IT IS WHISPERED

That honesty is always the best policy, as a certain candidate for road supervisor will learn before many years.

That George C. Mitty is bringing Eola into the limelight.

That Charley Gregory has concluded to be a candidate for reelection as police judge and city auditor.

That J. V. C. says he was the high king pin in certain quarters until W. V. F. came to town.

That Jim Williams says he now has the city dumping ground and if you have any dead animals, put them in front of his residence.

That this is the way a lad over in Dutchtown was heard calling his brother to dinner the other day: "Gusty, Gusty, come and eat yourself, once, Ma's on the table now and pa's half at ready!"

That Ralph Williams says he never promised anyone a job—simply to have certain appointments made.

That our post office had a conundrum the other day. A couple of rabbits were shipped by postal service, but before they left the office there were nine of them. Was the weight increased and should the package need more stamps?

That Johnny Ashbaugh and Al Snyder are out for recorder.

That too many chickens have been missed in the first ward lately, and the thief will get caught first thing he knows, in fact has been tracked already.

That Wilson should be officially declared as elected president on Lincoln's birthday is but a fitting climax of a remarkable situation.

That Taft will get out of a fight with Mexico if it is possible to do so, but our militia boys are girding up their loins just the same.

That if you do not like that picture of yourself you get tomorrow, send it back.

That some public buildings should not be allowed to have card playing going on in them while others are deprived of it.

That the curfew ordinance should be enforced or taken off the books.

That Frank Morrison is going to have Al Snyder churched from the club for dealing from the bottom.

That the marching suffragettes got cold feet early in the game, and today there are 16 left out of the 100 that started to Washington.

That Moses is running opposition to Chappie in decorations.

FIRST STANDARD SCHOOL

Polk's First Standard School Progressive.

The Fairview school is making good progress in every way according to the reports of the rural school supervisor and superintendent.

The school building is being remodeled and in a few days the new school bell may be heard for many miles around. The yard is being improved in many ways and the building will be painted later in the spring. The school room is probably the most attractive of any in the county.

All the pupils are taking a course in penmanship with the A. N. Palmer Co., of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, one of the best correspondence schools in the United States, and the improvement is noted by all patrons. All of the grades take an active interest in letter writing and have written their congressman at Washington, D. C., for various government publications, including the following books and maps: Report of the Commission of Education, 1911 year Book of Agriculture, Map of the United States, Philippines, Porto Rico, etc.

The parents and teachers meeting will be held here February 21. The program will begin promptly at 1 o'clock.

Officers Installed.

Mrs. Hattie Sibley, assisted by Mrs. Josephine McDevitt installed the following officers for Wood-tietoe circle, Women of Methodist church, after which a banquet was served: Guardian neighbor, Emma Jost; adviser, Josephine Griffin; banker, Nellie Grant; clerk, Sadie Lynn; magician, Hester Fiske; attendant, Nella Tatom; sentinel, Helen Greenwood; captain of guards, Wayne Greenwood; manager, Hattie Sibley.

Dallas Girl Married in Portland.

Dr. Walter J. Larson, of Mill and Fourteenth streets, and Miss Julia May Nixon, of Dallas, were quietly married last night at the White Temple by Dr. W. B. Hinson, the pastor. The marriage was unexpected by their friends and only a few were present. Mrs. Winnifred Mann, of Spokane, was the bride's only attendant.—Oregonian.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Tuesday night the Philologia literary society held their usual weekly program and business meeting at the high school. After the business was finished the program was given. When the meeting was over the whole society was taken to the Grand theatre. Allen Cadle, one of the Adelphean boys, captured the girls and had to take them to the show.

The Adelphean literary society will give their open program Friday night, February 21 at the high school. This will be the first time that the boys have ever given an open program. They promise all that come that they will not be sorry.

The high school base-ball team will be practicing in about two or three weeks if the weather stays good. If all the material turns out for the team Dallas High will have one of the fastest teams in the valley this season. Two good base-ball men started to school this week, they are Wayne Barham and Frank Wright. Every one knows Barham, and know that he is one of the best pitchers that ever pitched for a Dallas team. Wright is from St. Johns high school and will probably be a valuable man to the base ball team. He is an infielder.

Wednesday afternoon the grammar school and the high school students were called to assembly for the purpose of a Lincoln program. It was as follows:

Selection—High school orchestra.

Song—America.

Reading—Estelle Caldwell.

Biography of Lincoln—Beth Wilson.

Stories of Lincoln—Thelma Smith.

Vocal solo—Georgia Curtis.

Talk about Lincoln—George Smith.

An incident in Lincoln's life—Sarah Taves.

LIBRARY BOARD MEET.

Elect Officers for Coming Year and Lay Plans.

Mayor Craven has recently appointed three new members on the library board. W. L. Soehren, August Kisser and Tracy Staats, reappointed. The new board assembled at the library rooms last night and held a business session. Mr. Staats was elected president, Mrs. George Gerlinger secretary and August Risser treasurer. Mr. VanOrsdel, the retiring president, made a fine speech to the new board urging them to work together unselfishly and harmoniously as the old board had done under his year of administration.

The regular monthly meeting of the Library board will occur at the library on the second Monday of each month at 7 p. m. The library management is very appreciative of some handsome gifts received for the new building: A handsomely framed portrait of the late M. M. Ellis, first president of the library board given by Mrs. Ellis, a large U. S. flag from Mrs. George Gerlinger, a fine large palm from Mrs. J. R. Hubbard; and a beautiful framed picture, Atalaua's Race the gift of Mr. J. C. Hayter.
