That Baby Show.

One of the most interesting features of last Saturday afternoon, especially to the feminine portion of the crowd, and deserving of special mention, was the baby show. Quite a number of mothers considered their offspring as the prettiest, daintiest and sweetest, and entered them in the contest. Most of the baby carriages containing the exhibits were fancifully and tastefully decorated with flowers, ribbons, evergreens, etc., and the parade around the court house lawn was quite imposing. Dr. Helworth, of Falls City, and Dr. O. D. Butler, of Independence, and Miss Parrott, of the normal school, had been selected as judges, but the two latter got cold feet, and Dr. Helworth had to do the job alone. As an expert in this line he has no competitors, and while there are 15 or 20 mothers that think he does not know a thing about good looking babies there are a half dozen who do, but five of them question his ability to award first prize for the prettiest boy under one year, and that of C. L. Crier second. Mrs. J. R. Sibley got first for the girl under one year and Mrs. A. W. Bennett second. Boy under two years, Mrs. S. B. Taylor first, Mrs. Peter Berg second. Girl under two years, Mrs. W. A. Schoel. Mrs. C. L. Crier had the prettiest decorated carriage and Mrs. A. W. Bennett second.

Good Showing of Horses.

It was clearly demonstrated at the fair that Polk county has as good horseflesh as there is anywhere. The regular afternoon parade of horses was an eye opener to all. Next year this feature will be one not to be overlooked, and with cattle can be made very entertaining. Everyone likes to see good stock, especially on parade.

Bandmen, Attention!

There will be a special business meeting of the Dallas band, Monday, October 21. All uniforms must be turned in at that time.
