

WE DON'T GET IT. A Haytian Official is Very Positive

WILL CEDE NO TERRITORY.

The Constitution Prohibits the Ceding of Territory and the Government Won't Have It.

New York, July 23—The World's correspondent at Port au Prince has had an interview with Hippolyte, in which the writer says: "In the differences between Haiti and the United States concerning Mole St. Nicholas, my country has not been to blame. The United States bases its claim to the mole on the strength of an alleged promise made during the revolutionary period."

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 23—President Parsons, of the Louisville American Association baseball club, was in this city yesterday and had a conference with President Kraemer of the Cincinnati club, and Chris Von Der Ahe. It is understood he told them his club was in the hole for $40,000, that the holder of the mortgage threatened immediate foreclosure, and that unless he was helped at once the club would disband.

NEW YORK, July 23—The general passenger agent of the Hamburg-American Packet Company in this city received yesterday a cablegram from Hamburg stating that the German imperial court chamberlain had ordered 12 staterooms on the steamer Columbia for the family of Prince Heinrich of Prussia, who are going to Southampton. Prince Heinrich is 29 years old and is the youngest brother of the German Emperor. He holds the rank of admiral of the German navy. It is not known whether the prince and his family, which consists of his wife and two children, are coming on to the United States or not.

LOUISVILLE MAY DISBAND.

Unless a Mortgage is Paid Tomorrow the Club Members.

CINCINNATI, July 24—There are official whispers of peace in the air that will delight every true lover of a ball game. Louisville is in dire straits. It is stated today that President Parsons has delivered his ultimatum. The Association must assume a mortgage on the club or Louisville will disband Saturday next.

A CONVENIENT LAW.

It Applies Only Where the Administration Wants It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24—The superintendent of immigration rendered a decision on the application of the stamping company of St. Louis to be permitted to import skilled labor for their tin plate mills to the effect that the immigration law plainly intends that skilled labor be imported into the United States to do work in an industry not yet established, provided the skilled workmen in that industry cannot be found among our own people. Therefore the importation will be permitted as such as are not to be found in the United States.

NEGOTIATIONS FAIL.

For Extension of the Mexican International Railroad.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 24—C. P. Huntington's representative here claims that General Manager Johnson was unsuccessful in his negotiations with the government of the State of Durango for an extension of the International railway from its junction with the Mexican Central to the capital of that State, although letters from Durango in this regard. The stoning of American Protestants in Durango on the 15th inst. is really exaggerated, the persons throwing stones being boys and vagabonds, while the American Protestants were violating the laws of Mexico by holding religious services in the open air. The authorities promptly arrested the guilty parties.

FIRE AT CLEVELAND.

Serious Conflagration Started by a Boy Playing With Matches.

CLEVELAND, July 24—Fire started about 7 o'clock last evening in a frame building owned by T. Stafford, a new general storehouse, and in less than five minutes the flames caught to the other buildings and soon the entire western portion of the city was on fire. There is no fire protection here, and assistance was asked from Akron, from which place an extra train brought 500 men to the rescue, who prevented the flames from burning the whole city.

AT HOME WITH THE DOCTORS.

KANSAS CITY, July 23—John I. Blair, of New Jersey, is lying quiet in this city. Blair has been stopping at the Charles Hotel for the past week. No one except the physicians are allowed to visit his room. The nature of the ailment is unknown.

NO MORE ENGLISH CLOTHES.

LONDON, July 23—The master tailors' association has decided to resort to a general lockout in Great Britain unless the strike in Liverpool ceases within a week.

NOT AN EARTHQUAKE. But Something Fully as Destructive.

FIFTY ACRES OF LAND SANK.

The Roof of a Coal Mine Caves In Carrying Down Houses and Doing Immense Damage.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 23—There is much excitement in the town of Edinboro, just across the river. For several days subterranean sounds have been heard coming from the Kingston Coal Company mines. The residents knew what the noise meant, and prayed several nights for the house, but the crisis came today before they expected it and the earth sank.

The area affected covers fully 50 acres and the damage is great. The earth is broken into small blocks and the surface has occurred. There are great holes large enough for a horse and wagon to fall into. In other places there are large cracks that run in all directions for half a mile or more.

DUPED EXCURSIONISTS.

Alabama Workmen Promised Situations and High Wages in Chicago.

ST. LOUIS, July 24—A Southern express car at the Union station is the present abiding place of an odd assortment of white and colored excursionists. Several hundred thousand dollars worth of goods are being carried in the car, and the excursionists are being duped by the agents.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

A Young Englishman Suddenly Drops Out of Sight in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 24—Detectives are still unable to find the whereabouts of E. W. Quick, the wealthy young Englishman who mysteriously disappeared from the Grand Pacific hotel last Saturday. His luggage is in storage at the hotel, and he has not appeared at the First National Bank to claim the money which was sent to him by cable from London on Wednesday.

WILL CROSS THE JURY.

Law of Mass. on Building for Killing Joe Dye this Afternoon, gave a verdict of not guilty.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 23—The jury in the case of Mass. on Building for Killing Joe Dye this afternoon, gave a verdict of not guilty. The ground of the defense was Dye's murderous record and continued threats causing the partial insanity of Bradford.

ALABAMA'S NECK BROKEN.

ALABAMA, July 24—Charles M. O'Leary, who murdered James M. Bradley in this city May 5th, was hanged here this afternoon. His neck was broken.

ANOTHER GAIN FOR THE LIBERALS.

LONDON, July 24—The election yesterday in the north of Warwick division of Cambridge, resulted in another victory for the Liberals.

CUSTOMS DUTIES MONOPOLY.

SALT CRYSTALS, July 24—The revenue for the first six months of the year amount to $4,000,000. The incomes are derived chiefly from customs duties which are run as a monopoly.

AN OLD SUGAR REFINERY BUNG.

NEW YORK, July 24—Frederick C. Havemeyer, who established the great Havemeyer sugar refinery in Brooklyn, is dying at Tarrytown, Long Island.

MASONIC AUTHOR DYING.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 24—William Hays is slowly sinking and a few hours more will close his eventful career. For many years he has been known throughout this and European countries as the best authority on the ritualistic work of Free Masonry.

SAN FRANCISCO DOINGS.

THE NEW CRUISER REGAN—DEPENDENT SOLDIER KILLS HIMSELF.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24—The first of the new cruiser Regan, which is to be larger and more heavily armed than the Charleston, was driven at the Union Iron Works today.

THE ROYAL HIT IN ENGLAND.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24—The City of Berlin, from New York, arrived this morning with over 200 Knights Templars on board. The Knights represent detachments from all parts of the United States, who are making a pilgrimage of Europe. They will return to New York September 24.

SACRIFICED A GIRL. MORE JEWS KILLED.

SPANISH JEWS STRANGLE A GREEK GIRL.

THE RIOT THIS TIME AT JAFFA.

NO MORE PILGRIMS PERMITTED TO PASS THROUGH TO JERUSALEM—A ROYAL MARRIAGE.

ADRIANOPLE, July 24—Great excitement prevails in this vicinity over the tragic events growing out of the accusation that Jewish butchers killed a Greek child as a religious sacrifice. The governor of Roumania has proclaimed the district under military law, fearing otherwise that the inhabitants would use force against the Jews.

THE EXPULSION OF RUSSIAN JEWS REFUSED ADMISSION INTO ANY OF THE COUNTRIES ADJACENT TO RUSSIA, taking advantage of the pilgrimage clause in the Turkish order of prohibition and entered the Turkish territory in such large numbers as to cause a serious disturbance in the place. Accordingly the authorities absolutely refused to admit any more of them, whether pilgrims or not, and the Jews stood firmly on their religious rights, which they declared had been respected by the government at Constantinople and could not be ignored by any of the Sultan's subordinates.

BARDSLEY INVESTIGATION.

Prominent Citizens of Philadelphia Held as Witnesses.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 24—The Bardsley investigation committee will meet tomorrow to hold a sort of free-for-all investigation. Governor Patterson, Auditor-General McCann, ex-Senate Treasurer Lively, Kemble and Elkins, presidents of banks and the editors of nearly all the Philadelphia newspapers are expected as witnesses. Subpoenas have been served on Secretary of State and Attorney-General, and the committee will meet tomorrow to hold a sort of free-for-all investigation.

RISK TO BE EXAMINED.

As to What Became of Money Deposited in a Wisconsin Bank.

VIROQUA, Wis., July 24—The attorney general of the State sent an officer here today to serve papers on Secretary of State Joseph P. Walker, in connection with the examination in suits brought by the State administration to recover money alleged to have been received by ex-State treasurer as interest on State deposits. It is claimed that during Governor Busk's administration, $20,000 or $30,000 were left on deposit in a Viroqua bank, and he is to be examined as to this, the testimony to be used in the suit of the State against ex-State Treasurer McFetridge.

A SOCIAL SENSATION.

MILWAUKEE MILITIAMEN UNDER A CLOUD.

THEIR SCANDALOUS CONDUCT.

Charged With Using the Army as a Meeting Place With Girls—Arrested & Fined.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 24—A number of quarters at the light-house squadron armory and their actions have caused a scandal. It has been rumored that the boys have been sprouting young girls into the place.

TOO MUCH WATER IN THEM.

VIENNA, July 23—The serious floods which have prevailed for some time past in Moravia and Silesia have caused enormous damage to the crops and crops. Bridges and roads have been swept away.

ELECTED HIGH PRICES.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 23—This morning the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons elected Joseph Hornor, of New Orleans, General High Priest.

OUR OWN WEATHER BUREAU.

PORTLAND, July 24—Washington is to have a weather bureau to co-operate with the national bureau, which is now in charge of the department of agriculture. B. S. Fague, who is in charge of the Oregon bureau, has recommended that one be established in Washington many times, and he has just been informed that the department of agriculture has granted his request.

CAN'T RUN AWAY AGAIN.

LOS ANGELES, July 24—Marshal Gard does not intend to let the Itata sail away again with any of his deputies, so on Monday he went on board the ship and took with him a machinist, who dismounted the engines to such an extent that it will be impossible to get up steam. The marshal now considers her safe without the Charleston's big guns being turned on her. The marshal, on Monday, notified Captain Remy, of the Charleston, that the presence of the cruiser was no longer necessary.

WANT MORE SUGAR.

OTTAWA, July 24—A petition signed by 15,000 members of the order of Patrons of Industry was presented to the Dominion House of Commons praying for the removal of the import duties on binder twine, salt and sugar, and setting these articles on the free list.

AT THE VATICAN. ANOTHER MAFIA.

FRIENDS PROTECT AN ITALIAN MURDERER.

A RACE WAR THREATENED.

DEMOCRATIC VIEWS OF CARDINALS FINDING FAVOR WITH THE HOLY SEE—CONCLAVE OF CARDINALS.

ROME, July 24—It is stated on high authority that the Holy See will not give its consent to the projected American review which is announced shortly to appear in Rome under the title of the Roman Messenger, to be devoted to various Roman questions in the United States.

THE VATICAN HAS DECLARED THAT THE PROTOCOL OF THE NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE WILL NOT CONTAIN ANY CLAUSE CONCERNING THE NEUTRALITY OF CARDINALS. Monsignor Galimberti, the Pope's nuncio at Vienna having succeeded in preventing the introduction of the proposed clause in the new treaty.

THAT FIGHT.

Another Minnesota Club Wants to Guarantee No Interference.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., July 24—The Pokegama Athletic association, of Grand Rapids, has decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without gloves. The club to furnish guarantee that the fight will not be interfered with.

AT COAL CREEK.

New Complications Arise But No Trouble Feared.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24—There is scarcely a doubt but that the troops will move to Coal Creek before noon today. Two Gatling guns will be mounted on flat cars and thus the troops will enter Coal Creek. There is not much danger of bloodshed, as the miners say no gun will be fired.

SERVED COOKED INDIAN.

An Investigation to be Had Into the Facts.

INDIANOPOLIS, Ind., July 24—S. B. Perkins, former chief of the State marshal, arrived here last evening and this morning commenced taking testimony in regard to the murder of Ah Quong Tia, the Chinese who was killed and brutally chopped to pieces by Indians on the 9th day of June last. The Chinaman had murdered an Indian by the name of Pook Tom, had cut his body in pieces, had salted it down and had cooked and fed a portion of it to the Indians, which so exasperated them that they cut and mutilated Tia's body in the same manner.

WELL DONE, JUDGE.

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 23—Judge Sherman, in the supreme court, today sentenced C. Mason Moody, defaulting county treasurer, to five years' imprisonment in the State prison at hard labor.

MERRY JESTS.

"What, ho!" is the watchword of the Farmers' Alliance.—Washington Post.

The speckled husband walks out of his house in mid-afternoon and forgets his hat.—Dallas News.

Probably when the red-headed girls come to vote there won't be so many dark horses.—Detroit Free Press.

Many more tie their horses very carefully, but let their tongues run loose.—Rama's Horn.

Penelope—What would you suggest as favors for our next german, Dolly?—Dorothy (unhappily)—Husbands, Lie.

NO NEED TO WORRY.—Over at Tacoma they have an idea that drought has struck the Walla Walla valley, spruce and squirrels, the Big Bend and a nipping frost the Palouse. Tacoma seems to be a little bit hysterical. The Review has a belief that so long as Eastern Washington is smiling and contented over her excellent crop prospects, the westerners show no great concern.—Spokane Review.

IN THE SWEET BYE AND BYE.—It would look as if in a century or so Tacoma will have a good water supply. Townsend also will have a good water supply about that time.—Port Townsend Call.

A COMING CENTENNIAL.—It is about time steps were taken toward the proper commemoration of the centennial anniversary of the discovery of Puget Sound. It is true the date is nearly a year ahead, but the occasion is a great one, and it should be celebrated in a style commensurate with its importance.—Seattle Telegraph.

FOUR WERE KILLED. A RAILWAY COLLISION IN COLORADO.

BOTH TRAINS WERE WRECKED.

PETER'S PENCE INVESTIGATION.

DEMOCRATIC VIEWS OF CARDINALS FINDING FAVOR WITH THE HOLY SEE—CONCLAVE OF CARDINALS.

DENVER, July 24—The narrow gauge east bound express from Salida, Colo., on the Denver & Rio Grande, collided with the broad gauge Salt Lake express going west, a few miles from Carlisle, early this morning. The trains were running at full speed and heavily loaded. The engines and front coaches of both trains were completely wrecked and four persons were killed. The killed were George A. Ariell, engineer; A. H. Parson, conductor; C. M. Cole, express messenger; Frank unknown. Injured, Ben Williams, H. C. Mulinix, Henry Schumler, R. Robinson, news agent, H. C. Gibson, and G. McAdams, mail messenger.

THAT FIGHT.

Another Minnesota Club Wants to Guarantee No Interference.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., July 24—The Pokegama Athletic association, of Grand Rapids, has decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without gloves. The club to furnish guarantee that the fight will not be interfered with.

AT COAL CREEK.

New Complications Arise But No Trouble Feared.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24—There is scarcely a doubt but that the troops will move to Coal Creek before noon today. Two Gatling guns will be mounted on flat cars and thus the troops will enter Coal Creek. There is not much danger of bloodshed, as the miners say no gun will be fired.

SERVED COOKED INDIAN.

An Investigation to be Had Into the Facts.

INDIANOPOLIS, Ind., July 24—S. B. Perkins, former chief of the State marshal, arrived here last evening and this morning commenced taking testimony in regard to the murder of Ah Quong Tia, the Chinese who was killed and brutally chopped to pieces by Indians on the 9th day of June last. The Chinaman had murdered an Indian by the name of Pook Tom, had cut his body in pieces, had salted it down and had cooked and fed a portion of it to the Indians, which so exasperated them that they cut and mutilated Tia's body in the same manner.

WELL DONE, JUDGE.

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 23—Judge Sherman, in the supreme court, today sentenced C. Mason Moody, defaulting county treasurer, to five years' imprisonment in the State prison at hard labor.

MERRY JESTS.

"What, ho!" is the watchword of the Farmers' Alliance.—Washington Post.

The speckled husband walks out of his house in mid-afternoon and forgets his hat.—Dallas News.

Probably when the red-headed girls come to vote there won't be so many dark horses.—Detroit Free Press.

Many more tie their horses very carefully, but let their tongues run loose.—Rama's Horn.

Penelope—What would you suggest as favors for our next german, Dolly?—Dorothy (unhappily)—Husbands, Lie.

NO NEED TO WORRY.—Over at Tacoma they have an idea that drought has struck the Walla Walla valley, spruce and squirrels, the Big Bend and a nipping frost the Palouse. Tacoma seems to be a little bit hysterical. The Review has a belief that so long as Eastern Washington is smiling and contented over her excellent crop prospects, the westerners show no great concern.—Spokane Review.

IN THE SWEET BYE AND BYE.—It would look as if in a century or so Tacoma will have a good water supply. Townsend also will have a good water supply about that time.—Port Townsend Call.

A COMING CENTENNIAL.—It is about time steps were taken toward the proper commemoration of the centennial anniversary of the discovery of Puget Sound. It is true the date is nearly a year ahead, but the occasion is a great one, and it should be celebrated in a style commensurate with its importance.—Seattle Telegraph.

AT THE VATICAN. ANOTHER MAFIA.

FRIENDS PROTECT AN ITALIAN MURDERER.

A RACE WAR THREATENED.

DEMOCRATIC VIEWS OF CARDINALS FINDING FAVOR WITH THE HOLY SEE—CONCLAVE OF CARDINALS.

ROME, July 24—It is stated on high authority that the Holy See will not give its consent to the projected American review which is announced shortly to appear in Rome under the title of the Roman Messenger, to be devoted to various Roman questions in the United States.

THE VATICAN HAS DECLARED THAT THE PROTOCOL OF THE NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE WILL NOT CONTAIN ANY CLAUSE CONCERNING THE NEUTRALITY OF CARDINALS. Monsignor Galimberti, the Pope's nuncio at Vienna having succeeded in preventing the introduction of the proposed clause in the new treaty.

THAT FIGHT.

Another Minnesota Club Wants to Guarantee No Interference.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., July 24—The Pokegama Athletic association, of Grand Rapids, has decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without gloves. The club to furnish guarantee that the fight will not be interfered with.

AT COAL CREEK.

New Complications Arise But No Trouble Feared.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24—There is scarcely a doubt but that the troops will move to Coal Creek before noon today. Two Gatling guns will be mounted on flat cars and thus the troops will enter Coal Creek. There is not much danger of bloodshed, as the miners say no gun will be fired.

SERVED COOKED INDIAN.

An Investigation to be Had Into the Facts.

INDIANOPOLIS, Ind., July 24—S. B. Perkins, former chief of the State marshal, arrived here last evening and this morning commenced taking testimony in regard to the murder of Ah Quong Tia, the Chinese who was killed and brutally chopped to pieces by Indians on the 9th day of June last. The Chinaman had murdered an Indian by the name of Pook Tom, had cut his body in pieces, had salted it down and had cooked and fed a portion of it to the Indians, which so exasperated them that they cut and mutilated Tia's body in the same manner.

WELL DONE, JUDGE.

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 23—Judge Sherman, in the supreme court, today sentenced C. Mason Moody, defaulting county treasurer, to five years' imprisonment in the State prison at hard labor.

MERRY JESTS.

"What, ho!" is the watchword of the Farmers' Alliance.—Washington Post.

The speckled husband walks out of his house in mid-afternoon and forgets his hat.—Dallas News.

Probably when the red-headed girls come to vote there won't be so many dark horses.—Detroit Free Press.

Many more tie their horses very carefully, but let their tongues run loose.—Rama's Horn.

Penelope—What would you suggest as favors for our next german, Dolly?—Dorothy (unhappily)—Husbands, Lie.

NO NEED TO WORRY.—Over at Tacoma they have an idea that drought has struck the Walla Walla valley, spruce and squirrels, the Big Bend and a nipping frost the Palouse. Tacoma seems to be a little bit hysterical. The Review has a belief that so long as Eastern Washington is smiling and contented over her excellent crop prospects, the westerners show no great concern.—Spokane Review.

IN THE SWEET BYE AND BYE.—It would look as if in a century or so Tacoma will have a good water supply. Townsend also will have a good water supply about that time.—Port Townsend Call.

A COMING CENTENNIAL.—It is about time steps were taken toward the proper commemoration of the centennial anniversary of the discovery of Puget Sound. It is true the date is nearly a year ahead, but the occasion is a great one, and it should be celebrated in a style commensurate with its importance.—Seattle Telegraph.

AT THE VATICAN. ANOTHER MAFIA.

FRIENDS PROTECT AN ITALIAN MURDERER.

A RACE WAR THREATENED.

DEMOCRATIC VIEWS OF CARDINALS FINDING FAVOR WITH THE HOLY SEE—CONCLAVE OF CARDINALS.

ROME, July 24—It is stated on high authority that the Holy See will not give its consent to the projected American review which is announced shortly to appear in Rome under the title of the Roman Messenger, to be devoted to various Roman questions in the United States.

THE VATICAN HAS DECLARED THAT THE PROTOCOL OF THE NEW TRIPLE ALLIANCE WILL NOT CONTAIN ANY CLAUSE CONCERNING THE NEUTRALITY OF CARDINALS. Monsignor Galimberti, the Pope's nuncio at Vienna having succeeded in preventing the introduction of the proposed clause in the new treaty.

THAT FIGHT.

Another Minnesota Club Wants to Guarantee No Interference.

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn., July 24—The Pokegama Athletic association, of Grand Rapids, has decided to offer $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight with or without gloves. The club to furnish guarantee that the fight will not be interfered with.

AT COAL CREEK.

New Complications Arise But No Trouble Feared.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24—There is scarcely a doubt but that the troops will move to Coal Creek before noon today. Two Gatling guns will be mounted on flat cars and thus the troops will enter Coal Creek. There is not much danger of bloodshed, as the miners say no gun will be fired.

SERVED COOKED INDIAN.

An Investigation to be Had Into the Facts.

INDIANOPOLIS, Ind., July 24—S. B. Perkins, former chief of the State marshal, arrived here last evening and this morning commenced taking testimony in regard to the murder of Ah Quong Tia, the Chinese who was killed and brutally chopped to pieces by Indians on the 9th day of June last. The Chinaman had murdered an Indian by the name of Pook Tom, had cut his body in pieces, had salted it down and had cooked and fed a portion of it to the Indians, which so exasperated them that they cut and mutilated Tia's body in the same manner.

WELL DONE, JUDGE.

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 23—Judge Sherman, in the supreme court, today sentenced C. Mason Moody, defaulting county treasurer, to five years' imprisonment in the State prison at hard labor.

MERRY JESTS.

"What, ho!" is the watchword of the Farmers' Alliance.—Washington Post.

The speckled husband walks out of his house in mid-afternoon and forgets his hat.—Dallas News.

Probably when the red-headed girls come to vote there won't be so many dark horses.—Detroit Free Press.

Many more tie their horses very carefully, but let their tongues run loose.—Rama's Horn.

Penelope—What would you suggest as favors for our next german, Dolly?—Dorothy (unhappily)—Husbands, Lie.

NO NEED TO WORRY.—Over at Tacoma they have an idea that drought has struck the Walla Walla valley, spruce and squirrels, the Big Bend and a nipping frost the Palouse. Tacoma seems to be a little bit hysterical. The Review has a belief that so long as Eastern Washington is smiling and contented over her excellent crop prospects, the westerners show no great concern.—Spokane Review.

IN THE SWEET BYE AND BYE.—It would look as if in a century or so Tacoma will have a good water supply. Townsend also will have a good water supply about that time.—Port Townsend Call.

A COMING CENTENNIAL.—It is about time steps were taken toward the proper commemoration of the centennial anniversary of the discovery of Puget Sound. It is true the date is nearly a year ahead, but the occasion is a great one, and it should be celebrated in a style commensurate with its importance.—Seattle Telegraph.