THE Alliance convention meets at Lexington, Thursday. We will give a full account of the same in our next.

HEPPNER will have an opportunity very soon to vote on the water question. Don't decide to vote against it till you know all about, then you won't do it.

ACCORDING to the Oregonian, Judge Bennett is likely to be the democratic nominee for congress from the second district.

THE fire commissioners of Portland, in a recent report, give as one of the principal causes for fires, the explosion of coal oil lamps, which danger would be eliminated here by the use of electricity for illuminating purposes.

THE Gazette acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to attend the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Columbia river by Capt. Robt. Gray, May 11, 1792, to be held in Astoria, May 10, 11 and 12, 1892.

SPEAKING of the next congressman from the second district of Oregon, the Walla Walla Union says: "W. R. Ellis, one of the republican nominees for congress in Oregon, has some acquaintances in Walla Walla who regard him highly. He is a resident of Heppner, and has been the successful prosecuting attorney of that judicial district."

HILLSBORO is highly pleased with her water and light system, put in by Mr. H. V. Gates recently. That little city has grown more since the completion of the plant than for years past. We want no boom at Heppner, but do desire protection, and that the town should avail itself of those natural advantages which its magnificent location gives it.

SHOULD Mr. Gates put in the water and light plant here, nearly all the labor on same will be done by our home people, all material that can be bought here will be used. After its completion, the repairs to machinery and extension of mains from time to time will give employment to many hands, and not less than 600 cords of wood will be consumed yearly.

TO BRO. PATTERSON, of the Heppner Gazette, we say in all friendliness that the Times-Mountaineer favorably mentioned the name of Hon. W. R. Ellis for congress in 1890 before Hon. Binger Hermann was nominated. But this is of no consequence, the T.-M. and Gazette will do their utmost to elect Mr. Ellis the first congressman of the second congressional district in Oregon.—T.-M.

IT IS said that a railroad can be built across the tablelands, back from the Columbia, between The Dalles, and Celilo. If such is the case, it certainly adds another feature to the open river question, and places it in the power of the state to put in its own portage. It would have no interference from the Union Pacific, because the portage right-of-way would be far from the U. P.'s tracks.

Now the democrats should nominate Hon. James Raley for congress and the "tall sycamore of Morrow" will not be in it in June. Raley is just the man to represent Eastern Oregon in congress and if nominated the people will undoubtedly look to their interests and see that he is elected.—Baker Democrat. Raley is the strongest man the democrats could put up, but he could hardly dig up a pole long enough to harvest the persimmon against W. R. Ellis.

THERE are too many people in this world who want to edit the newspaper, dictate its locals and set a price on its advertising space. They would raise h—l if a newspaper man would say what they had to sell their calves for, or the right figures for a corner lot. There would be an everlasting howl if the printer chose to dictate the value of sugar, nails, calico and other truck of like nature. The printer knows more people than any man in the country.

STATE SENATOR RALEY, of Pendleton, tells the local interviewer that he has been at no time, and will not be, a candidate for congress in the second district. He is not seeking a renomination for state senator, and will not accept it if ex-State Treasurer Webb desires it. Mr. Raley thinks Ellis may receive about his party vote, but that he is not especially strong, but that the democrats, in order to have a chance of winning, will have to put up their strongest man.—Portland Telegram.

THE man-who-won't-give-a-thing, when some great and laudable undertaking or enterprise is proposed, is thus sized up by Peter, the Poet, in the Klamath Star: "The won't give-a-thing man bobs up here and there occasionally to show how cleverly he sucks eggs. He makes his hens rustle for their feed and growls because they eat grasshoppers. He turns his hogs out to shift for themselves and growls because they don't fatten. He keeps away from and damns every new enterprise, and when the enterprise pans out well he growls because he is not doing as well as others. The man who 'will not give a thing' is the aversion of every enterprising man on earth."

MR. ELLIS is running for congress on a platform that is "heartily in favor of" the Dolph-Mitchell boat-railway scheme, which, to say the least, is experimental, and will take many years to complete, if it is practical at all, but which says not a word in favor of a portage road, to be built either by the federal government or the state, and hence must be opposed to it. What do the people of Eastern Oregon think of this?—Portland Telegram. The people of Eastern Oregon know Ellis. They also know something about Springer's free wool and protected woolens; that which practically says the wool grower doesn't need any protection, but the manufacturer does. They also know Ellis to be for an "open river," to be brought about in the most practical way.

Hot Griddle Cakes.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder possesses a peculiar merit not approached by that of any other baking powder. It produces the hot buckwheat, Indian or wheat cakes, hot biscuit, doughnuts, waffles or muffins. Any of these tasteful things may be eaten when hot with impunity by persons of the most delicate digestive organs. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder leavens without firmentation or decomposition. In its preparation none but the purest of cream of tartar, soda, etc. is used, and in such exact equivalents as to always guarantee a perfectly neutral result, thereby giving the natural and sweet flavor peculiar to buckwheat and other flour that may be used, the natural flavor so much desired and appreciated by all. The oldest patrons of Dr. Prices powder tell the story, that they can never get the same results from any other leavening agent, that their griddle cakes, biscuits, etc. are never so light and never taste so sweet or so good as when raised with Dr. Prices Cream Baking Powder.

THE PROPOSED WATERWORKS.

The people of Heppner will shortly have an opportunity of voting bonds for a system of waterworks. If any town in the northwest actually needs water for fire protection and domestic use, it is Heppner. Our people are taking more risk than good business sagacity would dictate under any circumstances; our rates of insurance are entirely too high; our wells are impure from the proximity of cesspools, privy vaults and stable yards, sooner or later to end in an awful epidemic.

In the matter of fire protection there is not a brick building in town that demands less protection than the rows of frames, though, of course, there is less likelihood of a conflagration starting in the former than the latter. But should a general fire break out our people will learn that nothing will stop its course but plenty of water. The town is able to cope with small fires, but is absolutely unprotected otherwise.

Heppner's citizens are progressive. They are anxious to see the town grow. They are particularly desirous that outside capital shall seek investment in our midst. But will any sane man seek a field where he is likely to lose more than he could possibly make under the most favorable circumstances? The Gazette thinks not. He will go where he has some protection offered to invest his capital.

It is the desire of the town to provide an adequate water supply as soon as possible, and to this end it is hoped that the people will give the council the right to raise the remaining $15,000, the limit of bonded indebtedness which the city can assume under the present charter.

Regarding the proposition of Mr. H. V. Gates, with some trivial alterations, it is by far the best proposition ever offered us. Fifteen thousand dollars is not a sufficient amount to put in a water system for all purposes. In fact, it is hardly enough to put in a plant for fire protection only, which would be a dead weight to the town, bringing in no income. We could then do nothing further till the next session of the legislature, provided that body would amend the charter, to allow a larger indebtedness, and the town would vote the bonds necessary.

The Gazette is of the opinion that it is to our interests to allow Mr. Gates to put in waterworks. We then know just how much expense will be the town's portion each year. He is a practical man and evidently knows more about running a plant than our town of Heppner. There is no assurance that the town can save a cent by managing it themselves, and the amount of indebtedness would be lessened greatly by accepting Mr. Gates' proposition.

Mr. Gates also wishes to add an electric light plant. There is not a business man in Heppner who would not save money by using electric lights instead of coal oil, besides, the risk being much less and lights very much better. Our streets are poorly lighted, a very poor recommendation for a town like Heppner. Lights for residences would cost four-bits apiece per month.

A good water and light plant would raise the value of Heppner property, because it would be more desirable. Let all taxpayers look into the matter carefully and do what is for Heppner's best interests. Remember, the money will be needed whether the town accepts Mr. Gates' proposition or not; and, too, that no contracts have been made, nor will be entered into till satisfactory to the town council.

NOT A NOVICE.

The Pendleton Tribune, in speaking of Binger Hermann, of the first district, and his chances to be returned to congress, says this of the second district candidate:

His associate, when he returns to the fifty-third congress, will be Hon. W. R Ellis, of Heppner, and no higher compliment can be paid this gentleman than to express the opinion that the second district will be no less worthily represented than the first. Mr. Ellis is not a novice at public service. He is a gentleman of high character, in the fullness of manhood, a lawyer of ability and experience, and as a legislator will be in touch with the people, conversant with the needs of his district and loyal to the principles of his party. He is likely to receive in the eastern counties more than his party vote.

MR. ELLIS, the republican nominee for congress in this district, is rather a good looking man, about six feet tall, and weighs nearly 200 pounds. If elected, he will silently and gracefully adorn a seat for two years. If the people of the district want to elect a man "on his shape," Ellis will do very well. As it is not an Adonis, but a statesman, we are looking for, Mr. Ellis will have to take a back seat.—Portland Telegram.

Yes?

MORROW county ought to have a board of immigration. Then with boards of trade, or some other subordinate organizations in every precinct, the country could be settled up, and by a good, thrifty class of people. Heppner should open the ball by organizing a board of trade.

A Warning—Don't Use Big Words.

In promulgating esoteric cogitations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your statements possess a clarified conciseness, compacted comprehensibleness, coalescent consistency and a concentrated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and asinine affectations. In trying to impress upon others the superiority of the Wisconsin Central Lines, and why you and so many others use this thoroughfare from St. Paul and Minneapolis and Duluth and Ashland to Milwaukee, Chicago and points east and south, it is not necessary to use jawbreakers. Let your extemporaneous descantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rhodomontade or thrasonical bombast. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, pettaneous vacuity, ventriloqual verbosity and vandiloquent vapidity, shun double entendres, prurient jocosity and pestiferous profanity, obscurent or apparent. In other words talk plainly, naturally, sensibly and truthfully say the Wisconsin Central Lines is THE ROUTE, and that ends it. 465tf.

The dairy commissioner of New Jersey says that upon investigation he has found that oleomargarine is almost universally used at the seaside resorts, such as Ocean Grove, Atlantic City and Long Branch. LATEST NEWS.

Special to the Gazette.

PORTLAND, Apr. 19.—It is probable that Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, will be chosen as the nominee of the second district democrats for congress, though at this hour, 2:30, p. m., that part of the convention's work had not been reached. It would seem, that since Sen. Raley was not in the race, that Judge Bennett's only competitor would be J. H. Slater, of Union county, who stands high in the estimation of Eastern Oregonians.

The first district will probably choose Senator Veach as their candidate. Hon. J. K. Weatherford is "in it" for the supreme bench, though early this morning there was some show of strong opposition from Eastern Oregon. As they have not furnished a member for the supreme bench for years, if at all, in the history of Oregon, they would seem to have some claims on the convention for that important nomination.

Hon. Henry Blackman will probably be chosen to represent the democracy of his section at the Chicago convention. Blackman is such an aggressive politician, and so well received by his numerous friends over the state, many of whom are here, that he will probably have no trouble in getting "ther."

Jeff Myers, the baby politician from the "Forks of the Santiam," is here, but has no congressional aspirations, he says. However, it is the general opinion that he will be chosen as a delegate to the national convention.

Four of Morrow County's delegates are here, H. Blackman, C. A. Rhea, Thos. Quaid and Wm. Hughes. They are representative men, and are more than the average of the convention. As a member of the board of equalization, Hon. W. Hughes has given entire satisfaction, having the reputation of being the shrewdest man of the lot. His nomination for that office is conceded.

CAN WE SUPPLY YOUR SPRING SHOES?

Our Spring Footwear is the Best and the Cheapest.

As the shoemaker, a nice new shoe,
The goat, the calf, and the kangaroo,
Joined by the alligator, too,
All dropped in to find out whether
'Twas any of their folks that fu'nish'd the leather.

We wish that everybody knew
What elegant stock we put in each shoe
And keep on hand to benefit you.
All grades, styles and shapes together,
Fine footwear in all kinds of leather.
