

THE DEAD CARDINAL.

Funeral Services Over Manning's Body.

THE QUEEN WAS REPRESENTED.

Many Notables and Ambassadors of Foreign Nations Present Bishop Headley in His Sermons Says No One in English Catholicism Has Visited.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The funeral services over the remains of Cardinal Manning were held in Repton church today. Admission to the church was by ticket only, for it would have been utterly impossible for the structure to contain a hundredth part of the vast crowd desiring to attend.

Notwithstanding the insupportable conditions prevailing a crowd gathered in the vicinity of the church at an early hour. It was composed largely of workmen and their families and on every side could be heard expressions of love for the dead prelate.

So dense was the crowd and so thick the fog that traffic in the vicinity of the church was brought to a standstill. When the solemn requiem mass commenced the oratory was by ticket only, for it would have been utterly impossible for the structure to contain a hundredth part of the vast crowd desiring to attend.

Blishop Headley, of Newport and Manchester, preached the funeral sermon. He opened his remarks with a touching tribute to the late Duke of Clarence and Avondale. He said an era closed in the history of Catholicism in England with the death of Cardinal Manning and a new one opened. He made a special reference to the Cardinal's efforts to secure a Catholic education for children and declared this struggle not over yet.

The music throughout the services was splendidly rendered. Among those present were the Duke of Norfolk, Marquis Ripon, Marquis Bute, Lord Howard, Lord Curzon, Lord Salisbury, William O'Brien, John Dillon and Thomas Sturges. At the conclusion of the service the body was taken to Repton church, whence it was transported and was followed by over three hundred carriages containing many notable people, after which marched a large number of workmen's societies.

The Government May Bring Suit for Illegal Operations. CONNOR, Ill., Jan. 21.—A crisis exists in the affairs of the whiskey trust. The stock of the Cattle Feeding and Distilling Company has gone down because of the hostile attitude of the government. Said President Connor today: "Orders have been sent from the attorney general's office at Washington to all the district attorneys of the United States to investigate and bring suit against us if the proof is sufficient. The government has had special agents in Boston, New York and other Eastern cities gathering evidence against us and I understand they claim they have something starting to present in way of proof that we are operating in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law."

Garza May Give Himself Up to United States Troops. ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 21.—General Mayberry has just returned from the Rio Grande. He called on Garza's lawyer-in-law and urged him to use his influence to have Garza surrender to the United States troops. The old man promised he would. General Mayberry argued that if he surrenders to American troops this government can guarantee that he will be treated in accordance with the laws of war and turned over to Mexico but that if he does not surrender he will be captured within ten days.

Garza's wife, General Mayberry says, is quite pretty and of high social appearance. She seems very proud of her husband, who evidently has impressed her with the notion that he will eventually be the ruler of Mexico. The young wife does not doubt her husband's genius was undoubtedly traced to Corpus Christi last week and it is barely possible that he may have been in San Antonio, though General Mayberry doubts it.

The great majority of the people near the Rio Grande are in sympathy with him. Garza keeps his men well watered in spirits of not over 20 or 25, so that General Mayberry thinks it is not likely that they can be forced together for a general engagement of much consequence.

Chasing Garza. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 15.—The military department officials here are in receipt of information giving the details of the scouting troops against Garza. A number of old camps were found between Los Olivos and Hondo and others in parts of Bexar county. They were evidently occupied by Garza's men but the people in the neighborhood refuse to answer any questions. The people will not talk either through fear or because in reality they are sympathizers of Garza.

Debates the Lottery. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 21.—The editor of the Daily States, a Roman Catholic paper, bitterly attacks Cardinal Gibbons for his recalcitrance against the Louisiana lottery, and Archbishop Delmas, of this diocese, for approving the lottery.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 21.—United States Senator Giles Gibson, appointed by Governor Jackson to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Wilson, was elected today.

Revolt Suspected. TANQUERAY, Jan. 21.—The rebel army in the vicinity of this city is subsiding, owing to the receipt of news by the rebels that the objectionable government had been removed by the Sultan.

Quay Now Wants Damages From the Pittsburgh Post.

Attorneys of European Royal Families Attend Memorial Services Today in Their Respective Capitals—Masses of Floral Emblems.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Brief services were held at the Parish Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields today over the remains of the Duke of Clarence. At their conclusion the casket was placed upon a gun carriage and escorted by a battery of artillery and the people of the village to the railway station, where a train was taken for London. The remains were accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales and family. All government and many private buildings of London had their blinds down and flags were at half mast in accordance with the request of the lord mayor. A large number of factories, shops, etc., were closed up for the day.

At Windsor the weather is cold and dreary. Shops are closed and their fronts are draped in black. All trains arriving there bring wreaths on the roof of the carriage. There is almost a countless number of these floral offerings. They were taken to Albert Memorial chapel.

Services in memory of the Duke of Clarence are held today in all European capitals and were attended by members of the royal families.

The coffin was taken on the shoulders of men from the Tenth Hussars. It was wrapped in a silver and gold cloth and was sent by the Queen. As the detachment of soldiers bearing the coffin walked slowly along the platform, the signal was given to a party of Life Guards on the roof of the carriage to fire a salute. An immediate boom of minute guns could be heard. At the same time the roll of drums from the massed bands swelled out upon the air and the procession began to move.

The life guards had the right of line and were followed by the bands, which played funeral marches. A detachment of the Tenth Hussars and horse artillery were immediately preceded by the gun carriage, on which the remains had been placed. On either side of the gun carriage walked a guard of officers of the Tenth Hussars.

The charger which had been ridden by the Duke of Clarence, saddled and bridled with the boots of his own over in the stirrups, was led directly after the gun carriage.

The royal mourners came next led by the Prince of Wales, Prince George of Wales and the Duke of Fife. Next came the Duke of Connaught, Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Christian, Prince Henry of Battenberg and Marquis Lorne.

Then followed the Grand Duke Alexis, representing the Car of Russia, Prince Albert Schlegel-Holstein, crown prince of Denmark, Duke of Oporto, brother of the king of Portugal, Prince Frederick Leopold of Hessen, Duke of Teck, between Prince Ernest of Leiningen and Prince Edward Saxe-Weimar. Then followed three princes of Teck, sons of Duke of Teck; Duke of Wurttemberg and Prince Philip of the Netherlands.

Hymns were chanted by the choir and the dean read the lesson. The Bishop of Rochester read the concluding prayers. In consonance with custom the choir gave the Kyrie eleison, which was sung by the choir and the organ.

It was estimated the largest losses are Schneider, Campbell and Co., $2,000,000; Brentano Bros., $1,000,000; Louis Rheinm, $300,000; C. E. Bently and Jones, $50,000; Samuel Green & Co., $50,000; Tiffany & Co., jewelers, will also lose something. The six-story building owned by Schneider, Campbell & Co. burned here on Monday at 1 o'clock the fire spread to the Lincoln building. The magnificent new edifices were just completed.

Interest Received in the Grand Army Confederate Flag Incident. ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 21.—Captain John Palmer, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will attend the State encampment in Augusta on the 26th. Thence he will come to Atlanta, where he will deliver a stirring address to the Georgia Grand Army men who marched in the Grand Army of the Republic because the Confederate flag was carried by the confederate veterans' association. He will be given an opportunity to inspect the flag when he arrives.

RATHER INCONSISTENT. Anarchists Claim the Protection of the Constitution. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—The cases of Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab, the Chicago anarchists convicted of conspiracy in the Haymarket riots and now confined in the Joliet penitentiary under life sentences, came up in the United States supreme court today for argument. Salvo for the prisoners, maintained that the men who were present when the State supreme court pronounced the death sentence were deprived of the due process of law contrary to the provisions of the constitution of the United States.

The Journey Home. FRENCO, Cal., Jan. 21.—The train carrying home the delegates to the recent convention of the International League of Press Clubs at San Francisco arrived here this morning and after breakfast several hours were pleasantly occupied in driving through the great San Joaquin valley inspecting the fruit orchards, vineyards and wine making factories. The train leaves this evening for Los Angeles.

Editorial Turn in N.Y. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 21.—A special branch from the California delegation sent to Cincinnati to consult with the executive committee of the national editorial association announces that the committee has decided to hold the next convention of the association in San Francisco on May 1. There will be fully 800 delegates to the convention.

Quay Now Wants Damages From the Pittsburgh Post.

Attorneys of European Royal Families Attend Memorial Services Today in Their Respective Capitals—Masses of Floral Emblems.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Brief services were held at the Parish Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields today over the remains of the Duke of Clarence. At their conclusion the casket was placed upon a gun carriage and escorted by a battery of artillery and the people of the village to the railway station, where a train was taken for London. The remains were accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales and family. All government and many private buildings of London had their blinds down and flags were at half mast in accordance with the request of the lord mayor. A large number of factories, shops, etc., were closed up for the day.

At Windsor the weather is cold and dreary. Shops are closed and their fronts are draped in black. All trains arriving there bring wreaths on the roof of the carriage. There is almost a countless number of these floral offerings. They were taken to Albert Memorial chapel.

Services in memory of the Duke of Clarence are held today in all European capitals and were attended by members of the royal families.

The coffin was taken on the shoulders of men from the Tenth Hussars. It was wrapped in a silver and gold cloth and was sent by the Queen. As the detachment of soldiers bearing the coffin walked slowly along the platform, the signal was given to a party of Life Guards on the roof of the carriage to fire a salute. An immediate boom of minute guns could be heard. At the same time the roll of drums from the massed bands swelled out upon the air and the procession began to move.

The life guards had the right of line and were followed by the bands, which played funeral marches. A detachment of the Tenth Hussars and horse artillery were immediately preceded by the gun carriage, on which the remains had been placed. On either side of the gun carriage walked a guard of officers of the Tenth Hussars.

The charger which had been ridden by the Duke of Clarence, saddled and bridled with the boots of his own over in the stirrups, was led directly after the gun carriage.

The royal mourners came next led by the Prince of Wales, Prince George of Wales and the Duke of Fife. Next came the Duke of Connaught, Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Christian, Prince Henry of Battenberg and Marquis Lorne.

Then followed the Grand Duke Alexis, representing the Car of Russia, Prince Albert Schlegel-Holstein, crown prince of Denmark, Duke of Oporto, brother of the king of Portugal, Prince Frederick Leopold of Hessen, Duke of Teck, between Prince Ernest of Leiningen and Prince Edward Saxe-Weimar. Then followed three princes of Teck, sons of Duke of Teck; Duke of Wurttemberg and Prince Philip of the Netherlands.

Hymns were chanted by the choir and the dean read the lesson. The Bishop of Rochester read the concluding prayers. In consonance with custom the choir gave the Kyrie eleison, which was sung by the choir and the organ.

It was estimated the largest losses are Schneider, Campbell and Co., $2,000,000; Brentano Bros., $1,000,000; Louis Rheinm, $300,000; C. E. Bently and Jones, $50,000; Samuel Green & Co., $50,000; Tiffany & Co., jewelers, will also lose something. The six-story building owned by Schneider, Campbell & Co. burned here on Monday at 1 o'clock the fire spread to the Lincoln building. The magnificent new edifices were just completed.

Interest Received in the Grand Army Confederate Flag Incident. ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 21.—Captain John Palmer, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will attend the State encampment in Augusta on the 26th. Thence he will come to Atlanta, where he will deliver a stirring address to the Georgia Grand Army men who marched in the Grand Army of the Republic because the Confederate flag was carried by the confederate veterans' association. He will be given an opportunity to inspect the flag when he arrives.

RATHER INCONSISTENT. Anarchists Claim the Protection of the Constitution. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—The cases of Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab, the Chicago anarchists convicted of conspiracy in the Haymarket riots and now confined in the Joliet penitentiary under life sentences, came up in the United States supreme court today for argument. Salvo for the prisoners, maintained that the men who were present when the State supreme court pronounced the death sentence were deprived of the due process of law contrary to the provisions of the constitution of the United States.

The Journey Home. FRENCO, Cal., Jan. 21.—The train carrying home the delegates to the recent convention of the International League of Press Clubs at San Francisco arrived here this morning and after breakfast several hours were pleasantly occupied in driving through the great San Joaquin valley inspecting the fruit orchards, vineyards and wine making factories. The train leaves this evening for Los Angeles.

Editorial Turn in N.Y. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 21.—A special branch from the California delegation sent to Cincinnati to consult with the executive committee of the national editorial association announces that the committee has decided to hold the next convention of the association in San Francisco on May 1. There will be fully 800 delegates to the convention.

Quay Now Wants Damages From the Pittsburgh Post.

Attorneys of European Royal Families Attend Memorial Services Today in Their Respective Capitals—Masses of Floral Emblems.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Brief services were held at the Parish Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields today over the remains of the Duke of Clarence. At their conclusion the casket was placed upon a gun carriage and escorted by a battery of artillery and the people of the village to the railway station, where a train was taken for London. The remains were accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales and family. All government and many private buildings of London had their blinds down and flags were at half mast in accordance with the request of the lord mayor. A large number of factories, shops, etc., were closed up for the day.

At Windsor the weather is cold and dreary. Shops are closed and their fronts are draped in black. All trains arriving there bring wreaths on the roof of the carriage. There is almost a countless number of these floral offerings. They were taken to Albert Memorial chapel.

Services in memory of the Duke of Clarence are held today in all European capitals and were attended by members of the royal families.

The coffin was taken on the shoulders of men from the Tenth Hussars. It was wrapped in a silver and gold cloth and was sent by the Queen. As the detachment of soldiers bearing the coffin walked slowly along the platform, the signal was given to a party of Life Guards on the roof of the carriage to fire a salute. An immediate boom of minute guns could be heard. At the same time the roll of drums from the massed bands swelled out upon the air and the procession began to move.

The life guards had the right of line and were followed by the bands, which played funeral marches. A detachment of the Tenth Hussars and horse artillery were immediately preceded by the gun carriage, on which the remains had been placed. On either side of the gun carriage walked a guard of officers of the Tenth Hussars.

The charger which had been ridden by the Duke of Clarence, saddled and bridled with the boots of his own over in the stirrups, was led directly after the gun carriage.

The royal mourners came next led by the Prince of Wales, Prince George of Wales and the Duke of Fife. Next came the Duke of Connaught, Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Christian, Prince Henry of Battenberg and Marquis Lorne.

Then followed the Grand Duke Alexis, representing the Car of Russia, Prince Albert Schlegel-Holstein, crown prince of Denmark, Duke of Oporto, brother of the king of Portugal, Prince Frederick Leopold of Hessen, Duke of Teck, between Prince Ernest of Leiningen and Prince Edward Saxe-Weimar. Then followed three princes of Teck, sons of Duke of Teck; Duke of Wurttemberg and Prince Philip of the Netherlands.

Hymns were chanted by the choir and the dean read the lesson. The Bishop of Rochester read the concluding prayers. In consonance with custom the choir gave the Kyrie eleison, which was sung by the choir and the organ.

It was estimated the largest losses are Schneider, Campbell and Co., $2,000,000; Brentano Bros., $1,000,000; Louis Rheinm, $300,000; C. E. Bently and Jones, $50,000; Samuel Green & Co., $50,000; Tiffany & Co., jewelers, will also lose something. The six-story building owned by Schneider, Campbell & Co. burned here on Monday at 1 o'clock the fire spread to the Lincoln building. The magnificent new edifices were just completed.

Interest Received in the Grand Army Confederate Flag Incident. ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 21.—Captain John Palmer, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will attend the State encampment in Augusta on the 26th. Thence he will come to Atlanta, where he will deliver a stirring address to the Georgia Grand Army men who marched in the Grand Army of the Republic because the Confederate flag was carried by the confederate veterans' association. He will be given an opportunity to inspect the flag when he arrives.

RATHER INCONSISTENT. Anarchists Claim the Protection of the Constitution. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—The cases of Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab, the Chicago anarchists convicted of conspiracy in the Haymarket riots and now confined in the Joliet penitentiary under life sentences, came up in the United States supreme court today for argument. Salvo for the prisoners, maintained that the men who were present when the State supreme court pronounced the death sentence were deprived of the due process of law contrary to the provisions of the constitution of the United States.

The Journey Home. FRENCO, Cal., Jan. 21.—The train carrying home the delegates to the recent convention of the International League of Press Clubs at San Francisco arrived here this morning and after breakfast several hours were pleasantly occupied in driving through the great San Joaquin valley inspecting the fruit orchards, vineyards and wine making factories. The train leaves this evening for Los Angeles.

Editorial Turn in N.Y. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 21.—A special branch from the California delegation sent to Cincinnati to consult with the executive committee of the national editorial association announces that the committee has decided to hold the next convention of the association in San Francisco on May 1. There will be fully 800 delegates to the convention.

Quay Now Wants Damages From the Pittsburgh Post.

Attorneys of European Royal Families Attend Memorial Services Today in Their Respective Capitals—Masses of Floral Emblems.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Brief services were held at the Parish Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields today over the remains of the Duke of Clarence. At their conclusion the casket was placed upon a gun carriage and escorted by a battery of artillery and the people of the village to the railway station, where a train was taken for London. The remains were accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales and family. All government and many private buildings of London had their blinds down and flags were at half mast in accordance with the request of the lord mayor. A large number of factories, shops, etc., were closed up for the day.

At Windsor the weather is cold and dreary. Shops are closed and their fronts are draped in black. All trains arriving there bring wreaths on the roof of the carriage. There is almost a countless number of these floral offerings. They were taken to Albert Memorial chapel.

Services in memory of the Duke of Clarence are held today in all European capitals and were attended by members of the royal families.

The coffin was taken on the shoulders of men from the Tenth Hussars. It was wrapped in a silver and gold cloth and was sent by the Queen. As the detachment of soldiers bearing the coffin walked slowly along the platform, the signal was given to a party of Life Guards on the roof of the carriage to fire a salute. An immediate boom of minute guns could be heard. At the same time the roll of drums from the massed bands swelled out upon the air and the procession began to move.

The life guards had the right of line and were followed by the bands, which played funeral marches. A detachment of the Tenth Hussars and horse artillery were immediately preceded by the gun carriage, on which the remains had been placed. On either side of the gun carriage walked a guard of officers of the Tenth Hussars.

The charger which had been ridden by the Duke of Clarence, saddled and bridled with the boots of his own over in the stirrups, was led directly after the gun carriage.

The royal mourners came next led by the Prince of Wales, Prince George of Wales and the Duke of Fife. Next came the Duke of Connaught, Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Christian, Prince Henry of Battenberg and Marquis Lorne.

Then followed the Grand Duke Alexis, representing the Car of Russia, Prince Albert Schlegel-Holstein, crown prince of Denmark, Duke of Oporto, brother of the king of Portugal, Prince Frederick Leopold of Hessen, Duke of Teck, between Prince Ernest of Leiningen and Prince Edward Saxe-Weimar. Then followed three princes of Teck, sons of Duke of Teck; Duke of Wurttemberg and Prince Philip of the Netherlands.

Hymns were chanted by the choir and the dean read the lesson. The Bishop of Rochester read the concluding prayers. In consonance with custom the choir gave the Kyrie eleison, which was sung by the choir and the organ.

It was estimated the largest losses are Schneider, Campbell and Co., $2,000,000; Brentano Bros., $1,000,000; Louis Rheinm, $300,000; C. E. Bently and Jones, $50,000; Samuel Green & Co., $50,000; Tiffany & Co., jewelers, will also lose something. The six-story building owned by Schneider, Campbell & Co. burned here on Monday at 1 o'clock the fire spread to the Lincoln building. The magnificent new edifices were just completed.

Interest Received in the Grand Army Confederate Flag Incident. ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 21.—Captain John Palmer, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will attend the State encampment in Augusta on the 26th. Thence he will come to Atlanta, where he will deliver a stirring address to the Georgia Grand Army men who marched in the Grand Army of the Republic because the Confederate flag was carried by the confederate veterans' association. He will be given an opportunity to inspect the flag when he arrives.

RATHER INCONSISTENT. Anarchists Claim the Protection of the Constitution. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—The cases of Samuel Fielden and Michael Schwab, the Chicago anarchists convicted of conspiracy in the Haymarket riots and now confined in the Joliet penitentiary under life sentences, came up in the United States supreme court today for argument. Salvo for the prisoners, maintained that the men who were present when the State supreme court pronounced the death sentence were deprived of the due process of law contrary to the provisions of the constitution of the United States.

The Journey Home. FRENCO, Cal., Jan. 21.—The train carrying home the delegates to the recent convention of the International League of Press Clubs at San Francisco arrived here this morning and after breakfast several hours were pleasantly occupied in driving through the great San Joaquin valley inspecting the fruit orchards, vineyards and wine making factories. The train leaves this evening for Los Angeles.

Editorial Turn in N.Y. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 21.—A special branch from the California delegation sent to Cincinnati to consult with the executive committee of the national editorial association announces that the committee has decided to hold the next convention of the association in San Francisco on May 1. There will be fully 800 delegates to the convention.

Perhaps You Don't Know Us, BUT I THINK YOU KNOW OF OUR REMEDIES.

It is well known that the first step in our Clinic, is to examine the patient, and then to prescribe the appropriate remedy. This is done by the use of our special instruments, and the results are usually very satisfactory. Our remedies are of a nature to cure the most stubborn cases of disease, and we have no equal in the world. Our remedies are of a nature to cure the most stubborn cases of disease, and we have no equal in the world. Our remedies are of a nature to cure the most stubborn cases of disease, and we have no equal in the world.

FERNOLINE SHEEP DIP. WHICH IS THE CHEAPEST DIP? A large advertisement for a sheep dip product, featuring a sheep and a person. It includes a list of prices and a description of the product's benefits.

HAMBURG TEA. Purifies the Blood, Cures Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Liver Complaints, Sick Headache, Colds, Pimples, all Skin Affections, and Obstructions Arising from a Disordered Stomach. A large advertisement for Hamburg Tea, featuring a teapot and a person.

The Pittsburg Lamp. It is one of the most improved lamps that can be used. It is a large advertisement for a lamp, featuring a lamp and a person.

STOCKRAISER. A large advertisement for a stock raiser, featuring a cow and a person.

Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream. A large advertisement for a cream, featuring a cucumber and a person.

Face Bleach. A large advertisement for a face bleach, featuring a person's face and a person.

McKinley Addresses Agriculturalists. A large advertisement for a speaker, featuring a person and a person.