

WHAT IS THE TELEGRAM?

Mr. Ellis, the republican nominee for congress, is a "Moody man." Politicians understand that what means, but all the voters do not. They will find out before the campaign is over, if they will read the Telegram. We only mention the fact now to call the attention of the democratic convention to the necessity of nominating a democrat from Eastern Oregon who is the opposite of a "Moody man, with all that that phrase implies. Alfred S. Bennett would be one such man. There may be others.—Portland Telegram.

By the above, it would seem that the Portland Telegram proposes to wage war on Mr. Ellis, and in the dirtiest way possible. Its reference to Ellis being a "Moody man," is all rot. The Gazette understands the move pretty well. Moody, of The Dalles, is accused of being in opposition to the people's boats and portage on the Columbia, below The Dalles. Ellis has the earnest support of the Chronicle, of The Dalles, a strong anti-Moody paper, as well as the Times-Mountaineer, of the same place. Both papers fight hard on local matters, one for and the other against "Moody," but they are a unit on Ellis, so the charge of his being "unfit or that" falls as flat as the unfortunate opponent of W. R. Ellis next June.

Ellis does not belong to any individual, for he is a man of the people, who knows their needs. Yes, and they will elect him to the position to which he is nominated, and when it comes to the count it will be found that all his good friends and earnest supporters are not republicans, either.

What is the Telegram, anyhow, that it has so much influence?

HOW'S THIS, TELEGRAM.

The Portland Telegram says: "Mr. Ellis is running for congress on a platform that is 'heavily in favor of the D. (P. M.) Mitchell boat-railway scheme, which is the least is experimental, and will take many years to complete, it is practical at all, but which says not a word in favor of a portage road, to be built either by the Federal government or by the state, and hence must be opposed to it. What do the people of Eastern Oregon think of this."

The Chronicle may not speak for the republican party but it can speak for Eastern Oregon. Over this way every man who is blessed with a reasonable amount of common sense knows, as well as he can know anything of a similar character, that there does not exist the shadow of a hope that the federal government will ever undertake to overcome the obstructions at The Dalles by any work of a less permanent character than a boat railway or a canal. The discussions recently carried on in the river and harbor committee ought to have made this sufficiently clear. If we are ever to have a portage road the state will have to build it. A platform in favor of a portage road built by the general government would be so far nothing less than a humbug. Instead of vainly looking to congress for relief we seek to send men to the state legislature who are pledged to work for an appropriation from that quarter.—Chronicle, (anti-Moody).

W. R. ELLIS, republican candidate for congress, has consented to deliver a Fourth-of-July oration at Baker City. At that time he may be a congressman-elect, or he may not. Whether he is or not may times somewhat his feelings of patriotism.—Portland Telegram. Baker City is satisfied with the prospect of having a congressman to address them on the next July 4th.

Their Prineville News (Dem.) says: "Eastern Oregon scored one on the republican state convention when that body placed Hon. W. R. Ellis, of Heppner in nomination for congressman from the second district of this state. Mr. Ellis is well known in Crook county as an able attorney, a man of affairs and a thorough gentleman, and it will be a surprise in June, the county does not voice its appreciation of Mr. Ellis as plainly as it has on different occasions in the past."

The interests of every section of Morrow county, and in fact Eastern Oregon, are mutual. A board of immigration for Morrow county, formed by representatives from every precinct, would be followed by other counties, and in time Eastern Oregon could have a general board of immigration, who would be better acquainted with the section, as a matter of fact, than a similar organization stationed at Portland. Heppner should have a board of trade, first of all things, then the organization of a board of immigration could be easily effected.

It is probable that Mr. H. V. Gates will make a new proposition to our town council, for the purpose of putting in water alone, in conformance with the charter, but should he not, we have Emery Oliver's plan, which will give the town ample protection for little more than $15,000. These works can be argued when it is possible to increase the town's indebtedness, so that all demands in the matter of water can be met. But if Heppner can get a first class service with only $15,000 investment, without any risk to take, it would be much better, however.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING.—On Tuesday evening, Heppner's council met in special session to pass the water ordinance, Mayor Matlock presiding. All councilmen present except Morgan and Farnsworth. Ordinance read by title; rules then suspended and put upon its final passage and carried unanimously. Another special meeting called for Thursday evening.

FOR WITH A CELESTIAL.—A pretty good-sized row occurred down at the City Hotel, Tuesday evening, between "Lunnie," the Celestial cook, and Frank Holt, a waiter. The former called to aid a meat cleaver and then a knife; Holt responded with a dish, cutting Lunnie's head pretty badly. Holt received a cut on the hand, but nothing serious. The Celestian returned to work Wednesday morning, but the waters refused to stay, though the services of others were secured immediately, and all went on as usual.

The Sham and the Real.

Every good thing has its imitators, every genuine article its counterfeiters. The Ammonia and Alum Baking Powders sold over the counters are no more like Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, than the paste is like the real diamond, or a counterfeit is like one of the old master's genuine paintings.

When greedy and merciless manufacturers claim their adulterated and harmful baking powders as good as Dr. Price's, they know they are not telling the truth. These people know they are destroying the stomachs and the complexion of the consumers, and there are many grocers recommending such powders over their counters—knowing same to be injurious and worthless—simply to make a large profit.

Dr. Price, a conscientious physician, has spent a lifetime in perfecting and popularizing his Cream Baking Powder, the only Pure Cream Tartar Powder now to be obtained.

Multitudes of imitators all over the land have sprung up, not to imitate the purity of Price's Cream Baking Powder, but to see how cheap they could make their counterfeiters and hoodwink the public.

Some use Ammonia and others Alum, but all these shams cry in chorus, "Buy this, its just as good as Dr. Price's and much cheaper."

Price's Cream Baking Powder is the standard for purity and perfection the world over, and is beyond comparison.

Dr. Price stands for Pure Food and a foe to all shams.

GREAT CURES BY ELECTRICITY.

From the Oregonian. Not long ago Mr. G. B. Matthews, of Eagle Point, visited his friends near Portland, and related his case to a reporter of the Oregonian, as follows: One year ago my case was considered hopeless. I had a lung trouble, aggravated by catarrh and bronchitis, also a tumor in my side. Through Dr. Darrin's electric and medical skill all my afflictions are a thing of the past. It was with the greatest difficulty I was able to go to the doctor's office, so great was my weakness and nervous debility. Now I am able to work, and feel well. Mr. Matthews' case is certainly wonderful, but no less so than the following cures which we briefly refer to:

S. S. Whitman, Monmouth, Or.—Deafness and ringing noises in the ears twelve years,—greatly benefited and noises cured.

Mrs. F. A. Morris, Newberg, Or.—Asthma and bronchitis ten years, restored two years ago.

Mrs. A. Siro's daughter, 348 Colum big street, Portland.—Cross-eyed all her life, cured in one minute.

Jenkins Jones, 307 Ninth street, Seattle, Wash.—Cured of shaking and tremulous hands and head, or palsy.

E. A. Shaw, Forest Grove, Or.—Total deafness, so far restored as to be able to read ordinary conversation.

John Leighton, 2524 Madison street, Seattle, Wash.—Deafness of fifteen years standing cured in fifteen minutes.

Owing to hard times, Dr. Darrin will give electric treatment for $5 a week, or in that proportion, as the cases may require. An exception made in surgical operations. The poor free daily from 10 to 11; those able to pay, 10 to 5; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. All curable chronic, acute, private and wasting diseases, including stricture, hydrocele and varicocele, cancers, tumors and all malignant diseases treated successfully and cures guaranteed and never published. Office, 70 1/2 Washington street, Portland, surgical operations skillfully performed. Consultation free, and strictly confidential. Send for question blank and circular.

NOT OF THAT FAITH. To the voters of Matlman and Dairy Precincts, Morrow County, Or. We understand that we have been nominated by the democratic convention respectively, for Justice of the peace and constable for Matlman and Dairy precincts. As we are not democrats, we will not accept the nomination for them. Our names were used without our consent and after telling them we would not accept the nomination from them.

Yours truly, C. M. HOGUE, FRANK CHAMBER, HARDMAN, Or., April 18, 1892.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's or have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Slocum-Johnston Drug Co.

PEOPLE'S PARTY SPEAKING. Mrs. S. E. V. Emery, author of "The Seven Financial Conspiracies," a well-informed lady and an able speaker, will address the people of Morrow county, on the political issues of the day, on the dates following: At Liberty school-house, Saturday May 7th; Gooseberry, Sunday, May 8th; Hardman, Monday, May 9th; Heppner, Tuesday, May 10th; Lexington, Wednesday May 11th, Each meeting will convene at 2 p. m., except Heppner, which will be at 7 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend—especially members of the old parties.

FIXE TYMBER.—Perhaps, the best timber growing in the Blue mountains can be found on Rock creek, in the vicinity of Will Mallory's saw-mill. This class of timber Mr. Mallory is using in making lumber which he delivering in Heppner all the way from $15 to $30 per thousand feet, depending on the quality, and whether desired rough or dressed. The same can be bought at the mill at prices ranging from $8 to $25 per thousand. He has a general assortment on hand at present, and is sure to satisfy customers. 427-14.

A Warning—Don't Use Big Words.

In promulgating esoteric quotations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your statements possess a clarified consciousness, compacted comprehensibility, consistent consistency and a concentrated energy. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and assinine affectations. In trying to impress upon others the superiority of the Wisconsin Central Lines, and why you and so many others use this thoroughfare from St. Paul and Minneapolis and Duluth and Ashland to Milwaukee, Chicago and points east and south, it is not necessary to use jaw-breakers. Let your extemporaneous descantings and unpreparedated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rhodomontade or theatrical bombast. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, pedantic vacuity, ventriloquial verbosity and windloquient rapidity, slum double entendres, prurient jocosity and pestiferous profanity, obscure or apparent. In other words talk plainly, naturally, sensibly and truthfully say the Wisconsin Central Lines is THE ROUTE, and that ends it. 465-11.

What is it? That produces that beautiful, soft, delicate complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer: WILDON'S FAMOUS ROBERTS. No lady's toilet complete without it.

AN ERROR.—Heppner, Gentry and Mount Vernon precincts are entitled to only one justice and one constable, W. A. Kirk and J. J. Roberts, being, respectively, the nominees for those offices. G. W. Rea and Tom Morgan were not nominated. Voters will please note the correction.

TENTH YEAR.—The proprietors of this family paper forgot to mention before, that along about March 29, 1892 was the "Only" Heppner Gazette's ninth birthday, being now in its tenth year. Well, it is not too late at this juncture to say that in its tenth year it hopes to be more useful than ever before, and that its value locally may increase as it grows older and wiser. The Gazette first published itself to a criticizing public, Mar 29, 1883, and though passing through many vicissitudes, it yet comes to the center, and now twice a week.

OUR PREMIUMS.—Any new subscriber or old subscriber renewing, cash in advance at the price of our semi-weekly, $3, can have any of the following great papers, one year, without extra charge: New York World, Chicago Inter-Ocean, St. Louis Republic, St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Louisville Courier-Journal, Cincinnati Enquirer, Cincinnati Gazette, New York Sun, New York Times, New York Tribune, Alliance Herald, Pendleton, Or., National Economist (Alliance), Washington, D. C., or any other paper in the known world having a subscription price of $1 per year. Should you want any other paper in connection with the Gazette, call on us. By this arrangement our subscribers cannot fail, to keep posted on the news of the day, and from all portions of the universe. 77-14.

J. Roberts is back again buying wool in this vicinity.

J. G. Porter, the wool buyer of Oregon City, is here again. Grant Robison, an old time shearer, is on deck again this year.

J. H. Edwards says he has the best piece of grain in Morrow county.

Hon. H. Blackman will take in California before his return from below.

Albert Omin is some taller than usual, and he says it is a girl, born April 14th.

'Gene' Vaughan came over from Pendleton yesterday to visit his old friends in Heppner.

A crew of sixteen shearers finished up Lum Rhea's bands yesterday, and are resting in Heppner.

A. G. Bartholomew, who has the mail contract between Heppner and Echo, was with us Tuesday.

E. P. Sine, E. L. Paiburg, Wm. Blair, Chas. Luedenfeld, D. H. Crow, of Lexington, are in town today.

Wm. Douglas, of Batter creek, supplied some of our people some very choice apples yesterday.

Wm. Blair, candidate for county clerk on the alliance ticket, he proposes to be, was in town Monday last.

Rev. W. E. Poteine held services in the Baptist church last evening, leaving for Pendleton this morning.

Frank Whetstone returned from Long Creek Monday of this week, highly pleased with the town over there.

Dr. B. F. Vaughan pulls teeth without pain, by use of nitrous oxide. Filling by the latest and most improved method.

H. S. Loomis' article in the Daily and Weekly Oregonian is well worth what it cost our citizens—about fifty subscriptions.

There are some trout in Willow, but no hordes of them. No trout, No, not yet, but they'll be ripe in a few weeks.

LATER.—We learn that the trout are enticible and are being caught in large numbers.
