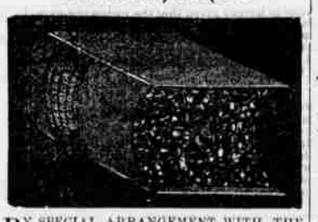
The Original
Webster's Unabridged
DICTIONARY.



BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE publishers, we are able to obtain a number of the above book, and propose to furnish a copy to each of our subscribers.
The dictionary is a necessity in every home, school and business house. It fills a vacancy, and furnishes knowledge which no one hundred other volumes of the choicest books could supply. Young and old, educated and ignorant, rich and poor, should have it within reach, and refer to its contents every day in the year.
As some have asked if this is really the Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, we are able to state we have learned direct from the publishers the fact, that this is the very work complete on which about forty of the best years of the author's life were so well employed in writing. It contains the entire vocabulary of about 100,000 words, including the correct spelling, derivation and definition of same, and is the regular standard size, containing about 300,000 square inches of printed surface, and is bound in cloth, half morocco and sheep.
Until further notice we will furnish this valuable Dictionary—
First—To any new subscriber.
Second—To any renewal subscriber.
Third—To any subscriber now in arrears who pays up and one year in advance, at the following prices, viz:
Full Cloth bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $1.00.
Half Morocco, bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $1.50.
Full Sheep bound, leather label, marbled edges, $2.00
Fifty cents added in all cases for expressage to Heppner.
☞ As the publishers limit the time and number of books they will furnish at the low prices, we advise all who desire to avail themselves of this great opportunity to attend to it at once.

ALLIANCE COLUMN

From the Alliance Herald.

The People, a paper published in New York, commenting on the grain prospect of India, says: "If the weather proves favorable, the probability, then, is in favor of an enormous over-production and lower prices than we have ever seen. This would mean ruin to every small farmer in the United States, instead of the wonderful prosperity which the New York Sun and the American Agriculturist so confidently, so kindly and so stupidly prognosticated a few weeks ago. Even the sub-treasury bill, if passed, free silver, if granted, and any amount of greenbackery could not save him." The People is a radical socialistic or monopolistic sheet—it is hard to tell which; but we are inclined to think it is the latter, and doing all in its power to cause dissention among those whom it claims as its friends. With a just and impartial government, over-production has no terrors. In this country no such condition has ever existed, and we do not think it is liable to come soon. In times of plenty, when properly distributed, hard times is an utter impossibility, and when we hear the cry of over-production causing such a condition of affairs we think the fool-killer has work yet to perform. Let us have laws that give special privileges to none, and we will be prosperous, but until such a change is made, whether we have bountiful harvests or not, want and misery will be felt on every hand.

No great movement was ever inaugurated that did not meet with bold and vigorous opposition. The fact that they assail us is a conclusion that the pending revolution is one of might and power; if it was a hopeless effort or insignificant boast, our enemies would treat it with silent contempt and we would sail over smooth seas and under smiling skies. But the grandeur, the potency and determined zeal of this great reform movement makes it recognized, acknowledged and feared by the powers that be. Plutocracy sees in it a hydra-headed foe that will defy its longer oppressions. Monopoly sees in it a factor that will no longer be a cipher, but an unit of full value, and will assert itself in the halls of government. The alliance is a fixed thing because it is founded on principles as immutable as truth, and neither time nor powers can crush it.

When farmer competes with farmer for a chance to sell products, and when wage-worker competes with wage-worker for an opportunity to sell his labor, capital is king. But when capital competes with capital to secure the products of the soil or the services of the wage-worker, labor will be king. Labor will never be freed from the tribute it now pays to monopoly until it learns to co-operate.

Members of the alliance of Union county are talking of organizing a stock company for the purpose of erecting a flouring mill to cost $22,500, with a capacity of 100 barrels per day. The value of shares will be fixed at $10 each, and the plant erected at La Grande, the city giving a bonus of 10 per cent. for that purpose. No person will be allowed to own more than 50 shares.

There was a terrible split in the St. Louis convention. Nothing like it was ever witnessed before. There were actually two delegates out of 779 that voted against independent action, and they were two democratic congressmen from Georgia.

SCANDINAVIAN NEWS.

Russia vs. Finland.

The military ordinances in Finland will henceforward be issued in Russian, to which will be affixed either Swedish or Finnish copies, and reported to the governor general. As the sharpshooters as well as the dragoons and other regiments are purely Finnish or Swedish speaking men, this ukas, of course, is looked upon as another instance of impressing the Russian nationality upon an alien people, treacherously sold to the Muscovite autocracy in 1809.

A Sensational Scandal.

A monetary scandal created by the officers of the elite corps of the "Svea" guards of Stockholm, when six of its members were recently to be declared bankrupt through gambling transactions, and which threatened the dismissal of these six officers, has been so far settled that a loan has been granted them from the funds of the regiment, gradually to be deducted from their salaries during a sequence of several years. Three of those most disgraced have been placed under short military arrest, and the promotion of several received a severe check. The corps of officers, however, are dissatisfied with the issue of the official proceedings.

From the Swedish Diet.

The proposed duty on imported machinery and tools has been refused by the committee of ways and means.—The bill for introducing civil marriages for members of the established Lutheran church of Sweden has again been dismissed by the upper house.—A bill for abolishing or controlling flogging in the prisons has met with approval by the lower house, but the upper house still stubbornly refuses this timely amendment and consequently this petty tyranny will still flourish.

The Expulsion of Danes From Schleswig.

A very great number of Danish families domiciled in Schleswig-Holstein are now being expelled from these Prussian provinces, which uncalled for severity by the German legislature is justly calling forth much adverse criticism and causing much bad blood. Very likely some of these thrifty families will find their way to America, to which land the kaiser himself advises all who cannot agree with his views to emigrate. Should all such follow his unpatriotic and unpatriarchial advice, it is just possible that the vast Hohenzollern may be left —quite alone in "das gosse Vaterland."

AN OLD LANDMARK.—Harry Phillips is tearing down the old Pioneer hotel building to make room for a substantial brick, containing three large store rooms, to be erected in the near future by our progressive townsman, Henry Heppner. This old building has stood the storms of many a winter and given shelter to numberless weary travelers in its day—in fact it was once Heppner's leading hotel. For some time it has been tenantless, and the festive insect that "gets there" without any winged attachments, has long since sought other and more attractive fields. The public will probably miss the old land mark, but should greet with pleasure the appearance of the new brick.

Safety in the Midst of Danger.

This would seem a contradiction—is so, in fact, to the eye. But experience has proved its possibility. Take the case of the individual who dwells in a malarious region. A robust constitution is no defence against the dreaded chills. What is? Recorded testimony, covering a period little short of half a century, proves that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is precisely this. This continent does not limit the field where the medicine has proved its efficacy. In South America, Isthmus of Panama, Mexico, everywhere in fact where miasma-born disease takes on its most obstinate and formidable types, the bitters is a recognized specific in illimitable demand, and prescribed by physicians of repute. Potent, too, is it in disorders of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and against that destroyer, la grippe. It improves appetite and sleep, neutralizes rhumatism and kidney complaint.

EIGHT MILE NEWS BUDGET.

Preaching at Eight Mile Center Sunday morning, the 10th inst., at 11 o'clock.

E. B. Stanton is summer-fallowing a large body of land for fall sowing, besides breaking a lot of sod.

Bud Ingraham is preparing about 100 acres for fall sowing. The Jones Bros. are also turning over the sod in dead earnest.

Isaac Knighten is one of the busiest farmers in this section, plowing for fall sowing about 200 acres. His fall sowing of 180 acres looks well.

Speaking of would-be toughs on Hales Ridge, reminds the writer that there is a "sure enough" tough. He is so blasted tough that his face hurts him.

The Eight Mile Center people organized their Sunday school last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Andrew Ashbaugh as superintendent.

Saling Bros. are running three walking plows and one Cassidy gang on their Eight Mile ranch. They have 230 acres in crop now, and will sow about 400 this fall.

Mr. Andrew Ham, recently from Arkansas, is teaching the Eight Mile Center school with the marked approbation of both parents and pupils. The enrollment is twenty five.

Rev. J. T. Galloway closed the protracted meeting on Eight Mile last Wednesday. It was most successful, several being converted. The attendance was good throughout, and behavior excellent.

I would warn the members of the Bachelors' Club in regard to the actions of one of their leading members, J. M. Saling. His attentions to the young ladies are altogether too marked for one who would fain shine in the order.

Heman Caldwell and J. M. Saling have compromised the suit which the Gazette's readers have noticed pending for some weeks in the Eight Mile courts, Bud Ingraham won the fair lady, so there was nothing left for the boys to law over.

Last Sunday, the 27th ult., the people of Eight Mile gathered at the Eight Mile Center school house, the occasion of preaching by Rev. J. T. Galloway, and an old-fashioned basket dinner. Though the day was a stormy one, the house was crowded to its utmost capacity. The M. E. church organized a class on this occasion, with A. H. Hooker as class leader; Mrs. Andrew Ashbaugh and J. L. Beymer, stewards. Class meeting every Friday evening at 7:30.

It is a well-known fact that Gil Jones has worn the belt as the leading favorite with Eight Mile's young ladies, but I learn that he has lately relinquished the same, with all honors, to Harlan Stanton. Gil and Joe Saling now console together. Misery loves company.

The people of Eight Mile are anxious that the editor and family should avail themselves of the opportunity to visit the neighborhood, as it is the garden spot of Morrow county, where reside many of their old acquaintances and friends. [This generous invitation is appreciated, and they will avail themselves of the invitation at the earliest opportunity.—ED.]

The Bachelor's Club met last Saturday evening, with a fair attendance. Some of the younger members were rather inclined to be frivolous, persisting in the discussion of subjects wholly foreign to the good of the club. A few sharp raps from the gavel in the hands of Pres. Rood brought the thoughtless ones to a full realization of their duties, and perfect decorum characterized the remainder of the session. The petitions of Bud Ingraham and Chas. Stanton were laid over till next meeting, giving the committee on investigation an opportunity to more thoroughly investigate their eligibility for membership in this club. It will be remembered that the boys were rejected on account of age not long ago, but at their earnest solicitation, that action has been reconsidered.

BON AMI.

Are You Troubled

With gravel, diabetes or any derangement of the kidneys or urinary organs? Oregon Kidney Tea is a safe, sure and speedy remedy for all such troubles.

You have no appetite for breakfast. A few doses of Dr. Henley's English Dandelion Tonic is what you need.

"God's blessing to mankind," say thousands who have been cured by the celebrated Oregon Kidney Tea.

ARLINGTON MATTERS.

J. Schuerman, of Pendleton, was in town Tuesday.

Drs. Reinhart and Moody made a pleasant call on our Dr. Geisendorfer last week.

Ed. Miller, the jeweler, is going to try his luck in the new capacity of landlord, having leased the Jordan hotel.

C. S. Miller, of Monumental mine fame, was a passenger on the stage Tuesday morning, bound for Fossil.

J. W. Smith's children are home from Monmouth on a short vacation, during the teachers' institute at that place.

G. H. Hayes, of San Francisco, purchased 1,000 head of beef cattle from Bialock & Peters, of Klamath, last week.

Wednesday the last (?) ball of the season takes place. This last (?) dance is somewhat like a prima donna's retirement.

Amongst the visitors of note at our burg last week were Judge Denny, Senator C. Hilton and ex-Gov. Z. F. Moody.

Jonas Livermore and A. C. Hawson visited Portland last week and a choice selection of wet goods is expected shortly as a result.

George Leonard, who has been living at Goldendale for some time past, made a short stay here before proceeding southward.

Mr. J. B. Huntington, of Burns, and J. A. Sparrow, of Harney, passed through here Friday last en route for The Dalles and beyond.

The delegates from the republican county convention set Sunday last, the following receiving the honor of being appointed in behalf of the county at the state convention: Herbert Halstead, Jay P. Lucas, Condon; A. A. Jayne, Arlington; F. W. Royal, Fossil.

A thoroughbred English mastiff was seen running around our streets Sunday with a package of tobacco attached to his collar. We found on examination that this was a new advertising scheme of T. K. McClelland, the genial representative of J. B. Pace & Co., Richmond, Va.

Jack Rodgers, the shoemaker, is on the sick list.

Wisdom's Robertine

Is the only preparation now used by fashionable ladies to perpetuate a beautiful complexion. Ask your druggist for it and do not be induced to take anything else.

"Take it before breakfast," because it will give you an appetite, regulate the bowels and cleanse the system of all impurities—Doctor Henley's English Dandelion Tonic. Sold everywhere.

O. L. Patterson, Chas. Parish, Frank McBean and G. W. Dart, delegates to the republican state convention, arrived from Grant county late last week, leaving for Portland Monday morning to be in full readiness for the fray.
