THE SPECIAL CALL

Russell, whose DRAMA OF CRE-ATION is being produced daily in many cities. preached today from the text, "I come after Me, let him deny himself. take up his cross and follow Me."-

Matthew 16:24. First the Pastor showed that God and foreseen the entrance of sin and death into the world, and had purposed in Hinrself before the creation of the world a great Plan for man's recovery from sin and death conditions. to be accomplished through a Kingdom. This great Kingdom will differ from all others in that its monarch will be a King and a Priest. For this reason Christ is said to be "a Priest en per capita and the per capita this after the Order of Melchizedek," who wear is estimated to reach 18 dozen.

His sacrifice of Himself, His demonstration of obedience to the Father's will, even to the death of the cross.

The Cospel Call. God raised Jesus from the dead to be Prince and a Savior, yet the world ed, God has been calling out a special class for a special purpose. Those who hear this Gospel call are privileged to become, upon certain conditions, members of this class which God is electing-this "Body of Christ, which is the Church." Not until this Body, of which Jesus is Head, is completed will God's Plan for the world's salvation be carried out.

and conditions of eligibility to memextends the invitation, and nominates back to my office and credit the birds birth; others get it at their mother's knee, or through a hymn, a sermon, Whatever points to Christ as the Way to God constitutes an invitation.

Walking In the Narrow Way. To those who turn away from sin and accept Christ as their Redeemer. the Savior says, "If any man would ome after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me." The Pastor explained that to deny one's self is to give over one's self-sufficiency, one's desire to do one's own will, and to accept instead the Divine will, Whoever does this dies to earthly ambitions, hopes and desires, and in their stead receives Heavenly ones. The Pastor then showed that to take up the cross is not always understood by the one starting in the narrow way, Gradually he perceives that it is the crossing of self-will with the Divine will. But if his consecration is genuine, the child of God will learn to reloice in every trial. The Heavenly Father will cause the way to open before him, and will with every trial provide the way of escape.

To follow Christ signifies patient continuance in cross-bearing. Each one in the narrow way must thus demonstrate his loyalty to God and to the principles of righteousness. This does not mean that the fiesh must be perfected, but the New Creature-the new will. dow at him, when, jumping back in The unintentional weaknesses of the flesh are covered by the robe of Christ's fright you've got aboard?
