It is ceiving the report of the board of olicers appointed by Captain Schley to investigate the affair, the Chilian government assumed, and was called upon for any facts in its possession that might tend to modify the unfavorable impressions which our report had created. It is very clear from the correspondence that before the receipt of this note the examination was regarded by the police authorities as practically closed. It was, however, reopened and protracted through a period of nearly three months. We might justly have complained of this unreasonable delay, but in view of the fact that the government of Chilia was still provisional, and with a disposition to be forbearing and hopeful of friendly termination, I have awaited the report which but recently has been made—on the 21st instant.

First—That the assault is not relieved of the aspect which early information of the event gave to it, viz: That the attack was upon the uniform of the United States navy, having its origin and motive in a feeling of hostility to this government, and not in any act of the sailors or any of them.

Second—That the public authorities of Valparaiso flagrantly failed in their duty to protect our men and that some of the police and of Chilian soldiers and sailors were themselves guilty of unprovoked assaults upon our sallors be.
