

POLK COUNTY MERCANTILE CO.

DALLAS, OREGON

ANNOUNCES--Great Opening Sale BEGINS SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1912

The sale is preparatory to the opening of our business, to the future home of the Polk County Mercantile Company. We will occupy the large store-room of the Hotel Gail Annex, known as the Thompson Block. Our new store, as soon as the sale is over, will be fitted up in the most modern way. We hold a 5-year lease on the building. We have come to stay.

We propose to allow the public to purchase, from this $30,000 stock, just $10,000 worth of goods, at from 25 to 50 cents on the Dollar, making a reduction in all cases of 50 cents on the Dollar, and in many cases a reduction of 75 cents on the Dollar, and when we have sold this amount the sale will be closed and the price advanced to the usual mark.

Saturday We Inaugurate

a sweeping price slaughter, such as Polk County has never had before, and will never have again, of our immense stock of the finest quality of Merchandise that was ever placed on sale to the public at such ridiculous low prices.

Our Entire Stock of Ladies' and Children's Millinery Goods, Fine Tailored Suits, Coats, Raincoats, Cravenettes, Dresses, Waists, Petticoats, Hosiery, Corsets, Handkerchiefs, Underwear, Hats, Hat Trimmings, Flowers, Plumes, Umbrellas, Leather Goods, Veiling, Rain Capes, Parasols, Kimonas, Bath Robes, Sweaters, Jewelry, Notions and Holiday Goods, Kid and Silk Gloves, Mittens and Thousands of Articles, that we cannot mention on account of space, will be thrown on the market, without regard to profit or cost, enabling the wearers of fine apparel to supply their needs and wants at a small cost.

We have over bought in the above line of goods and we are compelled to make this great sacrifice sale in prices. "It is Our Loss and Your Gain." We have got to make room for incoming goods and our elaborate fixtures.

1000 beautiful sleeping German Dolls will be given away. These Dolls were bought in Germany at great cost to this company, and we are going to present them to purchasers of goods from this store free of charge. : : : : :

Remember we carry nothing but First Class Merchandise. Come now while the lines are not broken and take advantage of this great opportunity.

We have a beautiful line of Holiday Goods, come early and get your pick, and we will lay them away for you. : : : : :

Remember the Place: The Annex, Hotel Gail, Dallas, Oregon.

Remember the Time: Saturday Morning. It's Your Opportunity, Take Advantage. STORE OPEN 8 O'CLOCK.
