MERELY A FAKE. MCLURE AND NICOLAY.

Something About the Noted Controversialists.

NEW YORK, July 15—Alexander K. McClure, the well-known Philadelphia journalist whose controversy with Colonel John G. Nicolay regarding the late Hannibal Hamlin has attracted attention, was born 61 years ago in Franklin county, Pa.

COLONEL MCLURE.

He joined the Democratic party in 1872 in the Greeley-Grant campaign, and was a staunch supporter of Hancock in 1880, and of Cleveland in 1884.

He was born in Germany, on the west bank of the Rhine, between Mayence and Straesburg. His father was a farmer, who sold his few acres of Bavarian soil and came to this country with his five children in 1837.

JOHN G. NICOLAY.

John was the youngest, and was born in 1832. His father died in Illinois where the family was then settled, and at the age of 14 young Nicolay was thrown entirely on his own resources.

He read law in the office of the Secretary of State of Illinois, and it was here that he first made the acquaintance of Abraham Lincoln.

There is probably no man in the country more intimately acquainted with every point in the career of Lincoln than Attorney Quins, and who has a better understanding of his noble character.

Intelligence has also been received here of the narrow escape from capture of the torpedo cruiser Lynch.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23—A case of alleged Asiatic cholera was discovered in this city today when Madison Thornton, of Third street and Madison avenue, died of great agony after an illness of only a few hours.

Dr. Ford, president of the board, after a careful noting of the symptoms, pronounced it simply cholera morbus, while Chief Medical Inspector Taylor says it was sporadic cholera.

Dr. Ford and Bunce, however, still claim that it is of the Asiatic variety. A post mortem examination will be made tomorrow. Excitement in the neighborhood runs high.

The Canadian Pacific Line to Kootenai Ready for Use.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 23—D. E. Brown, assistant freight and passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific railway, has just returned from a week's visit to the Upper Kootenai country.

"There was such a feeling of hostility to the Canadian Pacific railway reported up there," he said, "that I was almost afraid to show myself, but as I found out afterwards, this anti-Canadian Pacific feeling existed only among a few chronic kickers."

"We found everything in most acceptable shape, and all along the line depots are either completed or nearing completion, so that the public convenience will be suitably well. Our train schedule will very shortly be issued. After making the fullest inquiries there—and I went into the matter thoroughly—I find that not less than seven-eighths of the supplies used in that upper country are bought right in Canada, although the impression seems to prevail here that they mostly come from the States."

Another feature that is perhaps worth noticing is that in future large shipments of ore will be made to the smelters at Great Falls, Mont. This has in the past been going to Spokane to be melted, but as we had been able to make a favorable freight rate, to Great Falls the destination will be changed."

Chilina Insurgents Charged With Firing on a French Vessel.

VALPARAISO, Chile, July 23—It would seem as if the Congressional party had got itself into a very pretty muddle, with the French government, if the report just received here can be relied upon.
