Instead of the regular sermon a song service was held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. The duets, solos and choruses by the young ladies of the choir were much enjoyed by those in attendance. The following program was rendered: Quartette, Misses Lucas, Miles, Hamilton and Brown; soprano solo, Miss Lucas; duet, Misses Lucas and Miles; chorus by the choir; alto solo, Miss Brown.

H. I. Price, formerly manager of the Price Brothers' store at Seaside, Oregon, has now assumed the management of Price Brothers' clothes shop in this city, the firm having recently disposed of their Seaside store. Price Brothers are extensive operators on the Pacific coast, having stores in Oregon, Washington and California. The aim of the firm is to operate a chain of exclusive high-grade men's stores and they have had Dallas in view for some time, but only recently were they able to secure a desirable location in this city by the purchase of the Herzog store. Their nineteen years of successful merchandising has brought them a splendid reputation for fair-dealing and this will be their policy in Dallas. Several improvements are contemplated in the interior of the store whereby every facility for the convenience of their patrons will be installed. Mr. Price has a wide range of experience in the management of men's stores, having been a member of the firm for over ten years, and we have no doubt as to the success of their Dallas store. J. M. Justin will be assistant to Mr. Price, while A. D. Solishe has been transferred to the Oregon City store.

Those who witnessed the ceremony were: Mrs. Viola Morton, Mrs. William Grant, Mrs. M. Quick, Mrs. R. A. Quick, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lane, Messrs. George Morton and Earl Ward, of Portland.

IT IS WHISPERED
That some of our young people are using the postoffice lobby in which to play that old game of "postoffice."

That the parties who have been defacing the high school building are known and if they do not come forward and repair the damage done will be proceeded against by law, the penalty for this offense being a very severe one.

That Commissioner Hoff will interfere in Dallas city business and put our police force on the eight-hour rule.

That the days when any person or persons can openly defy the laws is past and gone, even in the wild and woolly west. The saloon men at Copperfield got just what was coming to them, although we did not admire the manner of their getting it. If the militiamen were to be used, they should have been used, and not the spectacular play made of shoving a woman entirely out of her sphere.

That our mayor was threatened with arrest this week for letting his dog loose at night. "What is sauce for the gander."

That the petition to allow the dogs to run at large again is only sleeping—that the women of the town will take the matter up next.

That the water wagon is getting awful allery for the riders—most of them.

That working with our doors open this week is quite an agreeable contrast to the weather reported elsewhere.

That a number of tramps are reported in town this week, all claiming that they cannot find work, but when offered a job of grubbing or cutting cordwood have something else in view.

This section will probably run against another wood famine next summer, because labor cannot be found to cut wood at the proper time.

Why pay big prices for magazines when you can get them at publishers' rates at this office.

Guy Talbot, chairman of the Portland Rose Festival, asks us for suggestions as to co-operating with all Oregon for its betterment.

Mrs. Virginia Smith returned Tuesday from a three weeks' visit at Newport. She reports her recent storm as the hardest in years, but an entrancing thing from a view point.

N. Yeda, a Jap, who was kicked by a horse at Black Rock last week, died at the hospital Saturday and the remains were sent to Portland by Undertaker Chapman for burial.

Gus S. Lake was up from West Salem with the crowd who were interested in a road supervisor for No. 4. He had not been in Dallas for 10 years before and noted many improvements.

Conrad Krebs was arrested this week, charged with perjury, and is out on a $2,500 bond. It seems that John Krebs owed Lianan Brothers $1,000, for which judgment had been obtained, and that he had previously, so it is alleged, conveyed his property to Conrad.

Clarence Aikman, the well known Siletz mountain rancher, passed away at Falls City last night of Bright's disease. The funeral will occur there tomorrow from the Christian church. Rev. Lee Sadler officiating. Mr. Aikman was aged about 48 years and leaves a wife and several children.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This remedy has no support for coughs and colds. It is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It always cures. For sale by all dealers.

Special Evangelistic Meetings.
Commencing next Monday a series of evangelistic meetings will be conducted for at least two weeks at the Presbyterian church, Rev. A. L. Hutchison, of Third Presbyterian church of Portland, will conduct these meetings. Dr. Hutchison is a trusted and trained man, a man of power, an eloquent preacher and a fine expositor of the scriptures. He has had considerable experience in the evangelistic field and at different times leave of absence to carry on this special work. He has no fads or fancies and imitates no man. He is considered one of the strongest Bible expositors on the coast, and has held meetings in Wenatchee, Wash., with marked success. If you do not want to hear Bible preaching don't come to these meetings. But if that is what you want, you will surely plan to attend these services.

Officers to be Installed.
The installation of the new officers of Naomi Chapter, No. 22, O. E. S., will be held at Masonic hall Tuesday evening, Jan. 13. A good program and light refreshments will be served. Visitors welcome. By order of Worthy Matron.

Winnif M. Chapman.
Secretary.

Don't Know They Have Appendicitis.
Many Dallas people who have chronic appendicitis, which is not very painful, have doctor for years for gas on the stomach, sour stomach or constipation. C. Staffin states if these people will try a single dose of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler's, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, they will be surprised at the instant benefit.

Funeral of L. C. Koser.

The funeral services over the remains of L. C. Koser were held at Rickreall January 24, at 11 a. m., Rev. C. P. Gates, of Dallas, officiating, assisted by Rev. M. J. Ballantyne. Interment took place in the L. O. O. F. cemetery at Dallas.

Mr. Koser was an old resident of Polk county, known and honored by many friends. He was born in Milflin county, Pa., on May 25, 1839. September 20, 1860, he was united in marriage to Miss Lavina Amon, who died nearly two years ago. Mr. Koser came with his family to Oregon in 1885 and located near Dallas. Thence he moved to Rickreall, where he has since resided, following his trade of carpentering. He was a member of General Gibson Post, G. A. R., of Independence, having served in Co. B, 34th Pennsylvania Infantry. Members of that Post acted as pallbearers.

Levi Koser died Thursday morning at his home near Rickreall. He had been ill for several weeks and his death was expected. He is survived by five children, Mrs. Henry McKee, of Perryville, Ore.; Mrs. Larry Ogden, of Worcester, Ohio; Fred Koser, of Rickreall; John Koser, of Portland, and Miss Mattie Koser, of Rickreall. Mr. Koser was an uncle of Sam Koser, assistant secretary of state of Oregon.

Hears from R. R. Commission.
Salem, Ore., Jan. 5, 1914. Mr. Mose Manston, Dallas, Oregon.

Replying to your letter of December 31st, we may say the Commission has assumed jurisdiction and notified Mr. Gates, attorney to submit an inventory of their water works property devoted to the public use. This Commission has several other water works cases of which the complaints were filed prior to the Dallas water question, and the rivalry for the doing up of different properties being limited it naturally will take more time. We assure you we will take this matter up at the earliest date possible.

Very truly yours, THOS. K. CAMPBELL.

LaCreole Club Meeting.
The members of LaCreole Club held their annual meeting last Thursday afternoon and a large turnout was in evidence, the rivalry for the doing up of different properties being limited it naturally will take more time. We assure you we will take this matter up at the earliest date possible.

Run Our Train to Airline.
The Itemizer has it on good authority that Nos. 6 and 7, the train that comes from Portland to Dallas every morning and returns in the afternoon, is soon to be continued on to Airline, and make its noon lay-over there. Railroad Officials Fields and Morris were up in the former's private car Tuesday and looked carefully over the situation, going on to Airline. This will derive us of another train crew, but has for years made Dallas its headquarters.

Stockholders' Meeting.
The stockholders of the Dallas Hospital Association held their annual meeting last Monday evening at the office of Dr. Starbuck. Plans for the new $10,000 building were submitted and approved and architects are now at work on the specifications. The old board of directors, consisting of F. J. Coad, Oscar Hayter, Drs. McCollon, Starbuck, Staats, Bollman and Cary, were re-elected and fully organized by making J. Coad president; Dr. McCollon, vice president; Miss Edith Starbuck, secretary and treasurer.

One on Frank Kerslake.
It is said nothing is too good for Frank Kerslake's hogs since he has turned farmer, especially a large white O. I. C. boar that he owns, or did. The other night he fed the boar as usual, but next morning found it dead. He slashed open its abdomen to investigate the cause and found therein his gold hunting case watch, still running.

New High School Flooded.
The rainfall at Independence has been very heavy the last few days. Sunday night so much water fell that basements in different parts of the city were flooded. The new high school building could not be used Monday because the basement was so flooded that the heating plant could not be operated. The weather is still cloudy and more rain is looked for. The Willamette river there is rising rapidly.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

New Board of Directors Elected to Name Year's Officers.

The Dallas Commercial Club was called to order last evening with a goodly attendance of members.

A communication was received from C. C. Chapman, of Portland, regarding a cut to be used for promotion purposes. Another communication was read from Edgar B. Piper, thanking the club for its assistance in endeavoring to locate a regional bank at Portland.

One from Seattle was read asking for help in securing a separate reserve district of the northwest states, as per the new currency law, and advocated by the clearing house there. The matter was referred to the legislation committee.

A communication was read from the Chicago Land Show promoter, C. C. Chapman, enclosing a picture of the Oregon booth there.

A communication was received from the secretary of the Rose Festival in Portland, asking for suggestions, especially along the line of county exhibits, referred to committee on publicity and promotion.

A letter was received from the chamber of commerce of America, stating that Oscar Hayter had been made the national counselor for this commercial club.

The annual report of the financial secretary was read and showed a balance on hand of some $800. The report was in detail and showed that some $3000 had been received from all sources. That and the treasurer's report were referred to the finance committee.

Edna Bush, of Independence, $2.50; Minnie St. Pierre, Salem, $2.17.50; Lucy Quirly, Independence, $2.50.

The time of the court was taken up yesterday in allowing bills, hearing suggestions as to prospective road supervisors, etc.

Resolutions of Thanks.
Whereas, since the Bible school, under his three years of administration, has attained to front rank, has adopted the grade system and has become most thoroughly equipped and one of the most advanced in the state of Oregon;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Church extend to Brother Seymour its thanks in appreciation of his earnest, consecrated work as superintendent, and be it further

Resolved, that this action of the Church be made a matter of record, and also published in the city papers.

Done this 4th day of January, 1914.

To date County Clerk Robinson has issued 83 hunting licenses this year, one combination and 18 fishing licenses.
