

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE
Insures the most delicious and healthful food

By the use of Royal Baking Powder a great many more articles of food may be readily made at home, all healthful, delicious, and economical, adding much variety and attractiveness to the menu.

The "Royal Baker and Pastry Cook," containing five hundred practical recipes for all kinds of baking and cookery, free. Address Royal Baking Powder Co., New York.

LOCAL NEWS

Items of Interest From Dallas and Polk County.

Will Hartley was in Salem Sunday.

White gloves cleaned, 10 cents a pair.—Phil. Begin.

Mrs. Rollie Burch spent Sunday at Black Rock.

Miss Nellie Collins returned from Falls City Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Miller went to Forest Grove Wednesday.

B. F. Butler, dentist, office over Fuller's Pharmacy. Phone 354.

Mrs. Julia Miller, of Falls City, visited in Dallas last week.

Miss Osfield, of Monmouth, visited Miss Alice Grant Sunday.

Gummed parcel post labels for sale at this office at 1 cent each.

The Christian Endeavorers had a picnic at the Park Friday night.

Dallas becomes famous through excellency of Gail meals.

Frank Fawc and family, of Salt Creek, were in Dallas Saturday.

Miss Iva Stanley spent several days last week in Salem, visiting friends.

We have fishing tackle that will get results.—Craven Hardware Co.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott returned Sunday from a visit at Falls City.

Mrs. Edgar Bryan, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chapman.

Mrs. T. D. Phillips, who spent the winter in California, has returned home.

Mrs. Conkey, of Monmouth, visited her daughter, Mrs. Dick Webster Sunday.

Mrs. M. M. Ellis left Monday for Newport, to spend several months at her cottage.

Fred Hartley, manager of the Golden Rule store, was a business visitor at Albany Tuesday.

Rev. Curtis Coe, of McMinnville, has been in Dallas and vicinity the greater part of the week.

The Endeavor society of the Christian church attended the camp meeting at Turner Wednesday.

Miss Dora Hayes, who is attending the summer school at Monmouth, spent the week-end at home.

Why Will Weary Women Wash With Washboards? When Washboards Work Wonders? Sold only by Holman & Boydston's.

Miss Loree O'Connell, from Corvallis, and Winifred Wing, of Eugene, are visiting here at the home of Mrs. Farrington.

The Endeavor society of the Baptist church held a social and business meeting at the home of C. E. Stinnett Friday night.

Jap Ellis and family, who have been visiting here at the home of his brother, Chester, left Monday morning for Newport for a couple of months.

H. O. Veason and family left today for Salmon River for a few weeks' outing in hope that the change will be beneficial to Mr. Veason's health.

During my absence the Sweet Shop will be in charge of my sister, Mrs. Glore. Your continued patronage is cordially solicited.—H. O. Veason.

A. W. Palmer is no longer an employee of the Dallas Steam Laundry. All bills due this firm are payable at the office or to Clyde Gibbs, the present circulator.

Dr. E. J. Scheetz, phone 1444.

M. Hayter, dentist, Bank Bld.

Mrs. Delashmutt went to Newport Monday.

The greatest thing in Dallas—a meal at the Gail.

Dr. McNicol, Osteopathic physician, 719 Court St.

Mrs. Ruth Good and baby, of Salem, are visiting here.

S. B. Taylor returned Tuesday from a trip to Timber.

L. J. Chapin and family, of Salem, were in Dallas Sunday.

Dr. C. L. Foster, dentist, Dallas City Bank building. Phone 931.

Dr. McCollum was a business visitor at Portland the last of the week.

Maurice Dalton was a business visitor at Portland the first of the week.

I have leased the Brown gravel bar, so get your gravel from Fred Hartman.

Mammoth blackberries—large rip ones. Phone Black 35.—A. L. Bartholomew.

Harold Miller went to camp with the militia as a substitute for John E. Miller.

White Mountain and White River flour, both very staple brands at Holman & Boydston's.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Middleton, of North Dallas, July 11th, a girl, Dr. Bollman attending.

Mrs. W. P. Miller and three children left Monday for Canas, Wash., where she will visit her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Erin Weibe returned from Portland Monday. Her parents, from Canada, came home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holman returned from Portland Wednesday. They have been attending the camp meeting.

Mrs. F. H. Morrison and Miss Edna Morrison left Wednesday for New York, where they will visit for some time.

Miss Frances Byers, of Hood River, and Miss Jean Evers, of Salem, are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

In the absence of Rev. George H. Mitchell last Sunday, the pulpit at the Presbyterian church was filled by Rev. M. B. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Gerstel and Mrs. Fred Snow, of Portland, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sunberg.

A. W. Palmer has opened a hand laundry in the building formerly occupied by the second hand store, on Church street.

The proper way to buy peanut butter is in 3 pound pails at 20c a pound. Air tight cover, keeps it indefinitely. Holman & Boydston's.

The classes of Mrs. Bronson and Mrs. Adams of the Methodist Sunday school had a picnic at the Howe peach orchard last Thursday afternoon.

A. L. Barnhart and H. E. Barnhart, of Falls City, and Joseph F. Bogynska and E. L. Keel, of Monmouth, are among the Polk county representatives registered at the University of Oregon summer school this year.

Ed. Staffin, who left here a couple of weeks ago with Roland Lincoln to make a trip to Nebraska on their motorcycles, returned home via train last Saturday. The boys got as far as San Francisco on their wheels, when they concluded the trip was going to be too strenuous. Lincoln went on to Nebraska by rail.

F. J. Morrison and family and M. B. Grant and family motored over to McMinnville last Saturday afternoon and remained over Sunday in attendance at the state convention of rural mail carriers. Milt. was elected to some office in the association, or appointed on some committee, or something or other—he don't remember what.

Many come miles to dine at the Gail.

Mrs. Harden went to Independence Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Plummer left Sunday for Chicago.

Miss Dora Elkins visited her parents at Falls City Monday.

Mrs. E. A. Hamilton is visiting in Portland for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Geo. Schleiger, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. A. J. Barham.

Frank Morrison and John Grant motored to Independence Monday.

Homer Calkins is spending a sister, Mrs. Beulah Hornshuh, at Eugene.

Walter L. Toozee, Jr., Lawyer, Rooms 8-9, National Bank Bldg., Dallas, Oregon.

Mrs. J. R. Sibley and little daughter have returned from a week's visit at Newport.

W. H. Shriver, of Los Angeles, Calif., called on his cousin, H. P. Shriver, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Craven are spending a few days in the mountains near Cascadia, going by auto.

James Chitty and wife and Milo Woods and wife motored to Falls City Sunday and spent the afternoon.

Mrs. R. D. Jennings and little daughter, Kathryn, have been visiting Dr. Bowersox and family at Monmouth.

F. D. Barrett, of Albany, is temporarily employed as bookkeeper at the local office of the Oregon Power company.

F. J. Goad and wife and Mrs. C. G. Goad and daughters are spending some time at the former's cottage at Newport.

R. E. Fisher and family, of Mount Ayr, Iowa, are here visiting his brother, Robert S. Fisher, the "strawberry king."

Parties wanting extra milk or cream must order in advance, as we carry no extra bottles during the warm weather.—W. D. Calkins.

It is almost impossible to believe that you can get a good steat cut coffee in sealed tins for 30c, but we have it—Holman & Boydston's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crider arrived here in their auto from San Jose, Calif., Monday for their regular summer visit in the old home town.

Miss Jennie Muscott returned last week from Salt Lake City, where she had been taking a course of library methods at the University of Utah.

Mrs. Ed. Shaw went to Portland today, to accompany home her father, William Kersey, who has been taking medical treatment there for a couple of weeks.

N. L. Guy, W. L. Soehren and Will Howe went to the Siletz Basin last week by auto and packed in to the forks. They returned Sunday and report a royal time.

A. J. Barham and wife and Walter Barham and wife went to Portland last week to visit their son and brother, Wayne, who was there with the San Francisco ball team.

Dr. B. F. Butler has returned from a fishing trip to the Siletz, where he was last week in company with Allen Clark and P. J. Mulkey, of Monmouth, and John Nelson, of Independence.

A. H. Burton, of Portland, Progressive candidate for state superintendent of schools, was calling on the voters here Wednesday. He confessed it was his first visit to Polk county.

The Golden Rule store was closed from 2 to 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon as a mark of respect to the memory of the manager of the Golden Rule store at Chehalis, Wash., whose funeral occurred that afternoon.

County Clerk Asa Robinson was at the bedside of a brother in a hospital in Portland a few days this week. His official duties were performed by ex-County Clerk Chet. Coad during his absence.

The civic improvement department of the Dallas Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. G. Van Orsdel Tuesday afternoon, July 27th, at 2:30. All members are urged to be present.

H. P. Shriver, who had been seriously ill from a stroke of paralysis received several weeks ago, was able to be down town last Saturday. His many friends will be pleased to know that he is recovering.

William Tylersmith, of Salem, visited his sister, Mrs. F. J. Craven, Saturday. He has resigned as circulation manager of the Statesman and in a short time will go to San Francisco to accept a similar position on one of the dailies there.

Notary public at the Itemizer office.

Miss Iva Stanley is visiting friends in Salem.

Mrs. Domoschofsky went to Portland Thursday.

J. F. Morrison, of Perrydale, was in town Sunday.

Mrs. K. N. Wood is spending a few days in Portland.

Mrs. Pearl Uglov-Johnston is in Portland for a few days.

Miss Mabel Grant came home from Monmouth Saturday.

Ross Nelson, of Independence, was a Dallas visitor Sunday.

Ches. Craven and family came home from the coast Friday.

Miss Frances Byers, of Salem, is visiting Miss Veva Burns.

Miss Lila McDaniel was home Sunday from the normal school.

Ray Mitchell has gone to work for Mr. Grant, at Smithfield.

Miss Ella Merhling, of the normal school, visited at the Grant Sunday.

Mrs. A. H. Collins left Wednesday for Newport, where she will spend six weeks.

Lou Muscott and family and Cal. Shepard and family spent Sunday fishing at Mehama.

Now is the time to have your hop checks printed. Leave your order at the Itemizer office.

Gus Hurley, the Independence attorney and ex-editor, was a business visitor here Saturday.

Two new houses are being built at the corner of the Kimball place, opposite the Chapman prune dryer.

The annual picnic of the Presbyterian Sunday school will be held in the city park tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

Collections given prompt attention by J. S. Ashbaugh, constable, Dallas National Bank building, room 22.

Mrs. T. J. Warren and children, of McMinnville, and Miss Pauline Snyder were Portland visitors over Sunday.

Miss Ada Osfield, of Portland, who is attending summer school at Monmouth, was a week-end guest of Miss Alice Grant.

John Peters and family have arrived here from Saskatchewan, Canada, to make their future home in Polk county.

Miss Emma Skelton and Miss Maud Robertson, with Salem friends, spent Sunday at Silver Creek Falls, above Silverton.

Mrs. R. D. Hillary has returned to her home in Portland, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shaw.

Mrs. Cosper and son, Jack, returned to their home in Washington, after a few weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Town, of Pendleton, and Robert Reed and Mrs. George Reed, of Dallas, spent Sunday at the home of Florence Bird.

A. M. Vineyard and family have moved to Grants Pass to make their future home. He was formerly with the Dallas Meat Company.

Judge Webster Holmes, of Tillamook, who holds court in this county, was the orator at the celebration of the nation's natal day at Wheeler.

Nothing so good or wholesome for lunch or dinner as a bottle of rich cream just off the ice. You can get that kind at Holman & Boydston's.

Miss Arlene Bennett, who is attending summer school at Monmouth, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. George H. Bennett.

Mrs. Bowersox and daughter, Mary, and niece, Dorothy Waterbury, of Monmouth, and Mrs. Mel. Hamilton, of Hubbard, are guests of Mrs. H. P. Shriver this week.

Russell Vashaw, the Itemizer, "devil," has embarked in business as a side line. He is now the purveyor of pop-corn and peanuts at the corner of Main and Court streets.

The Camp Fire Girls cleared $33 at an entertainment they gave at Monmouth last Friday evening. The girls are now planning on their annual outing at Newport next week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Griffin and children, Joe, Mildred and Rob, left Wednesday for The Tarts. Mr. Griffin and Mildred will return in a few days, but Mrs. Griffin and the others will remain for some time.

Saturday District Attorney J. E. Sibley had an indignant caller who wanted a neighbor arrested for killing chickens, which, by his own admission, had been destroying the neighbor's garden. When informed by the district attorney that he had no cause for complaint, the caller was somewhat taken back, but finally admitted that he "guessed the other fellow was right."

Frances Huseh went to Polk Station Monday.

Miss Fay Hensen motored to Smithfield Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown left Sunday for Siletz Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reddecop were in town Saturday.

Miss Alfreda Garner went to Carlton to visit her father.

Mrs. McNulty, of Polk Station, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Mitchell went to Independence Saturday.

Glen O. Holman, attorney at law, National Bank Building.

Vern Alsip and Frank Muller went to Independence Saturday.

Mrs. White, of Happy Valley, visited Mrs. Ira West last week.

Rev. Owen Day and Glen Holman went to Black Rock Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Newbill spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira West.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Francis, of Black Rock, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. James Mitchell's sister, from Carleton, spent a few days with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Miller and Miss Miller left Sunday for Siletz Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Weit were Portland visitors Saturday, returning Monday.

Carl and Tude McBees have completed a well on their 25-acre tract.

Mrs. Ed. Watson and daughter returned home from Kings Valley Sunday.

Mrs. Brooks left Monday for Monmouth, where her mother is quite sick.

John Courter, of Falls City, visited his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Ellis, Saturday.

Mrs. Stellacop and son, of Carlton, were guests of Mrs. Ira West last week.

Ben Thompson, of Oakdale, was operated on at the Dallas hospital Saturday.

Tude McBees and family and Miss May Johnston spent Sunday at Carl McBees.

Mrs. Castle, of Portland, has returned to her home, after spending a few days in Dallas.

Mrs. Laurence was taken to her home in Independence Sunday from the hospital in this city.

Mr. Smithfield has leased Mr. Laughterman's place and the owner has built a new house on the place.

Miss Beulah Balderee, of the normal school, at Monmouth, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Craven and son, Walter, left for points on the coast near Tillamook Sunday afternoon for a two weeks' stay.

Fifty-foot lot on east side of the Methodist church, adjoining the alley. Good business location at a fair price, $3,000. Enquire of Dan. Stouffer.

When you are in need of butter wrappers, call at the Itemizer office. We are prepared and equipped to get them out on short notice. We always have plenty of stock and the price is right.

Rev. Geo. H. Mitchell returned on Wednesday from Eugene, where he attended the meeting of the Synod of Oregon of the Presbyterian church. The meeting was held in Vilard Hall of the University. Mr. Mitchell was elected clerk of the Synod. He also attended the Interdenominational Conference of ministers held in conjunction with the University summer school, and heard the addresses given by the experts in different departments of social and scientific life and activity.

Frank Riggs is Dead.

Frank Riggs died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at the state hospital at Salem, where he had been in failing health for the past year. His condition was the result of an injury received here in the mill about a year ago. The body was brought to Dallas for burial, the funeral taking place this afternoon from Chapman's undertaking parlors. He leaves a wife and one child, residents of this city.

Only One Left.

Sold one of the "New Home" sewing machines this week. I have only one more left, and want to get it out of the way. It's brand new, never used and a fine bargain.—Hayter's Book Store.

Please Take Notice.

All accounts due the Itemizer prior to July 1st, 1914, must be settled in some manner at once. Those not paid by August 1st will be placed in the hands of an attorney.

V. P. FISKE.

Society Notes of the Social Side Life

Mrs. E. L. Johnson entertained informally last Friday evening in honor of her granddaughter, Miss Una Ebbert, of Condon. The evening was spent very pleasantly and an excellent luncheon was served. Those present were E. V. Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Misses Lucile Hamilton, Helen Casey, Marjorie and Dorothy Bennett, Alice and Louise Miles and Una Ebbert.

Miss Buena Fiske was hostess Monday evening, when she entertained informally a few friends in honor of Miss Edna Morrison, who with her mother, Mrs. F. H. Morrison, left for New York, yesterday morning to be gone until some time in September. Dancing and music were enjoyed and during the evening Mrs. R. D. Jennings sang several numbers. Roses and nasturtiums were attractively arranged in the rooms and a lunch was served. Those enjoying her hospitality were: Miss Edna Morrison, Miss Iva Stanley, Miss Naida Scott, Miss Roxana, and Miss Georgiana Fiske, Mrs. R. D. Jennings, Mrs. A. D. Braun and Mrs. Arthur Goode, of Salem.

Tuesday evening, July 7th, at the home of Charles Muller, on Salt Creek, a number of young people were gathered for an enjoyable time, Miss Kate Muller being guest of honor. The occasion was a birthday and farewell party, as she expects to leave for her home in California soon. Every minute was well occupied with games and music, leaving very little time for gossip. At the usual hour ice cream and cake were served, which was relished by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Muller, Misses Katie Muller, Loreta Roberts, Inez Hart, Althea Bissell, Violet Brown, Tina Roberts and Goldie Bissell, Messrs. Budd Hart, Dan Foster, Phil. Brown, Otis Foster, Carlton Shanks, Herman Muller, Bert Clamfield, Howard Cook, Will Hodge, "Dutch" Foster, Frank Muller and Harold Schwartz. After extending their best wishes to Miss Katie, they all departed, declaring they had spent one of the most pleasant evenings possible.

Mrs. W. V. Fuller and Mrs. Oscar Hayter entertained with an informal lawn party on Saturday afternoon, at the home of the latter, in honor of Mrs. Raymond Fisher, of Mount Ayr, Iowa, who, with her husband and little daughter, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller. The ladies were asked to bring their sewing and light refreshments were served during the afternoon. Those present to meet Mrs. Fisher were: Mrs. D. P. Patterson, Mrs. H. R. Patterson, Jr., Mrs. C. L. Barnes, Mrs. H. A. Woods, Mrs. U. S. Loughery, Mrs. J. R. Craven, Mrs. M. Hayter, Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. O. E. Williams, Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mrs. R. L. Chapman, Mrs. V. C. Staats, Mrs. E. W. Fuller, Mrs. J. Crowther, Mrs. Willis Simonson and Mrs. J. H. Hollister, Mrs. E. MacLennan and Mrs. E. J. Bryan of Portland.

Dr. McNicol's class of the Methodist Sunday school were entertained at the suburban home of Mrs. W. G. Black Wednesday evening. Games were played and a dainty lunch was served toward the close of the evening. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. McNicol, Rev. and G. H. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Black, the Misses Ora and Anna Hartley, Maud and Nora Robertson, Flora and Roberta McCollon, Abbie Walker, Georgiana Fiske, Pearl Burke, Fannie Dempsey Evelyn Bennett, Mrs. Lydia Evans, Mrs. Ed. Dunn, Mrs. Lee Smith, Mrs. I. N. Cole and Mrs. Mabel Guy.

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Peter Berg. Officers were elected for the next year, and a very interesting program was rendered by Echo Balderee, Eulalia Butler, Pauline Miller. The society will meet the next time with Mrs. Jennie Williams.

Notice to Ice Consumers.

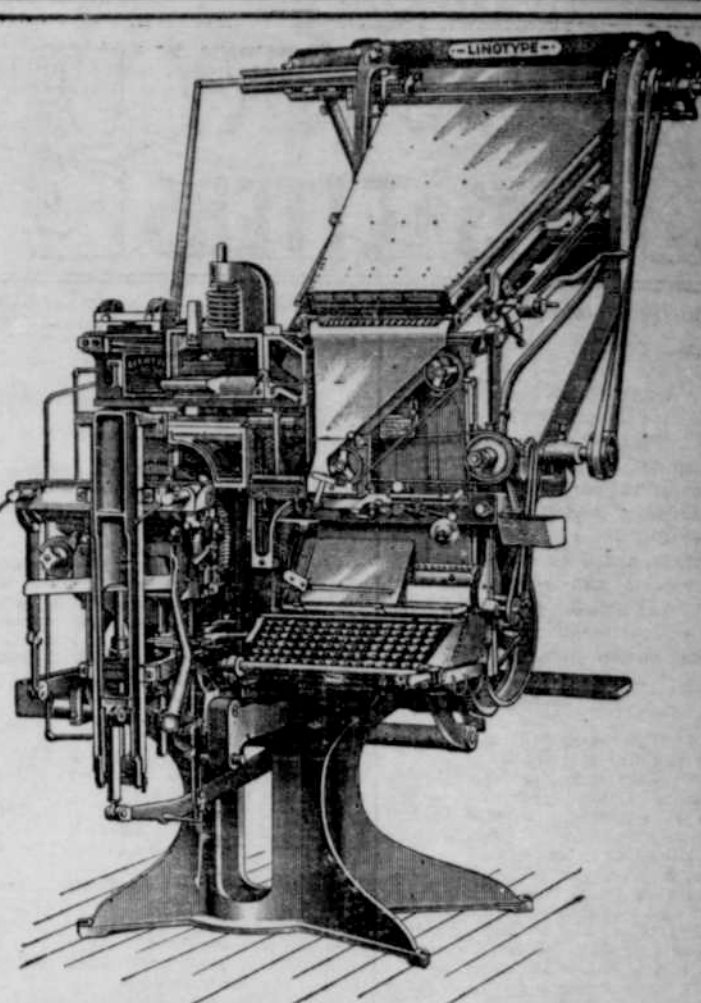

Parties desiring ice will please display their ice cards early in the morning as there will be no afternoon delivery. Those not having cards will please call at the plant and leave their address.

DALLAS ICE CO.

Prune Growers Attention.

550 boxes for sale; trays made to order at the lowest price ever quoted; all kinds of shop work.

Coy Brothers, 315 Ash St., Dallas, phone 1574.

The Polk County Itemizer Linotype

This machine stands for Efficiency—It is one of the latest models and is a paragon of a wide range of usefulness. We are proud of this machine and its work. We have put this cut of the Linotype in this space to attract your attention to a few facts.

We want to say this: if at any time you want any kind of booklet work, any blanks or briefs and if, as is often the case, you are pressed for time, then the Linotype is in perfect form. We can have a nice new type face for your work and do it in a hurry. In fact, we rather pride ourselves on getting our work out on time.

We will be glad to figure with you at any time on your printing and it will be to your advantage as well as ours. We have only one price system; cost of stock plus the cost of production and a living profit.

P. C. I. Print

Means that it was printed by the Polk County Itemizer and it also means "Perfectly Correct Impressions," every sheet MUST be right.

POLK COUNTY ITEMIZER

"The Biggest and Best Paper in Polk County"

Read a Daily

AND GET THE NEWS FRESH