Doctor Blackman is improving in health, but is still in the hospital at Port and.

Bill Brown was over from Lone Rock last Thursday to get medicine for his sick daughter.

Dr. Shipley reports Mrs. Pettys and family much better, but says Mr. Pettys is still quite ill.

H. M. Thomson has been laid up for repairs having cut his foot with an ax a few days ago.

A newspaper is very much like an index where one takes a great deal - will be occasionally offered.

The H. S. C. Orchestra will furnish the music for the Social Club's dance to-morrow evening.

J. H. Edwards, of Sand Hollow, reported plenty of winter in his neighborhood last Saturday.

Note that S. C. Smith comes out with a larger ad. It is week, advertising his furniture business.

R. D. Watkins reported less snow in the mountains last Saturday than on "the flat" above town.

"Uddle" John Leckman reports two feet of snow in his part of the Blue A. He is planning to town a few days.

Henry Welch is talking seriously of putting up a brick building, but if you ask him about it he says "I'm not sure."

Hilmer Lemmoner of Eight Mile, who has been quite ill, took a ride last week, and is not expected to live.

The directors of the Heppner school have decided to close at the end of the eleven months term, on March 2nd.

Mayor Matlock and the new members of the council took their first lesson in the work before them, Monday evening last.

Frank H. Snow, commissioner of the U. S. Civil Service, at Lexington, made this office a call while in the city yesterday.

A. A. Caruthers, of O'ay, is a brother of the young man killed at Canby, Or., on the 23rd inst., by the S. P. passenger train.

Oscar Borg, while coasting on Hallock hill yesterday morning, was run into by the butcher wagon, receiving some severe bruises.

S. E. Jones, of Eight Mile, and A. L. Hall, of La Grande, called on this office last Saturday. The latter is here with a view of locating.

Mr. Lisle Sperry was a visitor to Heppner early this week. He reports R. C. Wells on the mend. The letter is P. O. addressed to present and future.

The 38-year-old son of Dr. E. J. Thomas, of La River, was accidentally killed a few days ago by the discharge of a 32-caliber, the ball striking him in the temple.

A recent issue of this paper, a full-length account in connection with Misses Etta Miner and Hedy Bryan, a girl who was 13 years old, and who was one of a party of 14, who were killed by the explosion of a dynamite mine at Heppner, Oregon, and who died at the Heppner hospital, the editor makes this explanation.

Dead—At the residence of W. F. Baird, Heppner, on the 3rd inst., of "grip," Grandma Wilcox, aged 57 years. She had been ill for several days previous to her death, and it was not unexpected. She was known by all as "Grandma," and her death was a severe loss to the family. The relatives have the sympathy of all.

On Feb. 22, at the hour of midnight when the mining camp of Coronapop in Union county, was resting in apparent safety, an avalanche of snow swept down the mountain side, crashed against the railway of the Eastern Oregon Mining Company and demolished it completely.

Heppner's people are preparing for a social event, at which every individual will be represented by some young lady, appropriate attire. It is under the management of L. E. E. Thompson, assisted by members of the M. E. church and others, and will occur in about two weeks. Further information concerning the same will be given in our next issue.

A L. Ayers is back from the valley, and although he had skipped over the Eastern Oregon winter, this time when a man is hauled off the road into a mine and romance, down into the drifts in the evacuation of feeding stock, it is a convincing of grave experience.

The editor of this paper is under ever-lasting obligations to Judge Keithly and Alice Thompson for staying in at the Heppner in our prospective damage, and compromising the affair. You might have a meeting with this case by seeing the gentlemen personally.

Case Matlock, accompanied by his son, Ed, came in from Pendleton, Tuesday, to see about the $2400 for the "pistol" left for the county. He refuses any such figures, having entered it in the race at Sheephead Bay in '24. Cass says that's the kind of stock you get by breeding to Leon.

The case of Albert M. Johnson vs. Ina Lee was called before Judge Keithly in the first of the week, but was continued all week on account of sickness in Mr. Morgan's family. Mr. Johnson wants damages for the former possessor sleep on his land.

News came down Tuesday that Mrs. John Leckman, who lives near Heppner, had died that morning. She was killed by this unknown epidemic called "grip," the remains were interred in the Heppner cemetery, on Wednesday.

Motion was made by Morgan that the finance committee examine the reports of the treasurer, recorder and marshal, and report at next convention, and no report to be published. Seconded by Garrigues, and carried.

Dr. J. F. Cropp, the Walla Walla sentiment, desires being the Spokane newspaper, in company with a fair one. It is hoped that the doctor can sustain the demand of the delegation, and also a "little" "digestor."

Senator Diph and the remainder of the Northwest delegation in congress are endeavoring to secure the right of way from the government for the portage road at the Cascades.

Larry Sullivan, the champion slizzer of Astoria, was recently fined $10 in the U. S. District court at Portland for boarding a vessel without the permission of the captain.

Our Assessor McGee has returned from the Dalles where he has been to prepare a map of Morrow County's assessed land. He has not yet had health during his absence.

Dr. Cropp, the Walla Walla man who got into trouble at Heppner, has "white-washed" his case, but it is an extremely light case, least said is soonest mended.

While Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins were in town Tuesday, their little child became quite ill, but had recovered sufficiently on Wednesday morning to return home.

Messrs. Shoeman, Minor, Rogers and Boins returned Sunday from their hunting trip. They got back with some game and a broken sled.

We cannot buy job stock on longer time than 60 days. Customers, do you know what it was called out late last week by Mrs. Thos. McCallough, who is dangerously ill.

Thos. Hager is visiting his brothers here, having arrived from Missouri early this week.

The GAZETTE is much pleased to see some of our young people aspiring to be teachers.

Our friend, G. D. Hart, was noticed to come over towards Clark's Canyon Sunday last.

Mr. Haggis Patter and Mrs. W. B. Potter left Wednesday morning for Hood River.

Mrs. Sam Kinman was severely bruised while coasting Monday evening.

Mrs. A. A. Curtis is quite ill at the residence of her mother, Mrs. H. Hays.

The last fall of snow has brought to the surface some old turbot.

"Big" Van Winkle says the snow is 3 1/2 feet deep in the mountains.

HARD AND MISTAKE.—Our friend, L. W. Lewis, of Heppner, took a lesson on driving a single-shafted car last Saturday. He was not what he desired to acquire, but it is no happens that a person will learn in this world, anyhow.

Mr. Lewis took the driver's place last Saturday, and was overruled in his attempt to get over a young lady's seat. He might be overruled in his attempt to get over a young lady's seat, but he was not overruled in his attempt to get over a young lady's seat.

CONCISE COMMITTEES.—The following are the standing committees of our town council for the fiscal year '31-2: Ways and Means, Malloy, Morgan and Farrington; Finance, Farrington, Gilliam and Malloy; Police and Fire, Malloy, Morgan and Garrigues; Streets and Public Property, Garrigues, McAtee and Morgan; Health and Police, McAtee, Morgan, Malloy and Garrigues; Ordinance, Farrington, Malloy and Garrison; The chairman of each committee, respectively, is the first named as arranged above.

STUDENT TEACHERS.—The following were granted certificates to teach at the examination last week: John K. Ely, of Saddle, second grade; Roy and H. L. Malloy, of Lexington, Misses E. L. Reed, of Saddle, Edith Samp, of Sand Hollow, Lorna Williams, Carrie Bush and Marjorie Neville, and Mrs. W. J. Harwell of Heppner, each received third grade.

DEATH OF MRS. THURKILL.—The friends and relatives of M. S. Thurkill, who died at her home in Clark's Canyon, She had been dangerously ill for about two weeks before her death, and it was not unexpected. She was a most estimable lady, and a devoted mother, leaving several small children to mourn her loss.

County Court is grinding on the usual grist.

SCHOOL MEETING.

Although the school meeting last Monday was extensively advertised, but few were present. In the last issue of the GAZETTE the time of the meeting was mentioned as the first Saturday in March, which was a very grave error, and one that should not have occurred. The meeting was held on Tuesday, and will be held on the second Monday of the next month.

School Clerk, A. M. Gunn, reported about $50 in his hands at the meeting, with about $400 outstanding which is collectible.

OVER THE HILL, AGAIN.

Perry Shanks, of Fox Valley, who was thrown from a horse some time since, and is now a fractured jaw, was in town last Monday.

As we go to press word comes in that the regular March term of circuit court has been postponed until after the Monday in April, on account of an act which was passed by the Legislature.

We are informed of a little trouble that took place at Heppner, recently between a woman and a man, who were engaged in a quarrel. The woman was very angry, and the man was very angry.

Long Creek village "landed" the suggestion of the N.E.R. that their town would prosper as well by any other name, and the city has been re-named in the name of "Glenwood." Much more people and high-sounding than "Long Creek."

About ten or eleven years ago when Mr. D. B. R. Hubert was planting his 40-acre orchard near this city the people called him crazy. But he went ahead and took good care of his trees.

County Court is grinding on the usual grist.
