J. F. WILLIS.

FOR SHERIFF.

At the request of many friends, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of sheriff.

H. C. GAY.

FOR ASSESSOR.

Through the solicitation of friends, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of assessor, subject to the decision of the county democratic convention, Apr. 14, 1892.

J. J. ROBERTS.

FOR SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

T. C. Aubrey respectfully asks the people of the county for the superintendency.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

TYPHUS fever is creating considerable excitement in the East.

SOME parties are talking of planting the big island, opposite Coyote, in fruit.

"SANDY" OLDS is out, having served his time, lacking credits for good behavior.

The friends of Henry Scherzinger are talking him for county treasurer on the republican ticket.

The St. Louis meeting of alliance people have decided to hold their national convention on July 4, 1892.

SENATOR DOLIVER has introduced a bill to extend to settlers more time in the purchase of their railroad land.

SPEAKER REED's rulings during the last session of congress have been upheld by a recent decision of the supreme court.

VIRGIL to Heppner give it the reputation of being the liveliest town of its size in the Northwest. It is not over-boomed.

As we intimated in a recent issue, if Wm. Blair will consent to become a candidate for county judge, he will have a strong support.

In mentioning the raise of superintendents' salary recently, the Gazette stated it as $35 increased to $40. It should have been $30 to $40.

Our democratic office holders of Morrow county will, without doubt, all be nominated, if they so desire it. The party cannot do better.

The Chicago General Supply Company, for whom we have been advertising, have failed. Our readers will note the fact and keep their money at home.

A BILL has been introduced in congress allowing those qualified to take homestead proofs, to also take proofs on timber, stone and desert land.

AN ANTI-BILL convention is called by the dissenters for May 31, 1892 at Syracuse, N. Y. Hill is truly a wonderful man, but his methods will cost him the nomination for president.

By Hon. J. H. Riley does not accept the nomination on the democratic ticket for congressman, it is quite sure that he will be chosen by his party to succeed himself as joint senator from Union and Umatilla counties.

JIM HILL, with his Great Northern, will without doubt, take the Columbia somewhere in this section. In this event, it should be to Portland's interest, as to Eastern Oregon and Washington, to have an open river.

THOSE who know W. B. Gilbert, the recent appointee to the circuit judgeship, say that he is eminently qualified to serve in that high capacity. He has been associated for some time with Zera Snow in the practice of law at Portland, Oregon.

ACCORDING to the Oregonian, Ed. L. Huntley has recovered his $18,000 worth of diamonds, stolen recently in upper Washington. Huntley, in the opinion of many, never lost any diamonds, but he has worked the newspapers for a lot of free advertising.

ARLINGTON will shortly invite members of town councils, boards of trades, etc., from the counties of Morrow, Sherman, Klickitat and Gilliam to confer with them to organize a district board of trade for the purpose of inducing immigration and to bring about, as soon as possible, an "open river."

THE friends of W. R. Ellis consider his chances for nomination much brighter now than ever before. There is one thing sure, he is the choice of the Eastern Oregon republicans, if the majority may be allowed to select. The western part of the district will, without doubt, endorse the selection of Eastern Oregon.

SETTLERS can rest assured that something is being done for them in congress, for a bill has been introduced providing for the refunding of the $200 excess paid by many settlers in this section on the so-called railroad land, which is now forfeited to the government. The bill provides that the settler may take additional land instead of the money, if he desired. The only injustice in the matter, so far as we are able to note, is that the bill provides for the repayment to be made to the present owners and not the original holders of land. This should be corrected before the bill is allowed to become a law.

A Card.

To my friends who have desired me to be a candidate for nomination by the republicans of the seventh judicial district, for prosecuting attorney, and to others who may think that I will be such, I will say that I could not accept the nomination they tendered me for the coming campaign. I am not a candidate. Very Resp. Yours,

J. N. BROWN.

Heppner, Or., Mar. 3, '92.

POLITICAL TALK.

Riley Will be the Choice of the Democrats Under Certain Circumstances.

While over at Pendleton recently, we editor had some talk with both democrats and republicans on the congressional question. It is likely that the Umatilla county delegation of republicans will come down to the state convention for Eddy or Lesure, though Ellis has a sharp sprinkling of friends in that vicinity, who admire the good qualities that he possesses for a successful, and therefore desirable congressman. If no chicanery is practiced, Mr. Ellis will have a fair show of a few delegates from Umatilla, if not the second choice of the entire delegation.

Should the republicans of Eastern Oregon fail to agree on a man from their section, the nomination will likely go to the "valley," which, however, we do not consider likely. But in that event, the democrats will no doubt show their good sense by nominating Hon. J. H. Riley, of Pendleton, as their candidate for congress. Mr. Riley will make a hard race under those circumstances, and if not elected, will make the big republican majority in this district grow beautifully less.

This is plain talk, but it is all facts, nevertheless.

It is well-known that for years past Eastern Oregon has had little or no representation in congress. The representative went to the valley, and Portland carried off the senators term after term. We, bunchgrazers, have been fairly well contented, even with the hind feet, but the time is now at hand when we should not be satisfied with anything short of direct representation in the halls of congress.

There have been few complaints from this quarter in the past, realizing, too, that our senators and representative have done very little for the much-desired "open river." As far as the relations of the various sections are concerned, Portland and Eastern Oregon are on the best terms, but apparent self-interest has certainly caused much of Portland capital to place as many hindrances as possible to the early opening of the great Columbia to our farmers, stockmen, miners, merchants, etc. This is a short-sighted policy, as anyone can see.

People up here are so independent that party ties will not hold them when it comes to a contest between Mr. Riley of Eastern Oregon, and some valley republican. The former is a protection democrat; in other words, "not democratic enough to hurt," so far as our wool interests are concerned, and in addition is an "open river" man.

We learned enough while at Pendleton to conclude that should Ellis receive the nomination for congress, Mr. Riley, whom we deem to be the strongest democrat in the field, will not accept the nomination at the hands of his party. Strong as he is, on equal footing with a man like Hon. W. R. Ellis, otherwise than the strong republican majority against him, he would have little chance of success. But if it comes between a valley man and Mr. Riley, look for the far to fly.

Fanny Thompson.

The great American tragedienne has written the following note for the benefit of her sex. It should prove especially important when it is remembered that no class is so well informed on the subject of which she writes, as professional women:

New York, Aug. 11.—Mr. Windsor Dear Sir:—Your robelet was highly spoken of in San Francisco and a lady friend enclosed me to try it. It is very fine and is an excellent application for beautifying and whitening the face and hands. The robelet powder is delightful.

FANNY THOMPSON.

LETTER FROM GOOSEBERRY.

ED. GAZETTE.—Through a recent issue of your paper I notice that it is your purpose to devote some space to the farming interests of this part of Oregon. I am interested in farming in this country—in the growth and development of Morrow county, and thus desire to express my approval, in public, of your most worthy undertaking.

Now we might stop here, but I am too well acquainted with the principles which form the basis of any solid branch of business to think for a moment that a newspaper can exist, thrive and flourish without financial aid, any more than any other business. "Much obliged" is but a word of courtesy, but it is of a cheap character. It won't pay a printer's bills any more than it will buy a horse or a plow. Now, while we are none of us "flash," still we have enjoyed a season of prosperity and can invest a few dollars in an enterprise that will be of immeasurable value to us.

It is useless to recount the disadvantages under which our country has labored since its earliest settlement as a grain-farming country. Sparse settlement is the controlling power that makes or mars one's personal comfort.

The greatest evil that befalls our fair land is the inefficient means of education. Our common schools are fairly good, but might be improved under more thorough, systematic management. With the best school in the world, many of us would still be "perippled," for you will note in this thinly settled country many of us have to send children from two and a half to four miles. Should we foster an enterprise that is endeavoring to induce a healthy emigration to this land?

You, that have borne the yoke of distant or no schools at all, answer this: A dollar or two contributed to such a purpose will bring a bounteous return.

The printing house is the best avenue through which to reach better results, therefore let us not give grudgingly, but exercise the same liberality that is manifested in other business projects. In the course of events, by increased settlement, many advantages could be enjoyed that today to barely think of is extremely chimerical. Go into speculation for a moment. With every quarter well tilted this district would support a small town which would prove beneficial in countless ways.

The Best Baking Powder

AND MOST ECONOMICAL.

Is that of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. It is prepared with greater care and accuracy, from finer and more expensive materials, competent chemists test every ingredient nothing is left to chance. No ammonia, alum or other adulterant taints this purest of human food products. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the embodiment of all the excellence that it is possible to attain. It is always uniform and reliable and retains its full strength until used. It is not only more economical because of its wonderful raising power, but by reason of its greater bulk, the cans being much larger than the ordinary kind; it will go farther and do better work. It never disappoints. Dr. Price's is the only baking powder that contains the whites of eggs.

We might have stores, shops, telegraph or telephone and railway connection with the balance of the world. We might then enjoy social and religious privileges that we can not dream of now. We might have even improved mail facilities. At present, our means of communication is good, though a trifle slow. It takes, we read, 70 hours from Portland to Omaha, and it takes, we know, more than 70 hours from Heppner to Gooseberry. Why this delay in a land that boasts of its rapid transit and prompt public service?

This is no reflection on any of the immediate representatives, for they are all worthy gentlemen and are discharging their onerous duties creditably, but there surely is something rotten in "Denmark" when it takes mail longer to travel 21 miles than it does to travel 2,100 miles. It would take pages to recount the numerous benefits to be derived from a more complete settlement, and in view of that fact it becomes us to aid and abet every means that will reach such results. No better means at present is afforded than a liberal circulation of your paper containing a review of the farming interests of our locality. I propose to offer you, sir, a practical testimonial of my sincere approval. Enclosed you will find addresses for fifty copies, for which charge to my account, $2.50. If each one interested will contribute his mite, I am sure the good work will go on. There must be a need time or no harvest. Accept my contribution to your worthy endeavor.

Pardon me for intruding on your valuable space, and believe me, sir, Your Sincere Friend, A. PRACHTAL FARMER, Gooseberry, Or., March 7, 1892.

ARLINGTON NOTES.

Several of our citizens state that they felt a slight earthquake Monday morn.

O. S. Eli has an addition to his family. The judge is doing as well as can be expected.

The large steam shovel used for removing sand was compelled to lay over last Monday night.

George D. Fell was a passenger on Monday's train homeward bound after a short stay in Portland.

Attorney A. A. Jayne and L. O. Ralston were passengers on No. 1 Tuesday morning bound for Portland.

Two Danish boys, unable to speak a word of English, arrived Saturday, en route to Hans Tranter's at Bickleton.

Amongst the Morrow Co. visitors we noticed O. S. Van Duyn and wife, Geo. Mason, Frank Silas, N. A. Leach and wife, and J. C. Armstrong.

J. A. Barnett and C. Allsley, two Portland bagmen returned from the back country Monday last and were very much pleased with their trip.

We understand that the old warehouses on the north side of the depot will shortly be pulled down by the U. P., who intend building additional side tracks at this point.

Indian Jim, after four days in the city jail for being drunk was released Sunday for his gratification. He found the liquor in an empty saloon.

On the road, will be here in a day or two, 200 suits of the finest clothing ever brought to Heppner; tailor made; direct from the East. Now boys, look out for the correct thing in spring styles.
