Delegation Will Visit Portland Next Tuesday to Confer With Hill Officials.

The commercial club met in regular session last evening at the court house, President Fuller in the chair for the first time.

A. B. Muir addressed the meeting pointing out the advantage to the people of this vicinity in the event of the Hill lines being extended to Dallas. He moved that the club extend an invitation to the city council to accompany them and go in a body before Mr. Young of the Hill lines at Portland next Tuesday to see what could be done in the matter of having the road extended to Dallas.

Secretary Tooez reported that he had secured an engagement in behalf of the club with Mr. Young for Friday, but as that would not give sufficient notice to some of the business men, it was decided to postpone it for next Tuesday. N. L. Guy, W. L. Tooez and W. L. Soehren were appointed a committee to confer with the city council, and were also instructed to secure data regarding freight and passenger shipments, so that they may go supplied with information to show why the Hill people should continue their lines.

GEORGE REED DEAD.

Passes Away Friday at his Home in North Dallas.

George W. Reed passed away January 10, 1913, at his home in North Dallas after an illness of 10 days of pneumonia. The funeral occurred at the home residence on Laurel avenue at 10:30 Monday morning. Crider and Clarence Shultz acted as active pall bearers, a delegation from the G. A. R., of Dallas, escorting the body to its last resting place.

The deceased was born in Columbus county, Ohio, March 18, 1833, when on September 18, 1866, he married Miss Sarah Beal. They came to Oregon April 1, 1891, first settling in McMinnville, from where they moved to Dallas in 1899. Deceased was a civil war veteran, having served for three years in Company K of 104th regiment of Ohio volunteer infantry. Besides his widow he leaves four children to sincerely mourn his loss: Mrs. J. A. Town, of Pendleton, Mrs. Iola Gleason, of Salem, Mrs. Ida Hayes and R. E. Reed, of Dallas, and six grandchildren. Mr. Reed was a man respected by all who knew him, a thorough gentleman of the old school, and one whose passing will be sincerely missed by many friends.

The Dallas fruit growers association held their annual meeting last Saturday afternoon at the courthouse. The main subjects discussed was the establishment of a cannery and securing a labor bureau in order that sufficient help might be obtained during the picking season. Cooperation along all lines was put thoroughly up to all, and the association will endeavor to have J. O. Holt, the manager of the Eugene Fruit growers association, address them at an early date. It was decided to purchase spray from wholesalers in the future, and to get all reliable data possible from fruit growers of the valley for the information of their members. W. L. Soehren, G. L. Hawkins and R. M. Ewing were appointed to take up the matter of a cannery with the commercial club. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read, and the old officers re-elected, as follows: President H. C. Eakin; vice, H. S. Butz; secretary, R. M. Ewing; assistant, N. L. Guy; treasurer, H. A. Woods, directors, J. S. Parker, Wm. Elliott, N. M. Grant, J. B. Nunn, Glen DeHaven.

Old Pioneer Passes.

The Itemizer is pained to record the passing this week of one of its oldest continuous subscribers, Aunt Sarah Grant, who died at her old Kings Valley home on January 8th, her funeral being attended by many of her life long friends who desired to pay this last tribute to her estimable life and many excellent qualities. Sarah Jane Grant was born in Kentucky on December 2, 1826. She moved to Missouri in 1829, and there married R. J. Grant in 1845. In 1852 they came across the plains and settled where they have since lived, Mr. Grant dying in 1891. Five children were born to them, only two of whom now survive—Mrs. Mary Bevins, of Peedee, and James Grant, on the home place. She was an aunt of Sheriff Grant.
