an automobile and runs automatically. The machine consists of a small electric generator direct-connected to a gasoline engine, and mounted in the same compact frame. It takes only a few square feet of floor space.
Oregon and Washington nurserymen, at their meeting just held determined to wage a vigorous campaign for members during the coming year, so that when the American association of Nurserymen meets in Portland next June, the visitors will be met by strong delegations from the two Northwest states. It is hoped to swell the enrollment of the Oregon-Washington association of Nurserymen to 500 by next June.

Women!
If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

More Money For You
Greater productivity of trees—larger, cleaner, and finer fruit—more money. Isn't that fruit growers' reasoning? Nothing will contribute to this more than effective spraying. And Effective Spraying can best be attained with Bean Magic Spray Pumps
Effective spraying means High Pressure Spraying and the advent of the Bean Magic—a high pressure could not be maintained with a hand pump for any length of time, on account of the body-racking effort needed to operate it. The Bean Magic spring division of the work between the two strokes of the handle and works against only one-half the pressure shown on the gauge and saves exactly one-third the labor.
We have these pumps in stock and will be pleased to show them. We cannot recommend them too strongly.
