Boost a man and he will forget in 10 minutes. Knock him and he will remember it for 10 years.

If you don't register, you don't vote, and if you don't vote you might as well be a Chinaman for all that you will count in the affairs of Oregon. Don't be a Chinaman.

Twice within the past two weeks the Itemizer has caused a howl to emanate from the editorial room of the great and mighty Oregonian. The Oregonian must be hard hit when it takes so much notice of the "insignificent pronvincial press."

When at sunset he pauses a moment to contemplate his handiwork, particularly in France, England, Ireland, Mexico, Austria. Servia and Oyster Bay, the devil cannot refrain from the smiling comment that the world is running pretty much to his entire satis-

A western college professor predicts that within the next 25 years the United States will own all of the base ball leagues in this country and that the players will be under a civil service regime. That is government ownership in the extreme. The professor should have included race tracks, county fairs and

Ridicule it as we will, the "Swat the Fly" campaign is showing results. The comparatively few number of flies this year is undoubtedly due, at least in a degree, to the constant warfare that has been waged with the fly-swatter. We should also give due crdit to the sanitary improvements which are just as much a part of the anti-fly crusade as the field artillery to an invading army. The fly-swatter may kill a hundred flies during the day, but the screened garbage can may prevent the propogation of a million

Of course we don't like to see all Europe go to war, but if it does of making money through dramyour Uncle Samuel very respectfully invites the attention of those nations to the fact that he carries the largest line of cash groceries, food stuffs, clothing, Missouri mules and hardware on earth, and that the commissary departments can have their orders filled on short notice. Guns and amunition, battleships and aeroplanes made to order in any quantity.

The state chairmen of the Republican, Democratic and Progressive parties have agreed with the Anti-Saloon League that the parties will remain neutral on the statewide amendment fight and carry out the wishes of the people if the state goes dry. The principle candidates of these parties have also agreed to the proposition and the League promises to keep neutral as between the parties. This insures a strictly non-partisan fight on the plain issues unhampered by other political entanglements.

The proprietors of both saloons in Independence have been indicted by the Polk county grand jury for selling liquors to minors. fortune teller, Rebecca at the In no wise defending these men for their offense, if they are Well, and all the details of an guilty, yet we cannot but wonder to what extent the people old-fashioned bazaar. themselves, through their representatives, the city council, are The efforts made to raise responsible for the infraction of law. When a license fee of $3,000 a year is charged, as is the case in Independence, the men who pay it must sell enough of their goods to give them the excessive revenue which the city demands, and it is but human that they should not be over-particular to inquire the age of an individual interest in the sucevery customer who enters their places of business. It is probable that this generation is to see one of the most nelle Collins, Mrs. Hort Eakin, collossal wars that has darkened the pages of history. For years Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. Gilthe war cloud has been forming over Europe and despite the Uni- bert MacGregor, Mrs. A. B. With ten million men prepared by long training to rush into the conflict which will decide the fate of almost every dynasty of Europe, there can be but one result. The soil of the entire continent will be drenched with blood until the resources of the various countries have become so weakened and the fighting forces so diminished that war can no longer be continued. If by some manner of miracle the impending crash should be averted, then will we indeed have proof that man has become a peace-loving animal and there is hope that the sword will be forever sheathed.
