The flagpoles have chosen these foreign flags to represent the republican form of government which we hope will be the import of the two flags of the North, too, at some future day."

YEPHUS FEVER BEATS AN ARMY. VIENNA, Nov. 3 - The epidemic of typhus in the Russian arm on the banks of the Pruth has driven the army back, much to the gratification of the Roumanian militia, who have been compelled to hold an astonishing vigil on the opposite side of the river.

FRANS FERD. ALA HEIKKILA, of Hakkila, was murdered by A. V. Anderson, his hired man, the other day. It is said that Heikkila had intimate relations with the wife of Anderson. Anderson was arrested.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, Not Seattle. NEW YORK, Nov. 3 - The executive committee of the National Education Association has decided to hold the next annual convention at Saratoga Springs, July 12 to 15, 1892. Seattle in the State of Washington was a strong favorite in balloting.

QUAY'S CERTIFICATE. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 3 - Acting Secretary Spaulding received a letter from Francis B. Rooves, of Philadelphia, this morning, stating emphatically that he had never given the certificate endorsed by Senator Quay, and that he had no knowledge of how it got into the possession of the Democratic State committee.

An Alleged Instance of How He Aroused Chilean Hatred.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 - W. R. Stearns has been for five years manager and proprietor for a firm of Chilean merchants of this city and his business has brought him in contact with the leading men of political and business circles of the Southern republic. Stearns is now in this city. He left Valparaiso four days before the riot in which the Baltimore's sailors were involved.

To understand the exact feeling just now," said Stearns, "it must be remembered the governing and influential class of Chilean people are well educated, cultivated and shrewd as Americans. They have a clear comprehension of the extent and power of the United States and know just as well as we do that it would be suicidal for them to bring on a war. The Chilean masses are ignorant, but they have no influence or hand in affairs.

"A little time and consideration among such able men as the Chilean leaders are results usually in calm and good judgment. The final Chilean action in the premises I predict will be dignified and sensible. The popular and wildly mistaken feelings that the Chileans are an inferior lot of men is responsible for so much talk of war in this country. I think it will blow over.

There were three recent events which have combined to incite Chilean indignation against American favor. Admiral Brown's operation when the insurgents landed at Quintero aroused the whole people. Quintero is 40 miles from Valparaiso. The day of the landing the San Francisco was commanded by Admiral Brown, who was in Valparaiso bay as were the Esmeralda and Cochran, vessels of the insurgents.

The San Francisco suddenly steamed down toward the harbor and refused to answer the signals of the Esmeralda which passed by four times. Admiral Brown ran close to the insurgents' landing place and cruised about, gaining a complete knowledge of the strength of the insurgents. After gaining complete information the San Francisco steamed at once for Valparaiso. Upon arriving an officer was sent ashore who went immediately to the Chilean palaco.

This night the Valparaiso papers came out with complete information of the strength of the insurgents, accrediting it to the United States man-of-war.

This made things so hot for Admiral Brown that four weeks later when the insurgents were in control he explained that his officers in visiting the palace had not given information, but as all cable messages had to be read by the government, the news was sent, while checking this message to Washington that the government got the information.

"But that explanation did not satisfy the people. If Admiral Brown did give out the information and advise the ministers of just what was coming he ought to be dismissed from the service. Perhaps his explanation is correct, but it can be readily seen how no explanation could dispel the intense prejudice aroused."

They Were Suspended on a Deserted Island. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 3 - Steamship Yanook of Japan, which arrived this morning 12 days seven hours from Yokohama, brought Captain Tibbets and eight of the crew of the schooner Kite from San Francisco. They sailed from San Francisco July 4th with a million dollar load of lumber or shingles which wrecked September 9th on Borodino island and remained on the island 27 days. Water and food gave out and the men suffered terribly. The Captain, mate and two sailors left for the Fox Crook islands 180 miles, where they were picked up by a steamer and taken to Hogoal. A passing steamer rescued the remainder from Borodino. None were lost.

Italian Idea of Good Yankees. ROME, Nov. 3 - The Italia publishes an article headed "Good Yankees," in which that paper says: "The United States have one diplomatic representative for Chili and another for Italy. They virtually closed by the McKinley bill, the markets of the United States to Italian wares and products, and now the United States seeks to exercise suzerainty over all America. All Yankees unscrupulously follow politics as a business, even when international affairs are concerned. But the time may come when Europe will see us as petty differences and not the United States to a more exact and precise notion of the law of nations."

Nearer Chile. NEW YORK, Nov. 3 - The Philadelphia flag of the North Atlantic Squadron, sailed from the navy yard at Brooklyn this morning on the way to Barbados, West Indies. There she will be a thousand miles nearer Chile than here.

A Couple Brutally Murdered. GEORGETOWN, Ala., Nov. 3 - Last night Thomas Sheppard and wife, a couple of highly esteemed people residing two miles from town, were murdered. Their bodies were horribly butchered, the crime having apparently been committed with axes. Every trunk and drawer in the house was pillaged. People in the State are in a frenzy and a large force of men is patrolling the country in search of the murderers.

FRANS FERD. ALA HEIKKILA, of Hakkila, was murdered by A. V. Anderson, his hired man, the other day. It is said that Heikkila had intimate relations with the wife of Anderson. Anderson was arrested.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, Not Seattle. NEW YORK, Nov. 3 - The executive committee of the National Education Association has decided to hold the next annual convention at Saratoga Springs, July 12 to 15, 1892. Seattle in the State of Washington was a strong favorite in balloting.

QUAY'S CERTIFICATE. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 3 - Acting Secretary Spaulding received a letter from Francis B. Rooves, of Philadelphia, this morning, stating emphatically that he had never given the certificate endorsed by Senator Quay, and that he had no knowledge of how it got into the possession of the Democratic State committee.

The Daughter of the Late Senator Fair Gives Birth to a Heir.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 - Hermann Oelrichs was a happy man last night even than was Grover Cleveland upon a recent event of national interest. At 8:10 p. m. he became the father of a magnificent specimen of babyhood weighing 11 pounds 7 ounces. The child was born at the Oelrichs residence, No. 687 Fifth avenue. The attending physicians were Drs. William Walker and Swift, of East Thirtieth street. Mrs. Oelrichs' sister, Miss Fair, was with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Oelrichs were married a year ago last summer. They came to this city from San Francisco, taking their bridal trip from there on Mr. Oelrichs' yacht. Mrs. Oelrichs was the daughter of the late Senator Fair of New York. Mrs. Teresa Fair, who died early in September. Mr. Oelrichs, it is understood, is greatly pleased that his youthful son outweighs Mr. Cleveland's by 3 pounds 11 ounces.

More Friendly to the Jesuits and Regarded as Recusatory. ROME, Nov. 3 - The sudden summons of the chief of the Jesuits to Rome is generally regarded as an indication that the pope is prepared to extend to that order something of its former preponderance in church affairs. As France draws nearer to Italy the pope diverges from the position of the arch-bishop of Aix, and France has, in some degree, retaliated by making friendly overtures to the papal curia. The exceptional duties of an Italian preacher are to be assigned to the discussions as to the delimitation of the frontier in Africa are to be resumed. In face of all this the pope calls upon the Jesuit order for advice, which, in a letter of well known churchmen, means a reactionary policy.

Parnellites Claim They Are Influencing the Campaign. CORK, Nov. 3 - Singular statements are being made by Parnellite leaders as to the intention of voters by the clergy. It is said that an anathema has been threatened against electors who should dare to vote the Parnellite ticket, and that men were told to drop the Parnellite name at all times. At the same time the clergy of the church, and that women were appealed to by priests to influence their husbands against the Parnellite cause.

It is thought probable that in the event of an anti-Parnellite victory on Friday that Mr. Redmond will contest the election on the alleged ground of priestly intimidation and dictation. The Parnellites claim that but for the priests they could carry the district with ease, but the clergy spare no effort to prejudice the minds of the people against the cause represented by Mr. Redmond.

Daniel Carl Gibbs Passes Away at His Mother's Home. PEYABEE, Nov. 3 - Daniel Carl Gibbs, the only son of Mrs. W. C. Gibbs, died at his home in this city on October 30th. In July, 1884, Ada F. Bunnell, of Olympia, was united in marriage with Wingate C. Gibbs. A year and a half ago Mr. Gibbs died at the asylum for the insane in California, leaving her a widow with her son, Daniel, who was 6 years and 4 months of age at the time of his death, yet despite his youth the little fellow had many friends; he was a bright boy, his brain being very active. His funeral was held at the Episcopal church, before a large audience. The former schoolmate and Sunday school teacher of Daniel, Rev. M. F. Martin, officiated at the funeral. A choir of eight young ladies led the singing, rendering several of his favorite songs.

Victoria Woodhall's Husband. LONDON, Nov. 3 - Mr. K. Bidolph Martin proposes to stand as Unionist candidate for parliament in the district of Wiltshire. He will be opposed by Mr. Thomas E. Stephens. Mr. Martin is a wealthy banker and husband of the noted American woman whose name, before her marriage to him, was Victoria Woodhall. Mr. Martin is strictly in accord with the views of the present government.

A Resident of California Has His Early History Made Known. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3 - The suit of Mrs. Sallie Hart, against William Rogers, to recover $500 for services rendered by her husband, Attorney Jesse B. Hart, began before Judge Finn yesterday. Rogers is the assumed name of William Kisano, who had been indicted in New York and Arkansas for various crimes.

Thirty-five years ago he was convicted in New York City on one charge of forgery, but influential friends secured his release after a few months' imprisonment. After his release he was again compromised by the forgery, but by some inadvertence both indictments were never dismissed but remained in full force.

Kisano came to California in the '50's, and he is now living in the county of Fresno. He began receiving anonymous letters which disclosed the fact that his identity was known and which gave him to understand that the indictments were still hanging over his head.

Yesterday Rogers testified that he had secured the withdrawal of the indictments. Instead of doing Hart gave California papers a clue by moving for the dismissal of the indictments in open court. For the reason Rogers charges the owing notes to Hart's estate. The case will go on this week.

Visible Supply of Grains. NEW YORK, Nov. 2 - The following is a statement of the visible supply of grain in store and afloat on Saturday, October 31st, as compiled by the New York Produce exchange: Wheat 265,000,000; corn 3,052,000,000; oats 1,818,000,000; increase 290,000; barley 3,175,000; increase 470,000.

Maybrick's Insurance Money. LONDON, Nov. 3 - In the court of appeals yesterday, Sir John Fry, in the appeal of the executors of the will of Maybrick, Sir Edward Clarke, attorney general, in behalf of the defendants, resumed his argument this morning, saying as the law did not permit the wife or other representative of an insured person who committed suicide to recover the insurance money, the law could not allow that person to profit by his or her own crime.

Yesterday the court in summing up, said he thought the true construction of the policy was that the money should be paid to the executors in trust. If that is done and a receipt obtained the respondents are not bound to see the trust fulfilled. After further argument judgment was received.

Chill is Quietly Getting Her Land and Water Forces on a Better Footing.

LONDON, Nov. 4 - The latest advices from Valparaiso state that there is no diminution of the popular animosity against Americans, and that no real effort is being made to bring any Chileans to justice for the killing of the American sailors. While the American associations are pressing the Junta has ordered the Chilean war vessels to be ready for service, and the forts defending Valparaiso harbor are being strengthened.

These steps are taken very quietly, as if with a view to avoid attracting attention. The Baltimore maintains great vigilance, and Captain Schley is evidently on the lookout for a treacherous attack. The opinion is expressed that should the attempt not be made before the 18th inst. the new president, probably George Montt, may bring matters to a settlement. Montt is believed to be the best disposed to Americans of any of the revolutionary leaders.

The correspondent of the London Times writes that he is a writer who has been noted in the past for his hostility to the United States. The Times articles continue to be the subject of unfavorable comments in London, as calculated to stir up trouble between the United States and England.

A Cage Falls to the Bottom of a Mining Shaft at Butte. BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 4 - At midnight last night when one shift of men at the Anaconda mine were relieving another 17 men were killed by the falling of the cage and two fatally injured. The cage was full of men retreating from work, and as they stepped out into the open air their places were at once taken by 19 men who were to take up the work they had just abandoned and the cage with the men was lowered to a depth of 100 feet. The rope which had been unwound but a couple of times from the slowly revolving windlass when there was a sudden snap and a cry of horror from the men. The rope had broken and the cage with the 19 inmates precipitated to the bottom of the mine. It was some little time before assistance could be sent them. A number of miners who were through their work and waiting to be relieved were at the bottom of the shaft waiting for the cage to take them out. Amidst them, narrowly missing some, the cage dashed. Little could be done. Of the 19 men who made the fearful ride 17 were dead. Their forms were crushed out of all semblance to human beings, while the two who are still breathing have no hopes of recovery.

General Agent Davis of the Northern Pacific Talks. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4 - H. C. Davis, of the Northern Pacific railway, arrived here from St. Paul yesterday. "We are not going to build any branch lines in the Northwest for a year and a half or more," he said. "I think," he said, "the country is pretty well settled now. We have no idea of extending to California, if it is so far that it would not be profitable. We are doing a local business of 6000 a mile monthly, and the value of the territory is increasing. Our income of $40,000,000 greater than it has ever been. The increase is mostly in grain. "We are shortening the road a little all the time, not so much to make it short as to get the business done. We shortened it 20 miles not long since, and we will do it again and we will shortly have an important cut-off in the Idaho panhandle south of Lake Pen d'Oreille, where we connect with the Curo and Idaho branch of the Great Northern, and make it a section of the main line. Probably the next branch we build will be the little one of 30 miles from Pen d'Oreille to the Kootenai river."

Dr. Tim Healy Suffering From the Results of a Horsecantering. DUBLIN, Nov. 4 - Tim Healy is greatly disturbed by the publicity which the story of his whipping has received. He now declares that he throttled McDermott and prevented him from striking. There are plenty of witnesses to the contrary. These witnesses however at least 50 strokes of the horse whip as McDermott rained the blows on Healy's body, while Healy danced and jumped about yelling with pain and calling for someone to help him.

Healy's horse came out in the courts from McDermott's blows, and all over the body of Healy were black and blue all over his face. He refused to complain against McDermott for the assault as his fear that the whole country would come out in the courts after the horsecantering. Healy says with vexation and pain. He has since been unable to sit down, at least in public.

Anxious to Support the Pope. PARIS, Nov. 4 - A French committee is being organized to agitate for the maintenance of the papal guarantee under the restoration of the pope's authority to consider the relations of the pope of Italy and the expediency or necessity of some reform in these relations. The main object of the congress would be to demand that the pope be allowed to exercise his full temporal power. The meeting place of such a congress would be a matter of difficulty, as both Germany and Spain have refused to permit attacks to be publicly made by local Catholic congresses on the integrity of England.

The President of Guatemala Trying to Hold On to His Office. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4 - A special from the City of Mexico says: Advice received from Guatemala says that where President Barrios has ordered the newspapers and the press and banished journalists, the most absolute liberty in writing is now allowed, and newspaper men are taking advantage of every opportunity to score the government. There is a probability that he will be deposed by his own troops of office expires in December. His previous arbitrary acts have made him so unpopular that he should be deposed. Barrios has been advised by his friends and cabinet to leave Guatemala, but this he has refused to do until after the election. His mode at present is to hold the presidency until the expiration of his term. He has assured Salvador through the latterly appointed minister that he does not desire war with that country.

Wife Murderer Commits Suicide. NEW YORK, Nov. 3 - Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning John Kramer, aged 47, shot his wife in the head at No. 239 East Twelfth street. An hour later he was found hanging to the top of a dumb waiter on the roof of No. 199 Second avenue quite dead. Mrs. Kramer was taken to Bellevue hospital where her condition is pronounced critical.

HORSEWHIPPED HEALY

The McCarthyite Gets a Beating.

HE ABUSED MRS. PARNELL.

Mrs. Parnell's Nephew Chastises Healy for His Unwarranted Remarks at Last Sunday's Meeting - Partisan Feeling Runs High and a Fight Results.

DUBLIN, Nov. 3 - Timothy Healy, McCarthyite member of the House of Commons for the northern division of the county of Longford, has been publicly horsewhipped in the streets by McDermott, nephew of the late Charles Parnell.

Such is the terse record of an interesting and not unexpected event which has been placed upon the bulletin boards of the various papers of this city, every one of which is surrounded by demonstrative crowds of fishermen. The Parnellites who in throngs gaze upon the big black letters of the notice are jubilant and do not hesitate to taunt the McCarthyites, who also crowd about the boards. The consequence is that a number of fights have already occurred while the temper of partisans is such as to suggest the necessity for strong and vigilant police patrol. It has been in this way that the needed attention by some one and some how called to prompt reckoning for the exceedingly vigorous speech delivered by him at Longford Sunday night.

Ordinarily Healy is a remarkably forcible orator, but on the occasion in question he exceeded himself, having gone so far as to refer to Mrs. O'Shea as an "English prostitute." The particulars of the assault, as far as understood by this reporter, were as follows: On the morning of Sunday last Timothy Healy, dressed in his barrister's wig and gown, walking through Four Courts. Without a moment's delay McDermott drew a horse-whip from under his coat, and rushing upon the astonished and completely unprepared Healy, he repeatedly and vigorously delivered blows.

Healy was taken completely by surprise and stumbling fell flat upon his back. He lay there for some moments at the same time. While Healy was prostrate his enemy continued to remorselessly and unsparingly slash whatever part of his body presented itself. This, however, did not last long, for Healy springing to his feet, the two men clinched. There was a rapid delivery of flat blows by McDermott, and then a short wrestling match which was concluded with Healy's again going to earth. While this was going on a crowd of solicitors and barristers were flocking from all parts of Four Courts. These gentlemen at last intervened and forming a cordon about Healy at once prevented him from again attacking or being attacked. McDermott explained to one of the onlookers that he "thrashed the long because of that speech of his at Longford on Sunday last in which he so brutally assailed the honor of my kinsman's widow, Mrs. Parnell."

PETERSBURG, Nov. 3 - Smith, United States Minister to Russia, gave a brilliant dinner last night in honor of Destrade, the Russian Minister to the United States, who is about to return to Washington. New York Presbyterian Meets to Investigate the Charge of Horsey. NEW YORK, Nov. 4 - The New York Presbyterian assembly this morning in the Scotch Presbyterian church, for the purpose of beginning the trial of Professor Charles A. Briggs on the charge of horsey, but in his language used by him in his inaugural address in the Union Theological Seminary. Dr. John C. Bliss presided as moderator. There was a full attendance.

One of the chief charges against Dr. Briggs is that he dispensed the inspiration of the whole Bible. The professor read a paper objecting to the form of charges preferred, stating that the report of the committee which had formulated the charges against him contained charges which it is not now proposed to present at the trial.

The committee charges him with uttering doctrinal teaching respecting marriage, the origin and condition of man, etc., without attempting to prove the charge. This, Dr. Briggs said, did him great injustice and was apt to prejudice the decision of members. He said if he had conveyed widespread anxiety he was sorry, but in his conscience he felt no guilt in regard to disturbing the peace and harmony of the church.

He further added that the charges are general and obscure and irregular in form throughout; there was nothing in the specifications that can be tested by the defendant. He admitted extracts from his address made on the occasion of his inaugural address as professor of biblical theology in the Union Theological Seminary.

The facts relied upon to sustain the charges are the missing indictment. He said also the indictment contained charges wholly unwarranted. He deprecates the charge of doctrinal teaching with holy scriptures as the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

Displayed Wooden Pistols. SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 3 - Three convicts escaped from the penitentiary yesterday. They used imitation pistols whittled out of wood to stand off the guards and made their flight on horses. One of the trio was shot in the arm and recaptured by the guard.
