The reign of Sin and Death has illustrated certain principles, and has demonstrated the necessity for obedience No plasters and pain for to God. It has also proved that there can be no happiness aside from perfect harmony with our Creator. Both men and angels have learned that whoever sins will suffer. Diseases of Women, Skin and Next was shown the purpose of the Law Covenant made with Israel at Sinal. The terms of that Covenant were that if Israel would keep God's Law, eventually all the world would one under their sway. But they soon found that they could not obey His commandments. Then God arranged in annual Atonement Day, on which smerifices were offered to cover their sins for one year. Although they tried live without sin, yet generation after generation died At last they real ized that they had entered into a contract which they could not keep.

The Church Alive In Christ. Later. God promised to give them a New Covenant, more favorable to them. The difference between these covenants will be in regard to the Mediator. Moses offered typical sacrifices, which could not remove sin. But the Mediator of the New Covenant will be empowered to lift the death curse and restore man to the image of God. This New Law Covenant, the Pastor explained, cannot be inaugurated until its Mediator Christ the Head, and the Church the Body - is completed Throughout this Gospel Age the great antitypical Moses has been offering the better sacrifices." When these have een finished, the New Covenant will e inaugurated. That time, he be leves, is very neur.

The church, once "dead in trespass-es and sins," like the remainder of numanity, have been made alive, through the imputation of Jesus' mer b, is advance of mankind. God's pur ose in thus quickening them is that He is selecting a class to be associate with our Lord in the Kingdom.
