The Original

Webster's Unabridged DICTIONARY.

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE publishers, we are able to obtain a number of the above book, and propose to furnish a copy to each of our subscribers.

The dictionary is a necessity in every home, school and business house. It fills a vacancy, and furnishes knowledge which no one hundred other volumes of the choicest books could supply. Young and old, educated and ignorant, rich and poor, should have it within reach, and refer to its contents every day in the year.

As some have asked if this is really the Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, we are able to state we have learned direct from the publishers the fact, that this is the very work complete on which about forty of the best years of the author's life were so well employed in writing. It contains the entire vocabulary of about 100,000 words, including the correct spelling, derivation and definition of same, and is the regular standard size, containing about 300,000 square inches of printed surface, and is bound in cloth half morocco and sheep.

Until further notice we will furnish this valuable Dictionary—

First—To any new subscriber.

Second—To any renewal subscriber.

Third—To any subscriber now in arrears who pays up and one year in advance, at the following prices, viz:

Full Cloth bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $1.00.

Half Morocco, bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $1.50.

Full Sheep bound, leather label, marbled edges, $2.00.

Fifty cents added in all cases for expressage to Heppner.

☞ As the publishers limit the time and number of books they will furnish at the low prices, we advise all who desire to avail themselves of this great opportunity to attend to it at once.

PENNOYER NOT IN IT.

Oregon Democracy Refuse to Put Him Forward for the Presidency.

GROVER CLEVELAND IS THEIR MAN.

Veach, of Lane, and Slater, of Union, for Congress — Bennett, the Supreme Judgeship—Blackman and Huges Honored—Other Convention News.

"Grover, Grover," was the watchword of the Oregon democracy Tuesday. His name, whenever mentioned, provoked long and continued cheering.

Hendershott, of Union, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this convention most heartily approves and indorses the administration of Governor Sylvester Pennoyer; that he has made an able executive, and his administration of the affairs of the state has been characterized by that spirit of economy which should characterize the administration of every true democrat, and this convention would suggest and urge upon the delegates to the national convention, to be held at Chicago, the propriety of insisting upon giving his name a place on the national democratic ticket.

The part after the words, "every true democrat," were finally stricken out, as one delegate expressed it, "this is a Grover Cleveland convention."

Hailey, of Umatilla, offered the following:

The democracy of Oregon hereby express their confidence in the courage, honesty and statesmanship of Grover Cleveland and recognize him as a man pre-eminently qualified to fill the office of president of the United States, and unless some contingency not now apparent shall arise sufficient to justify a different course, we hereby instruct our delegates to the national convention to use all honorable means to secure his nomination to that office.

All after the words "president of the United States," was afterwards eliminated, as the delegation, while favorable to Cleveland, wish to go uninstructed.

Hon. L. B. Cox was chosen temporary chairman, and Chas. Nickell, of the Jacksonville Times, temporary secretary; T. G. Hailey, of Pendleton, assistant temporary secretary. These were afterwards made the permanent officers.

The committee on credentials were: Daly; of Polk, Horsley, of Grant; Cogswell, of Lake; Flood, of Douglas; Reed, of Multnomah; Blackman, of Morrow, and Trenchard, of Clatsop.

Committee on order of busines, and also on platform, were appointed, five for the former and one from each county for the latter. James A. Woolery, of Morrow, proxy for C. A. Rhea, served on the committee on platform.

Old Morrow, when called upon, showed the following delegation: Henry Blackman, Thomas Quaid, William Hughes, T. J. Matlock, by William Hughes proxy, C. A. Rhea by Jas. A. Woolery proxy.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The organization committee reported on order of business, which created considerable discussion. Nominations were recommended as follows: Supreme judge, congressmen, presidential electors, one from each congressional district and two at large, eight delegates to the national convention, four at large and four from each congressional district, district nominations, and election of the state central committee.

A motion was made that the Multnomah member be chairman of the committee. Stites, of Linn, objected to compelling the committee to select the Multnomah man as chairman.

After a long debate the order of business was amended so as to provide for the nomination of electors and delegates at large, and to empower the state committee to go outside of its own members for a chairman.

NOMINATIONS.

Judge Strahan's name was presented, but Skipworth, of Ione, said that Strahan would not accept, and his name was withdrawn. Judge Bennett was named, as was John Burnett, of Corvallis. The latter withdrew before the roll was completed, and Judge Bennett was chosen by acclamation.

R. M. Veach, of Cottage Grove, was nominated for congress from the first district; Sen. J. H. Slater, of Union county, for congress, second district.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Then came nominations for presidential electors. Those placed before the convention were Robt. A. Miller and W. M. Colvig, of Jacksonville; E. D. McKee, of Portland; George Nolan, of Astoria; W. F. Butcher, of Baker City, and J. L. Story, of Wasco county. Miller and Colvig, being the only nominees from the first congressional district, were nominated by acclamation. Butcher and Nolan were chosen on the open ballot by a vote of 170 and 173.

DELEGATES TO CHICAGO.

For delegates to the national democratic convention there were quickly placed in nomination; John J. Daly, of Dallas; C. N. Roby, of Portland; A. Bush, of Salem; John R. Campbell, of Eugene; J. L. Cowan, of Albany; Harry C. Grady, of Pendleton; S. F. Flood, of Roseburg; William H. Vaughan, of Oregon City; Thomas G. Reams, of Jacksonville; Frederick V. Holman, of Portland; Henry Blackman, of Heppner; C. A. Cogswell, of Lakeview; C. J. Trenchard, of Astoria; Frank W. Fenton, of Yamhill, and S. B. Huston, of Hillsborough. Nominations were then closed, and after some discussion it was decided to vote by calling the roll of counties, and there being sixteen names, those receiving the eight highest number of votes to be delegates, and the other eight alternates. The ballot was then taken and resulted: Bush, 200, Blackman, 219; Grady, 194; Flood, 169; Daly, 170; Holman, 174; Reams, 138; Cowan, 140 (these eight to be delegates); Roby, 73; Campbell, 111; Vaughan 65; Cogswell, 127; Trenchard, 125; Fenton, 69; Huston, 74 (these eight alternates). Three votes each were also cast for Pennoyer and Jeffrey. Adjourned till 7 p. m.

GEORGE CHAMBERLAIN RENOMINATED.

The convention declared, after a long discussion, to nominate a candidate for attorney-general. There was much opposition to the idea, as it was held that Attorney-General Chamberlain holds over. Mr. Chamberlain was renominated by acclamation, on motion of Bilyeu, of Linn.

THE PLATFORM.

The democratic party of the state of Oregon, in convention assembled, renew their pledges to the principles upon which the democratic party is founded; remembering that they represent a party not created by political expediency or dependent for existence upon temporary success, but coeval with the constitution, and adhering throughout its history to the principles of that instrument

First—We reaffirm the doctrine of the democratic national platforms of 1884 and 1888, indorsed by the popular vote in those years and so overwhelmingly ratified by the popular verdict in the congressional elections of 1890, and point with pride to the administration of Grover Cleveland, as exemplifying the embodiment of those principles in practical government affairs and condemn the wanton extravagance of the billion-dollar congress, whereby the surplus of the people's money has been squandered.

Second—We arraign the party in power for its utter disregard of all the pledges made to the people, whereby its ascendency was secured at the last national election; and especially do we condemn the McKinley bill as the blighting iniquity of the age.

TARIFF REFORM DEMANDED.

Third—We declare our unfaltering adherence to the cause of tariff reform, holding that the policy of favoritism pursued by the republican party in general legislation is subversive of the principles of justice, equality and true democracy, and deny the right of the government to levy a protective tariff except as incidental to the raising of revenue to defray the expenses of the government economically administered, or for any consideration save those of public welfare; we demand such a revision of the tariff laws as will entirely eliminate from their operations personal, class or special interest with a view to securing the greatest possible revenue with the least possible burden to the people.

Fourth—We believe in honest money, the gold and silver coinage of the constitution, and in a currency convertible into such coinage without loss, and of sufficient volume to meet all the demands of the people; we demand that all money coined or issued by the United States should be of equal monetary value, and of equal purchasing power for the rich and the poor, and that all paper currency issued by the government should be redeemable in either gold or silver coin at the option of the holder, and not at the discretion of the secretary of the treasury.

PENSION LEGISLATION.

Fifth—The gratitude of a generous people and a wise national policy alike demand that the government should provide with liberal hand for the wants of those who suffered by wounds and disease in the late war, and likewise of such dependent persons as were deprived of their natural protectors and supporters. But it should be remembered that we have already been liberal beyond precedent in the civilized world, and we insist that in legislation and administration touching pension affairs, regard be had to honorable past service and present meritorious necessity. We are opposed to all measures which draw no distinction between the veteran in the field and the camp-followers in the rear as involving a cruel wrong to the soldier and wanton waste to the people's money.

Sixth—We favor the adoption of an amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of senators by a direct vote of the people.

Seventh—Being profoundly impressed with the conviction that the chief pillars of our republican form of government are an enlightened yeomanry and a free and honest exercise of the elective franchise, we pledge the democratic party of the state of Oregon to the cordial support and advancement of our common school system; to the passage of effective laws for the prevention of the corrupt use of money in elections, and the enactment of such measures as will secure to every voter the right to cast a ballot in accordance with the dictates of his own conscience.

Eighth—We are in favor of the regulation of railroads and other transportation agencies by law as common carriers.

Ninth—We approve of declaring eight hours a legal day's labor upon all public works, and we also favor laws giving the laborer in all fields of labor a first lien on the product of his labor.

Tenth—We recognize the enlightened policy of favoring and doing justice to the laboring classes, we therefore favor the enactment of a just and reasonable homestead exemption law, and a just and equitable system of assessment and taxation.

SURVEY PUBLIC LANDS.

Eleventh—We demand the immediate survey of the public domain within this state and the adjustment of all land grants and condemn the republican party for delaying the opening for settlement the forfeited lands of all railroads in this state claimed without authority of law, to the end that titles may be settled and said land occupied by actual settlers. We further demand the immediate and specific forfeiture of the grants of all lands unearned by railroads and wagon roads in this state.

Twelfth—We urge the passage of such appropriations and the adoption of such measures as will tend most speedily and effectively to opening the Columbia River. We condemn the policy of the republican party in urging upon congress the feasibility of the boat-railway at The Dalles and denounce the measure as a subterfuge whereby the people of the Inland Empire must remain in bondage for years; and we condemn the policy of the republican party whereby the improvement of the Cascades has been delayed unnecessarily by plans and expedients which give no assurance that the obstructions to navigation in the Columbia will be released from the grasp of a grinding monopoly which now holds the people of Eastern Oregon in fetters.

Thirteenth—We point with pride to the record of the democratic party upon the subject of Chinese immigration, and we demand from congress such legislation as will prevent Chinese entering the territory of the United States, and we favor the bill now before congress known as the Geary Chinese exclusion bill, and denounce the action of the Oregon senator in attempting to defeat the same.

W. H. Vaughan, of Clackamas, who was elected an alternate to the Chicago convention, declined in favor of John Barrett, of Portland, who was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy.

So Badly Afflicted He Could Scarcely Reach Home—O. K. T. Effects a Radical Cure.

PORTLAND, Or., July 31.

While I was in Tillamook last winter I was affected in my back and kidneys so that it was almost impossible for me to reach Portland. When I got here I was induced to try the OREGON KIDNEY TEA. I drank at my meals the tea made from it, and it has effected a radical cure. I can highly recommend it to all who are afflicted as I was.

ARLINGTON MATTERS.

Dr. J. A. Geisendorfer made a flying visit to The Dalles, Tuesday.

The new fire bell has been fixed up between Sweets' Saloon and Brown's "Record" office.

Frank Hurlburt is now officiating as assistant cashier in the Arlington National Bank.

Jack Rodgers, who has been on the sick list for several weeks past, is now convalescent.

Harry Hawson, who had an attack of heart trouble, left for Portland, Tuesday last, for medical treatment.

The first wool this year came in town to-day, Tuesday, from Fred Day's ranch on the Klickitat side of the river.

Talk about dispatch! Judge Bradshaw takes the cake. Gilliam county tax payers, arise and call him blessed.

Still another change in the meat market, Richard Lyons having decided to try his luck as block and cleaver artist.

Dr. J. Paul Grant returned from his trip in the back country, Monday, which he says was the roughest he has ever experienced.

Ed. Copner, of Lone Rock, passed through on his way homeward, Monday, via Heppner, having made a short visit to Portland.

Amongst our out of town friends, we noticed W. W. Steiwer, Jerome Parsons, L. M. Rhodes, of Fossil, G. W. Rinehart and John W. Blake, of Condon.

Miss Carrie Wilson and Harry Burnham decided last week to enter in the bonds of holy matrimony, Rev. G. G. Ferguson tying the nuptial knot.

Mrs. Geo. W. Young, formerly a resident here, was passenger on the "Cannon Ball," Friday last, on a visit to relatives and friends in the southern part of the county.

G. W. Hayes, accompanied by about a dozen vanqueros, started, Monday, to drive the cattle purchased from Blurock & Peters. It will take them about five weeks to reach their destination in Modoc Co., Calif.

Uncle Billy Rocus was noticed early last Sunday morning wandering around the depot with "The Record" in his hand, which he was showing Bull Run Joe as proof that No. 1 was due to leave at 2:10 a. m., not 1:53 a. m. We noticed him again in the afternoon, mopping his brow, having arrived five minutes too late to catch No. 7. He muttered some words of dangerous intent. When asked what was the matter, showed the time card of the U. P. as it appears in his "guide, comforter and friend," i. e. 4:20 a. m., pointing to his watch says, "See! it's only 4:02 now." *. †. ‡.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds.—If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Slocum-Johnston Drug Co.'s. Large bottles 50c and $1.

S. N. Morgan dropped into town Wednesday, and to the surprise of all his old friends, was so dignified and distant that there was no touching him with even the proverbial 10-foot pole. He finally relaxed sufficiently to inform ye reporter that it was a boy and a girl, born April 18th.
