FREE STATE OF OREGON vs. S. (STATE) W. (WIDE) PROHIBITION

Greeting:

In order to clearly demonstrate the fact that the Theory of State-Wide Prohibition is Morally and Legally Impossible, the issue, after tremendous effort, has been rendered nearly Human in the character of S. W. Prohibition who is made a defendant before the voters of Oregon.

It is the sincere hope of the Prosecutor of S. W. Prohibition that those who have believed in him in Eastern States and know his record, will refrain from demonstrations during the course of the trial and that no violence be resorted to by those who have put their faith in him in Oregon and who may become indignant when the evidence against him is introduced.

The Prosecution desires to make an open statement to the effect that all sympathy and respect is entertained for those who have been supporters of S.W. Prohibition prior to his arrest and for those who have been at his side in the preliminary arraignment. The Prosecution holds this sympathy and respect as it is freely admitted that S. W. Prohibition is a very clever man.

The trial of S. W. Prohibition is a prosecution against the theory of the proposed state-wide amendment and is not an attack against the supporters of the theory whose motives are no doubt above reproach.

OPENING STATEMENT

Attempting to Kill the Hop Industry of Oregon.

You have heard the charges and now I will take them up one by one and introduce evidence showing conclusively that the allegations made in this complaint are true.

(At this point S. W. Prohibition through his attorney submitted a motion praying for a change of venue to a court in the State of Kansas.

JUDGE WISDOM—Inasmuch as this is a question to be decided by the people of Oregon motion is denied.

(S. W. Prohibition through his attorney then beseeched the Court that adjournment be taken until after November the Third.)

Motion Denied.
Court adjourned for the day.

N. B.—This trial will proceed from day to day.

EXTRACTS

S. W. Prohibition last night said "The Longer I stay in Oregon the more homesick I become for Kansas."

S. W. Prohibition in an interview stated that he had met a number of Kansans in Oregon but he later admitted that he had never met an Oregonian in his favorite state.

Judge Wisdom notified S. W. Prohibition that he would hold him strictly to facts and would permit no assumptions on the ground of "beliefs" "prophecies" or "promises."

A close friend of S. W. Prohibition said enthusiastically, "Yes, Kansas is certainly a grand state to come FROM."

One of the Jurors caused Judge Wisdom to smile when he stated that the Fifteen Eastern States were wise when they tried S. W. Prohibition and convicted him but that Oregon was WISER as she was trying him BEFORE welcoming him and not AFTERWARDS.

A twitter of laughter rippled around the Court room when S. W. Prohibition informed the Court that he would much rather have his case tried in Kansas.

A young lady who gave her name as Miss Peruna inquired at the Court House after the trial as to where she could find the defendant.
