EDITORIAL NOTES.
The old soldiers will hold their next encampment at Peulleton next year.
The Record came out yesterday with a six column, eight-page edition, half home print.
The Eight Mile people are talking Hon. Frank Snow, of Lexington, for representative and Mr. King, of Ione, for sheriff.
The report is being spread that the Regulator and Dalles City, as well as the new portage road, have been sold to the Union Pacific. There is no foundation whatever for such report.
ADVERTISERS will please note the fact that those who help the print shop usually get their money's worth in return, and more, too. Reciprocity, from a business point of view, is a practical thing, and is followed to the letter by the Gazette. However, space is like groceries, milk, dry goods, etc., the more of it and the cheaper you buy, the greater the cost. Each issue of the Gazette reaches more subscribers than the previous one, and who will say that this is not a point in favor of the advertiser? The more readers the better the service.
The American Protective Tariff League has just issued a new campaign Text Book for 1902. It is entitled "American Tariffs from 1793 to 1902." This little book of one hundred pages is perhaps the most complete and practical presentation of the benefits of protection and reciprocity yet printed and will be sent to any address for 10 cents. In ordering please say, "Send me No. 52." This is the catalogue number of the document. Address: Wilbur F. Wakeman, Gen'l Sec'y., No. 136 West 23rd St., New York.
AMINGTON has an active board of trade. Their circular, of which we acknowledge receipt, says: "We need an open river. We need cheaper freight rates. We need better roads. We need more recognition by the general government. We need a grist mill. We need better educational facilities. In a word, we need the country building up. To obtain all these, we need the co-operation of each and every man in Eastern Oregon. IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH." This is the Gazette's idea of the matter, and explains why we are making an extra effort to get the country's "best foot foremost."
Our former patrons are eager that their country shall have a showing, and are willing to help the newspaper that furnishes that sort of service. The Gazette is making moves in this direction at a great expense—something that has never been undertaken by any paper in the Northwest. We will have imitations—no end of them, till it becomes an established fact that it takes a cash outlay to represent the country, and that the returns, though they might be ever so liberal from a public point of view, will not ever balance the expenditure. But then, there are indirect benefits, and if the reward doesn't come here, we hope to get a small share of it in the next world, anyhow. But let that be as it may, every farmer in this county will have an opportunity to be heard. This will certainly induce a healthy emigration to help pay taxes and improve the country. And, too, these newcomers will help our business men. Don't you see, this is a world of reciprocity, and that the Gazette does not content itself with the hind test, even if it is a sugar one.

A VISIT TO DR. DARRIN.
From the Oregonian.
A visit to the office of Dr. Darrin is certainly a curiosity as well as a wonder. Patients are carried in one day, and after a week's time, instead of being carried there they walk in as sprightly as young boys. What there is about the Doctor is certainly mysterious, for he has performed most remarkable cures, and the testimonials we have heretofore published have proved. Any one afflicted, who has not visited this famous physician should not lose the opportunity to do so at once.
His offices are found at 70 1/2 Washington street, Portland. Office hours 10 to 5 daily; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. Consultation free and charges reasonable and at half their former prices. He makes a specialty of diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, and all nervous, chronic and private diseases, and will under no circumstances take a case he cannot cure or benefit. Cures of private diseases guaranteed and never published in the papers. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctor's office. Question blanks and circulars sent free. The following references Dr. Darrin cured by electricity proves the above remarks to be true:
E. D. Pierce, Albina, Or., deafness 15 years, cured.
S. F. Hoskinson, Fort Blakely, Wash., sciatic rheumatism, cured.
Joseph Leader, Taylor, Oregon, total deafness 6 years, cured.
L. M. Commons, Russell st., Albina, Or., sciatic rheumatism and lumbago, cured.
A. L. Richardson, 320 Front street, Portland, deafness 20 years and ringing noises in the head, restored.
Mrs. J. M. Dickey, Sheridan, Oregon, cured of a cancerous growth and scrofulous affection of the mouth and cheek.

Hot Griddle Cakes.
Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder possesses a peculiar merit not approached by that of any other baking powder. It produces the hot buckwheat, Indian or wheat cakes, hot biscuit, doughnuts, waffles or muffins. Any of these tasteful things may be eaten when hot with impunity by persons of the most delicate digestive organs. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder leavens without fermentation or decomposition. In its preparation none but the purest of cream of tartar, soda, etc. is used, and in such exact equivalents as to always guarantee a perfectly neutral result, thereby giving the natural and sweet flavor peculiar to buckwheat and other flour that may be used, the natural flavor so much desired and appreciated by all. The oldest patrons of Dr. Price's powder tell the story, that they can never get the same results from any other leavening agent, that their griddle cakes, biscuits, etc. are never so light and never taste so sweet or so good as when raised with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

BE PASSED UPON YOU? He said, "Gentlemen, please not, if I have violated your law, my life shall pay the forfeit, but when you in your writings my misdeeds relate speak of me as I am; then you must speak of one who over thirty-five years ago was needy and received care and attention from a widow. The widow kept a boarding house and maintained it by weaving rag carpet at four-cent a yard. She had a house full. Five other little boarders but she trusted in the loom.
"She was kind and good and motherly. The struggle for existence was a hard one and her boarders often wore patched garments but they were warm as the kind heart that furnished them. She has passed from the scene of looms, of privation and of suffering. She is just any aid or honor we can bestow on her unless it be to twine a flower of love around her memory.
"You may thus better see why I have a 'banker' for widow, and gentlemen you can do me no higher honor than to charge me with being friendly to widows and orphans. I am ready for the block"—off went his head.
"EVERY NOW AND THEN."
Hale's Ridge, Or. Mar. 8, '92.
