

THE GAZETTE.

See announcements this issue.

The many friends of O. E. Farnsworth desire that he should allow his name to be used for re-election as councilman.

At the suggestion of friends, W. Von Cadow has almost decided to allow his name to be used as a candidate for representative.

Among the proposed candidates for county judge on the republican side of the house, the Gazette hears presented the name of J. H. Jones, of Eight Mile.

The Oregonian has moved into its new building, which is the finest of the kind west of the Rocky mountains, and rarely excelled anywhere. It is printed from new type on a new perfecting press.

The republicans are talking up N. R. McVey and The Large for sheriff. Both are good men. The nominees for sheriff and clerk on the democratic ticket will doubtless be the present incumbents, Geo. Noble and J. W. Morrow. No republican aspirant for the office of clerk has yet appeared.

The Gazette bears rumors that Mr. Frank Kellogg will allow his name used in connection with the mayoralty. Hon. Henry Blackman is also spoken of in that connection, but we are advised that Mr. Blackman is not a candidate. Hon. T. J. Matlock is being suggested by his many friends as a candidate for re-election to that office.

Eastern Oregonians of both parties expect to stand solid for the nomination of Eastern Oregon men. Ellis, on the republican side of the house, is the favorite, and will doubtless receive the nomination. The democrats are equally anxious to select a man from Eastern Oregon, and though several are mentioned as good material, no one has been considered sure of the nomination.

Some of the state press are saying that the state board of equalization have accomplished nothing. In this they are surely mistaken. It is a step forward where the rich man is called upon to pay his just proportion of the taxes. The Oregonian leads the list in making strong protests against the work of the board. According to figures given us by Hon. Wm. Hughes, a member of the board, that paper has no just room for complaint—personally, at any rate. Their new building cost $600,000 of which but $200,000 is borrowed capital. However, it is assessed at but $60,000, so that great paper pays but little or no taxes.

OUR HOOK AND LADDER.

What it consists of, and the itemized cost of the same. Mr. A. G. Long, of the Portland firm of Long & Scott, representing the Waterloo Engine Works Company, of St. Paul, Minn., at the special meeting of the town council last Tuesday evening, sold to that body the following apparatus and appurtenances, at a total cost of $1039.

One Waterloo Aerial Hook and Ladder truck, equipped as follows: One 40-foot extension ladder with double, screw-power, elevating apparatus; one 20-foot single ladder; one 18-foot single ladder; one 16-foot single ladder; one 16-foot roof ladder with hooks; four pike poles; ten tubs or fire buckets; four fire axes with pick-heads; two firemen's lanterns, with shields, mackle plates; one 10-inch, automatic gong; two pull-down hooks with chain and rope; drag rope and reel; one 18-inch trumpet, chased and plated; bell and mouth-piece gong lined. All delivered, freight prepaid at Heppner, Or., for $675.

In addition they have purchased four 6-gallon, improved Babcock fire extinguishers, polished copper, with six sets of charges each, all fitted to truck, @ $58 each, or at a total cost of $232.

Also six dozen rubber, fire buckets, flexible, with stiffened bottoms, best quality, painted, @ $22 per doz., or at a total cost of $132. All to be delivered at Heppner, freight prepaid, and the lettering on hook and ladder truck and inscription on trumpet to be "Heppner Hook & Ladder Co., No. 1."

If there is any doubt on the part of our citizens as to the value of the above apparatus, the following letter to Otis Patterson, of this paper, from Hon. W. T. Wright, a citizen of Union, Or., should set it all to rest:

Union, Oregon, Jan. 15, 1892. Otis Patterson, Esq., Heppner, Or. Dear Sir: Replying to your telegram of this date. Our city has just purchased through Long & Scott, a Waterloo H. & L. truck (40-foot aerial) and have had it in use by the fire department for about three months. It has more than filled our expectations and we are entirely satisfied with it. If your council should decide to purchase a truck, I think you can do no better than to place your order for a Waterloo Aerial.

Respectfully Yours, W. T. Wright, Mayor.

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY.

This is a patent medicine advertisement, but your attention one moment may save you much suffering as well as money. We cure that cough. We cure that tickling. We cure that hacking. We cure that throat clearing. We cure Croup. We cure Bronchitis. We cure that La Grippe Cough. We help you to sing and speak. We are not this S. B. Lozenges. We are a pleasant Cough Syrup. We are put up in 50 and 100-cent bottles. We are the S. B. Cough Cure. Guaranteed by Slocum Johnston Drug Co. 61-65.

From lack of space we can say but little of the splendid leap-year dance which was given at the opera house last evening. It was a most pleasant affair throughout—the event of the season. Full particulars will be given in our next issue.

A LOS ANGELES LADY.

Gives Her Unpleasant Opinion of the California Doctors in an Uncomplimentary Manner, and Speaks in Highest Praise of Dr. Darrin.

From the Oregonian.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1, '92. Mr. Drs. Darrin—Your treatment of my complicated female trouble is a perfect success. My health is completely restored, I wish all the miserable women in Portland could know just what you have done for me. I feel almost as though my old body had passed away, and I can never thank you enough for the new one you gave me. I think a few of the doctors here ought to be adjudged insane. Their ever-cooing failures, where your electric and skillful medical treatment cures—is disgusting. Refer anyone to me. Yours thankfully, Mrs. G. K. ROCKWELL.

Dr. Darrin's Low Charges.

Owing to the "hard times," Dr. Darrin will in future give Electric treatment for $5 a week, or in that proportion as cases may require. The rich and poor alike, free of charge, at 705 1/2 Washington street, Portland, Or., from 10 to 11 a. m. daily. Those willing to pay, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m.; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable, chronic, acute, private and wasting diseases, including stricture, hydrocele and varicocele, treated successfully at Dr. Darrin's office. All surgical operations skillfully performed. Consultation strictly confidential. Send for question blank and circular.

THE GRAND ARMY BOYS.

They Participate in a Campfire at Lexington and Have a Jolly Good Time.

One of the most enjoyable social events ever participated in in Morrow county and perhaps the most successful one held in Lexington by Rawlins Post, occurred on the afternoon and evening of Thursday last. The weather being fine and the roads good, a number of Grand Army comrades and their friends were present from Heppner, Hardman, Eight Mile, Douglas and other points. In a convenient vacant building on Main street a long table was placed, upon which were tastefully arranged by members of the Woman's Relief Corps and other ladies beautiful quantities of refreshments known to the culinary art. About 4.30 p. m. the banquet hall was thrown open to the hungry crowd who had been eagerly waiting to sample the tempting and palatable viands and hot coffee, served by the ladies.

The literary exercises, etc., commenced at 7 p. m. in Peiland Hall, which was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting, evergreens and portraits of heroes of the civil war.

The addresses by Rev. George Ferguson, of Arlington, and Hon. W. R. Ellis, of Heppner, were not only able but humorous, and brought forth frequent rounds of applause from the large assemblage.

Following is the program, in which the participants acquitted themselves with credit, justly meriting the hearty applause that followed the rendition of each number: National Hymn—Choir. Prayer—Rev. Geo. Ferguson. Music—Choir. Address of welcome—Miss Myrtle Brown. Music—Choir. Response to address of welcome—D. C. Rip. Music—Choir. Public installation of newly elected officers of Rawlins Post, No. 103, of Lexington, of Arlington. Recitation, "The Campfire"—Chas. A. Johnson. Address—Rev. Geo. Ferguson. Song—"The Old Grand Army Boy"—Miss Myrtle Brown. Music—Choir. Recitation, "The Old Grand Army Boy"—Miss Myrtle Brown. Music—Choir. Recitation, "The Old Knapsack"—Miss Lulu Boothby. Music—Choir. Recitation, "A Foot"—Lawrence Palmer. Music—Choir. Song, "The Bonny Blue Flag"—J. W. White. Song, reply to "The Bonny Blue Flag"—Miss Myrtle Brown. Recitation, "Glory to the Stars and Stripes"—H. Johnston. Music—Choir. Recitation, "What is the Condition of Those Men Today?"—Yours although. Song, "The Golden Gate"—Misses Ieta and Mollie Ely, Rev. Geo. Ferguson and George Ely. After the regular program was carried out, impromptu speeches were made, reminiscences of army life recalled, numerous laughable stories told and merry battle songs sung by the old soldiers, who, for the time, apparently felt "as young as they used to be."

This gathering will long be remembered as one of the most spirited and enjoyable campfires in the annals of Rawlins Post.

THE BANQUET.

From the Portland World. We are sorry to have erred in our last issue, in referring to a banquet given in this city on last Friday evening, by terming it a democratic gathering. We therefore apologize to all good democrats, being of the same political faith ourselves, for having so grossly misrepresented them. From the nature of the entertainment, the manner of its getting up, and other semi-comic phases, it was anything but democratic.

Simplicity was the motto of Thomas Jefferson, and that sentiment is embodied in the true spirit of democracy; and any other false ideas do not reflect the principles of that party.

A body of men are at perfect liberty to assemble where and when they choose, and to raise the standard of admission to any figure that suits their purpose, but when doing this, they cannot sail under the colors of a great political party believing that the party approves of such a course. If they take the flattering unctious to their souls, they have more faith in the credulity of the voter than most of us have.

The democratic masses, we can safely assert, while looking for leaders who will lead them on to victory in November next, will hardly turn to the clinking of glasses, the bounteous spread tables, or the wearers of kid gloves, high standing collars, and elegantly polished boots. They want men, clear-sighted, open-faced, fearless men; men who will stand out boldly and fight for their interests, and who are freed from the contaminating fogs of star chamber councils, and the fumes of political job-shops.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tescoot are keepers of the Gov. lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Slocum Johnston Drug Co.

Poison in the Kitchen.

No article entering so generally into the food of every household is so generally and villainously adulterated as baking powder. These adulterated powders are shoved upon the public with the greatest persistency.

Throbbing advertisements in newspapers claiming this brand or that is absolutely pure, backed by analyses and certificates, and yet they are adulterated with ammonia or alum. It is to be hoped the law will take hold of these merciless manufacturers and punish them for destroying the stomachs of the unsuspecting consumer.

Amid all this fraud and deceit Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder stands almost alone battling for pure food and continues to furnish a pure cream of tartar powder at almost the same cost to the people as the ammonia and alum powders are sold at, yet it costs much more to manufacture.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is of the highest strength. It produces the largest amount of leavening power attainable in a pure baking powder. It is free from ammonia or any other adulteration. No powder does such work. Housewives who have tested all use Dr. Price's only.

ARLINGTON DOINGS.

Dr. Geisenhofer has gone to Portland. Ralph Solis, baggage master, returned from his vacation Tuesday.

Phil Heppner, who has been sick so long in Portland, is expected home shortly.

Boys and girls, both big and little, had a splendid time on the Columbia last week skating by moonlight.

Cato Jones, formerly of this burg, came up from Portland Saturday morning and went to Heppner in the afternoon.

Charley Brown, of Condon, whose leg was broken some time ago, had the misfortune to fall and re-open the wound.

Dr. Molitor, of La Grande, came up from Portland on No. 2 Saturday and stayed in town until the arrival of No. 8.

The town was without water Sunday owing to a breakage in the pump, but thanks to the exertions of Mr. Powers and his able assistant, Laymon, who worked 24 hours without stopping, the damage was repaired and everything in running order by Monday morning.

UPPER IDEA CREEK.

It has been very warm and pleasant. Miss Nettie Cople is on the sick list. It is reported that Luther Hamilton has been sick.

Jack McKenzie is hauling wood down to Mr. Leathman's.

We have about four inches of snow and it is snowing tonight.

Mr. Cople's are living on Mr. John Zollinger's place, this winter.

Geo. Baird made a flying trip up to our part of the country last week.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Gosney are on the sick list.

David Baird is stopping with his daughter Mrs. B. F. Hevland for a few days.

Mr. B. F. Hevland is hauling wood down to the forks of the creek this week.

Mr. Luther Hamilton is still hauling hay from his ranch over to their mill on Willow creek.

I heard that Mr. Leander Cople came very near getting hurt the other day hunting.

NEBO.

E. M. Stevens, an old and popular railroad conductor, but now a knight of the road, representing Mason, Ehrman & Co., of Portland, was in town yesterday.
