CONGRESSMAN-ELECT ELLIS, for such we may venture to call him, received an enthusiastic greeting on his return home to Heppner. This indicates that the people of Eastern Oregon will give him hearty support, because he is opposed to free wool and faithful to their interests, and those of the whole country.—Astorian.

THE Portland Dispatch, a democratic exchange, says: "Mr. Ellis was not the choice of a majority of Eastern Oregon, but the Multnomah bosses settled the matter. A man selected by the ring vote must be pretty satisfactory to the bosses. He can hardly be said to be the Eastern Oregon candidate. He has the ring on him." This is erroneous in every particular, and clearly demonstrates the fact that the Dispatch has not watched the drift of political opinion in the Inland Empire for the past few years. Two years ago the Times-Mountaineer mentioned the name of Hon. W. R. Ellis as a very eligible candidate for congress, and during the last few months no name received so many favorable comments. Mr. Ellis is absolutely free from the Portland ring, and an open river has a firm and steadfast friend in him.—Times Mountaineer.

SPLENDID WATERWORKS.

Those who are in a position to know the facts say that Hillsboro's facilities for fighting fire are unsurpassed by any other town in the Willamette valley. Those interested in insurance admit that our every appliance is ample and efficient and that our water supply and its pressure are ample to cope with any emergency that may or could arise. —Hillsboro Democrat.

The owner of Hillsboro's waterworks is Mr. H. V. Gates, who is desirous of putting in Heppner's plant.

A COMPLIMENT, ANYHOW.

Ellis' nomination for congress in the second congressional district was certainly unfortunate. In point of ability he cannot measure length with J. C. Leasure, and as a field worker he does not possess the force and the fund of political data that marked the effort of his opponent before the convention. He doubtless will make a tireless, conscientious and earnest worker in congress, where his district will certainly send him.—Portland Mercury.

Mr. Leasure's address to the convention after his defeat made him friends, and really proved him to be a man of broader views than many had considered him, yet this paper fails to see where he excels W. R. Ellis in any particular. Ellis' friends know where to find him, and, like the Mercury, it is their opinion that he will merit the compliment of that paper, if elected.

A WRONG CONCLUSION.

The East Oregonian, in commenting on the last vote in the congressional fight at the republican convention, says:

"It is seen that J. C. Leasure, of this city, was not so far out of the race. On the final ballot, without Multnomah's 43 votes cast solid for Ellis, Leasure would have had 28 votes to 27 for Ellis."

The East Oregonian evidently was not represented on the field of action, or it would have arrived at different conclusions. The last vote originally stood: Ellis, 60; Snodgrass, 20; Leasure, 28; Rand, 8; Hilton, 3; Eddy, 1. Union county then changed her vote for Ellis, making him 70 votes and leaving Snodgrass with 10 votes. Ellis' vote of 36 from Eastern Oregon and Columbia county on the third ballot was not changed on the final vote. It is quite evident, then, that Mr. Ellis did not receive anything like the whole of the Multnomah delegation.

MILTON COUCH'S EXPERIENCE

With an Electric Doctor and How He Was Served.

From the Oregonian.

MR. EDITOR: I have been affected with discharging ears for 26 years. In 1879 my right ear went totally deaf. November, 1891 I was almost totally deaf when I called on Dr. Darrin for examination. He informed me no living man could restore my hearing perfect again. After four months treatment the discharging ear is perfectly cured, and I can hear common conversation when near the person speaking, for which I am very grateful for the skillful treatment of Dr. Darrin. Electricity and medicines were both used in the case. Respectfully,

MILTON COUCH.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 7, 1892.

Dr. Darrin's place of business is at 70½ Washington street, Portland, Or. Hours, 10 to 5, evenings, 7 to 8, Sunday, 10 to 12. They make a specialty of all diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, Catarrh and Deafness, Bronchitis, La Grippe, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases. All Nervous, Chronic and Private Diseases of men, such as Loss of Manhood, Blood Taints, Syphilis, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Cancer, Tumors, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, Stricture, Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Desire of Sexual Power in Man or Woman, all Peculiar Female Troubles. Lucorrhœa, Displacements, etc., are confidentially and successfully treated, and will under no circumstances take a case that they cannot cure or benefit. Charges reasonable. Cures of private diseases guaranteed and never published in the papers. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctors' office. Out-of-town patients treated with unfailing success through correspondence: one visit desirable, but not necessary. Remedies sent safely and free from observation to any part of the country. Circulars and question blanks sent free. Inquiries answered. Consultation free.

FINE TIMBER.—Perhaps, the best timber growing in the Blue mountains can be found on Rock creek, in the vicinity of Will Mallory's saw-mill. This class of timber Mr. Mallory is using in making lumber which he delivering in Heppner all the way from $15 to $30 per thousand feet, depending on the quality, and whether desired rough or dressed. The same can be bought at the mill at prices ranging from $8 to $25 per thousand. He has a general assortment on hand at present, and is sure to satisfy customers. 427-tf.

Again Caught Misrepresenting Facts.

The Royal Baking Powder Company has resorted to so many tricks to force its way upon the public, that whenever any cry of fraud is raised the public instinctively turns to the Royal Baking Powder Company.

Is it any wonder?

The Royal has recently printed a statement purporting to be an interview with Dr. Benjamin F. Drew, state chemist and analyst to the Food and Dairy Commission of Minnesota, to the effect that the Royal Baking Powder is all which the company asserts it to be. The statement is made that Dr. Benjamin F. Drew, state chemist and analyst to the Food and Dairy Commission, made the representations referred to before the legislative committee at the last session, which examined various baking powders.

WHAT IS THE TRUTH?

1st. There is no such person as Dr. Benjamin F. Drew, state chemist and analyst to the Food and Dairy Commission of Minnesota.

2d. There is a Dr. Charles W. Drew, who is state chemist and analyst to the said commission.

3d. He denies the statement in question of the Royal Baking Powder Company, generally, as follows:

1st. The statements in no sense represent his attitude or his utterance.

2d. There has never been, either in the published reports of the chemist of the commission, in his testimony before the legislative committee or elsewhere, any implied endorsement of the Royal Baking Powder as superior to other brands.

3d. At the session of the legislative committee before which Dr. Drew testified, an attempt was made by the attorney of the Royal Company to secure the statements which the Royal Company has since printed, which attempt failed.

4th. On the contrary, Dr. Drew did say there were sufficient grounds for objection to the presence of ammonia in baking powders to justify the legislative committee in recommending that all such powders be required to announce upon their labels the fact that Ammonia was one of the constituents; and Dr. Drew further expressed to the committee the following emphatic opinion: "I would not recommend such powders to my patients, nor would I use them in my own family."

The Price Baking Powder Company makes a Pure Cream Tartar Baking Powder, free from ammonia, alum, lime or any taint of impurity, and feels it owes a duty to the public as well as to itself to lay bare such trickery as the Royal resorts to in trying to wheedle the consumer into using its Ammonia Powder.

SITE CHOSEN.—At a special meeting of the school board yesterday, they decided to build the new school house near the "point," on Nels Jones' property. There may be some objections to this place, if personal interests are considered, but they must be subservient to the public good. In the first place, the directors have no money with which to buy a high-priced lot. The amount of cash in sight is $3,400; indebtedness which the district will allow incurred, $8,000; total limit of expenditure, $11,400. The estimated cost of school house is not far from $10,000, leaving only $1,400 with which to buy lot, furnish house, build outhouses, etc., and therefore it was impossible for the directors to do better. The price asked by Mr. Jones is $350 for a piece of land 300x350 feet, and considering location, amount of money available, and good, spring water at hand, no one has a just reason to complain. The lot near the court house would have cost much more; the noise of the mill would have interfered with the school, and the flume near by a menace to the lives of small children.

SCHOOL HOUSE LOSS SETTLED.—Proof of school house loss to the amount of $3,400, including damage on house and furniture, having been made last Monday, the State Insurance Co.'s draft to that amount was received yesterday by the directors of the district, through the First National Bank, in full payment. Also a draft for $18, rebate on the old policy. The directors had canvassed the matter pretty thoroughly, and are satisfied that they have received all that could be expected under this policy, and every cent that the building was worth. Of course, the district met with considerable loss on furniture, but as the policy only called for $250 insurance in this line, they could expect no more than that amount.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The friends of Jimmy Matlock were pained to learn, this morning, of his death at 11 o'clock last night, at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland. Although he was in a serious condition, his physicians did not anticipate any immediate danger. Only a day or so ago, his father received a letter from his sister, Miss Elizabeth, who was with him, that he was improving. His sudden demise was quite a shock to the relatives and many friends here. In this hour of deep affliction, the Gazette extends its sympathy. Jimmy was a manly, bright young man, and he will be sadly missed by both young and old.

SUCCESSFUL TERM.—Heppner's high school department closed its term today. Though working under many disadvantages since their quarters were destroyed by fire, it has been the most successful school in Heppner's experience, and is but the beginning of what it will be. Prof. Wier is a teacher, and no mistake.

COWS FOR SALE.—Geo. Swaggart has about fifty head of fine Holstein heifers and older cows, fine milkers, all gentle. If you want a good milk cow call on him at the Ella ranch and take your pick. Will sell reasonable. 80-3

A Warning—Don't Use Big Words.

In promulgating esoteric cogitations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your statements possess a clarified conciseness, compacted comprehensibleness, coalescent consistency and a concentrated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and asinine affectations. In trying to impress upon others the superiority of the Wisconsin Central Lines, and why you and so many others use this thoroughfare from St. Paul and Minneapolis and Duluth and Ashland to Milwaukee, Chicago and points east and south, it is not necessary to use jawbreakers. Let your extemporaneous descantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rhodomontade or thrasonical bombast. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, psittaceous vacuity, ventriloqual verbosity and vandiloquent vapidity, shun double entendres, prurient jocosity and pestiferous profanity, obscurent or apparent. In other words talk plainly, naturally, sensibly and truthfully say the Wisconsin Central Lines is THE ROUTE, and that ends it. 465tf.

BABIES' DAY.—On Thursday of each week will be "babies' day" at Danner's gallery. Bring along your babies and have their pictures taken, and you will get one photo free of charge. 58tf

OREGON KIDNEY TEA — OKT — CURES ALL KIDNEY TROUBLES

Recently the following Notice appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle.

"Judge S—— had been sick only about two weeks, and it was not until the last three or four days that the malady took a serious turn. At the beginning of his illness he suffered from diabetes and stomach disorder. Later the kidneys refused to perform their functions and he passed quietly away. This ended the life of one of the most prominent men in California." Like thousands of others his untimely death was the result of neglecting early symptoms of kidney disease.

IF YOU

are troubled with diabetes, gravel, or any derangement of the kidneys or urinary organs, don't delay proper treatment until you are forced to give up your daily duties; don't waste your money on worthless liniments and worse plasters, but strike at the seat of the disease at once by using the greatest of all known remedies, the celebrated Oregon Kidney Tea. It has saved the lives of thousands. Why should it not cure you? Try it. Purely vegetable and pleasant to take. $1.00 a package, 6 for $5.00.

GENUINE ARTICLE.—Mocha and Java, as well as other grades of fine coffees, can be found at J. Cohn's. 79-tf.

SOMETHING NEW.—C. Ruhl wishes to inform his many customers of Heppner, that he will prepare Boston baked beans, a the latest style, every Sunday morning during the summer season. 79-82

BRING THEM BACK.—"Pap" Simons has loaned out a brace and bit, a two-inch auger, a hand-saw and other tools. If the parties are through with them, they will kindly return and oblige. 80tf

THE FESTIVE CAYUSE.—While rounding up horses near town last Monday, Bob Hart's horse fell on him, dislocating his left shoulder, and badly bruising his face. Dr. Fox was called, and Bob is doing well.

GRAIN BAGS FOR 1892.—Until further notice, we will contract to furnish first grade Calcutta bags for August delivery at eight and one-half cents at all points on the Heppner branch. As it is possible that the price of bags will be higher by harvest than they were last season farmers will do well to place their orders early for at least a portion of the number they may require. Call on or address M. Co. L. & T. Co. 79-80.

A CURIOUS PHENOMENON.—A grand sight was noticed in the southeast heavens last Tuesday evening, two "mock moons," of brilliant colors, appearing, one on each side of that satellite, being at an equal distance from it, each describing the radius of a circle, which was little less brilliant than the "mock moons" themselves. The sky to the northwest was grainee like a door panel with white streaks.

Died—On Butter creek, yesterday, the child of Geo. Vincent, of diphtheria. Also in the same neighborhood, on that date, the child of Johnny Ayers.
