At the adjourned meeting of the council last evening no final action on any matter was taken. In the paving matter a remonstrance by Mrs. Lovelace was presented, and adjournment taken until tonight to get the matter fixed up, when paving of those four blocks will probably be ordered. Judge Coad having rendered his opinion to the effect that the citizens of Dallas having by their vote gone beyond the indebtedness, it could not stand as against the general fund, thus leaving plenty of money for the intersections, as has been claimed by the Itemizer right along.
A resurvey of the grade at the foot of Academy street was ordered, owing to certain protest-ed curbs.

houses; about 300 fruit trees. $3,200, all but $1,450 cash.
