

ALARMING SITUATION.

Rebellion of Miners in Tennessee.

COMMERCIAL STANDING HURT.

And a Conflict Between the Mountaineers and State Officials Probable if an Attempt is Made to Rebuild the Convicts' Stockade.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 9.—The situation in Tennessee is becoming alarming. It has but one equal in the history of America, and that was when Carolina attempted to secede from the United States. It has been stated on authority that the rebellion of miners, so far as estimated, has damaged the commercial standing of East Tennessee to the amount of millions of dollars.

The two town companies, one with $50,000,000 capital and located at Bristol, the other with $100,000,000 located at Elizabethton, have refused to enter the State, claiming that the State, not being able to protect its own interests, cannot protect the interests of capital.

Suspicious communication is being held between the East Tennessee miners and the miners of Kentucky, Alabama and Virginia. The sturdy mountaineers who released the convicts have sworn that the Governor shall not rebuild the stockade and that if he sends the convicts back to the Bryceville and Coal Creek mines they will be butchered in cold blood.

Sheriff Rutherford, of Anderson county, who was notified by Governor Buchanan yesterday that if he could not sustain order and protect the people that his resignation would be requested, received a notice, signed by the miners' committee, of two death threats of grinning skulls and bones which were marked on the paper and under it this significant message: "Tell your Governor that if he sends the convicts back again we will kill them one by one. We mean business."

The law is now openly defied. There can be nothing but bloodshed if the Governor really intends to rebuild the stockade. Governor Buchanan means business, too. He has had 50 new gatling guns and thousands of small arms purchased. The State has paid out to date $16,800 for the capture of convicts and the lessees steadily refuse to keep their part of the contract.

ALARMING SITUATION.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Despatches received here today from Pernambuco show that the trouble in Brazil is approaching an acute crisis, and there is much anxiety expressed in financial and commercial circles regarding its outcome. Fonseca's action in dissolving Congress and again appearing in the role of a dictator is condemned and grave doubts are expressed as to the success of this move. These despatches state that from the province of Rio Grande comes intelligence to the effect that the local government has refused to acquiesce in the assumption by De Fonseca of the power of dictator and has declared the independence of the province. The despatches further state that there is great discontent throughout all the provinces because of it.

Husband and Wife of Laramie Begin Suits—Many Co-Respondents.

LARAMIE CITY, WYOMING, Nov. 9.—The Gem City has a great scandal. Dudley Diggs, the office man at the rolling mills and a prominent citizen, has sued for divorce. No less than eight co-respondents are named and it is understood that the petitioner will sue for heavy damages for some of these.

Mrs. Diggs, who was the daughter of a New York broker and who is highly accomplished, is in Salt Lake enroute to California to ask a court of that State for release from her matrimonial alliance. She was driven from home by her husband. A. W. Whitehouse, the race horse owner and club man, is one of the co-respondents and H. J. Evan another. Nearly all the rest are gamblers of the English colony, which has simply melted away since the affair began on a legal aspect. One report is that Whitehouse is in Salt Lake, and it is alleged that he is to marry Mrs. Diggs as soon as a divorce is secured.

All the parties are members of the thirty-third degree of Laramie's Order of McAllister, and the victims have created a great sensation.

IN COUNTY CORK.

A Fight Over Land Ends Fatally. DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—Two families named Lynch and Hurley, living in Dunnamway, County Cork, got in a fight for the possession of land. Five persons were fatally injured. Other participants in the fight were injured, but not so seriously.

Unpleasant Diplomatic Experience. GIBRALTAR, Nov. 9.—The dispute between the French government and the Sultan of Morocco regarding the ownership of the Oasis of Tont does not seem to be approaching a solution and if France remains steadfast in her determination to take her possession of Tont there is no doubt serious trouble will follow. The majority of the inhabitants of the oasis do not look with favor upon the claims of either country, but desire to throw aside all foreign government and form an independent government of their own.

An Effect of the McKinley Tariff. LONDON, Nov. 7.—Returns of the Board of Trade for October show that during the month imports decreased $570,000 and exports decreased $2,510,000 as compared with those for the corresponding month of last year.

Fatal Fire in a Stable. DENVER, Nov. 9.—The Mansions livery stable was almost completely burned this morning. Four men, and possibly five, rooming in the upper portion of the building were suffocated, and between 20 and 30 horses met death in the same way. The names of the dead men could not be learned. A number of other roomers had narrow escapes. It is not known how the fire originated. The financial loss is $20,000. Insurance half that.

CLASS SPECKELS WILL CONTINUE WAR ON THE SUGAR TRUST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Rosy-faced, smiling and bright, Claus Speckels, the sugar king, just returned from Europe, where all summer long he has been visiting relatives in Holland, his native health, loomed up at the Hoffman house yesterday, en route for home.

"How did you enjoy your trip abroad?" was asked. "It was delightful," said the sugar king. "The general condition in Europe is such that I don't see how sensible men can take any stock in war scares."

"What is your opinion of the rate of taxation on sugar?" I asked. "It is entirely too high," responded Mr. Speckels, emphatically. "I like the case of the sugar output for the Hawaiian Islands, the tariff of 4 cents per pound has the effect of placing an absolute embargo on the sugar grown on these islands so far as the United States is concerned. I have abandoned raising cane on my Hawaiian plantations."

"Are you going into the sugar trust?" was asked. "I am not. The trust tried to get its feet on my neck and I have succeeded in returning the compliment. I lost money on the war, so says the trust, but I am willing to lose money for the sake of getting even."

To Boom the Fair. HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 9.—Governor Pattison today issued a proclamation calling upon citizens of the State to prepare for furnishing their full proportion to the interest, value and financial prosperity of the Columbian exposition at Chicago.

ROYAL ANNIVERSARIES

Prince of Wales Fifty Years Old.

THE CZAR'S SILVER WEDDING.

The First Event Being Celebrated With Local Enthusiasm in London, the Second in a Quiet Manner at Livid.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The fiftieth birthday of the Prince of Wales is being celebrated with local enthusiasm. It is said that ever since early morning messages have been pouring into Sandringham with gifts, those from the German Kaiser and Prince Henry alone amounting in value to $100,000 marks. This munificence would seem to dispose of any rumor of coldness between the Kaiser and the Prince of Wales and contrasts with Wilhelm's treatment of the Czar and Zarina on the occasion of their silver wedding today.

The fact that the Prince of Wales did not accompany the family party at Fredericksburg this autumn, may, it is thought, have tended to make the Kaiser think more of him. The city fathers of London are celebrating at the Guildhall in honor of the occasion, an event part of Great Britain there is some recognition of the day.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—A dispatch from Livid says that the silver wedding of the Czar is being celebrated without much display. The gathering is but little more than a family party. There are several reasons for this. The Russian famine is understood to be the chief one, both the Czar and Zarina being deeply touched by the sufferings of their subjects. Another reason is the helplessness of the Czar's second son, the Grand Duke George, of whose recovery there is absolutely no expectation.

The Czar and Zarina are deeply plunged in grief over this prospective bereavement, and it is to be near their son as long as possible that they choose Livid as the place to celebrate their silver wedding. George has been ill more or less nearly a year. He started on the tour of the east with his brother, the Czarovitch, and had to return to India, owing to failing health. Since then every care possible has been bestowed upon him but he has continued to decline.

Another reason is the recent death of the Grand Duchess Alexandra. The Archbishop of Odessa officiates today at the religious part of the celebration, which according to the official forms of the Russian church is virtually a repetition of the marriage ceremony. The Czar is in receipt of many presents including the splendid silver pilgrim bottles from which the Prince and Princess of Wales, the royal family of Denmark and the Duke of Cumberland.

A Patient Eating His Own Food.

SHERBURY, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Magie Dennigher, the young woman who began a dog meat diet last Thursday for the cure of consumption, says she rather likes it. She says it tastes like lamb. Many cases are cited by the older citizens, in which a permanent cure of consumption has been effected by drinking the broth of dog meat and eating the flesh of dogs.

It is said that one, George Goodrich, was cured in this way. It is certain that he recovered and lived to be 87 years old and died finally of infirmities incident to old age. It was said that Dr. John Kennedy, then a prominent physician, who was treating him, prescribed the remedy, but the doctor denied it.

Boarder in the Supreme Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Argument on the temporary writ of prohibition restraining Superior Judge Wallace from further proceeding in the Bruner case began in the Supreme court this morning. The Superior court, by its attorney, filed a demurrer to Bruner's petition, and Attorney Rhodes asked for further time in which to prepare arguments. It was agreed to continue the case until Monday morning at Sacramento. The returns of the respondent, Wallace, filed a demurrer on Wednesday. The Williams and Bamberger and Kemper cases were continued in Judge Wallace's court until after the supreme court hearing in the Bruner matter.

ROME, Nov. 6.—Baron Fava, the Italian minister to the United States who has been absent from his post of duty on leave for some time owing to a controversy between the Italian and the United States governments on account of the New Orleans affair, has been promoted to the rank of plenipotentiary of the first class.

A very peculiar disease is killing off all the cats in Kanga.

"The North" makes the following description of a poor board auction in Jemtland: A dark room is full of tall, cold-blooded, business-like farmers. Not a single face betraying sympathy at least not among the "speculators." On a bench at the board were sitting the "goods" however, did not look as if he could save much wood, and still he was to be taken care of a whole year for only $18.20. And what care do you suppose he will receive? He is to live and sleep in a room in the stable, separated from the cattle only by a thin partition, and his food is of such a nature that nobody else would eat it.

NORWAY.

CHRISTIANIA, Oct. 30.—The temnings are now on a periodical migration, and in the eastern part of the country they have never been so thick since 1860. Thousands of them are drowned in lakes and rivers, but it helps very little, and in some localities the roots of the grass are devoured by the hungry rodents.

The water of the Maridal lake from which Christiania gets its water supply is tainted by bacteria to such an extent as to endanger the health of the consumers.

Knut Hansson, who has spent several years in the United States, is lecturing on the modern literature of Norway. He criticizes Ibsen, Bjornson, Kielland and Lie, very severely. Ibsen, however, is most taken to task.

The city of Moss, heretofore a Conservative stronghold, has chosen a Liberal majority on the result was greeted with great demonstrations.

Of 74 members elected to the Storting on Oct. 14, 52 voted solidly with the Left, 12 are classed as Moderates and 10 belong to the Right. There being 114 members in all, the Left has a plurality over each one of the two other groups, but as these will join issues to defeat the ministry, an absolute majority is necessary. The prospect of this is not very promising, the Right having heretofore controlled 37 out of the 40 members yet to be elected. Of important elections still remaining those of Christiania city and the Christians district excite most interest. Great efforts are made by both parties to carry the capital city. The probability, however, is in favor of a Conservative victory. From the Liberals came very near carrying the day. The electoral list of the Conservatives being only 10 votes ahead.

Dublin Police Believe the Clan-Na-Gaels Are Active Again.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—The police appear to be acting on special information to the effect that the Clan-Na-Gael in America is again active and that the members of that society have prepared for a resumption of the physical force policy. Whatever may be the ground for the sudden and evident excess of vigilance on the part of the police, there is no doubt that the police themselves placed confidence in their source of information and that they are on the lookout for dangerous arrivals.

It is acknowledged by leading home-ruled that the "Hillside" or physical force doctrine, has a powerful following in Ireland but a few days ago, John Dillon said in substance that the "Hillside" with him was secondary to the present constitutional agitation, that before taking to the "Hillside" he believed in giving the Liberals a chance to show what they would do for home rule. Dillon, it is argued, would not have spoken in this way if he had not appreciated the strength of the "Hillside" sentiment.

A physical force movement, involving the employment of troops to suppress it, is what the Tories are anxious for. It is understood, however, here that the home rule leaders of either faction have little or no influence over the Clan-na-Gael and nobody would be surprised to hear of some signal and memorable act of violence by the emissaries of that sect.
