THIRD PARTY POLITICS.

Morrow County Alliance Meets at Lexington.

THE WHOLE TICKET BY ACCLAMATION.

An Enthusiastic Gathering—Alliance People Well Satisfied With Their Efforts. The allies of the alliance, true to their party fealty, put wind and weather at defiance...

The allies of the alliance, true to their party fealty, put wind and weather at defiance, and with the infatuation of a first love, gathered together in convention yesterday at their appointed headquarters in Lexington to nominate their first county ticket.

Inclement skies proved no obstacle, and from nearly every precinct of the county a full delegation answered to the roll-call. The convention met promptly at 10:30 a. m., at the M. E. church, every seat being occupied, wives, sweethearts and fair faces composing fully half the audience.

Mr. E. P. Sine called the convention to order, and, after several songs by the Alliance Glee Club, stated the object and purposes of the convention. E. B. Stanton was chosen temporary chairman and C. M. Hogue temporary secretary.

A committee on resolutions, consisting of Mr. Frank H. Snow, chairman, and Heman Caldwell, J. H. Jones, B. F. King and L. W. Lewis, was the next order of business. On permanent organization, Geo. W. Chapman, J. M. Kees and Wm. Blair were selected.

At this juncture the Glee Club was again called upon, rendering several well chosen alliance and patriotic songs. This was followed by Mr. Sine's introduction to the assembly of Mr. L. W. Lewis, of Hardman, who made a stirring people's party speech, setting forth the fundamental principles of the alliance, with a vigor of address and correctness of conviction that won from the first the indorsement and applause of his hearers.

Mr. Lewis arraigned the two dominant parties, and charged them with failing, since 1892, in legislation conserving the interests of the rural and laboring communities. After touching upon national war measures, finance, the banking system, demoralization of silver, the credit strengthening act, the repudiating act and recent class legislation, he read the people's party platform, as adopted by the St. Louis convention, and discussed the several leading issues, upon which the alliance grounds its faith and offers relief measures to the people.

He closed his thirty-minute speech with an appeal to place only such persons in nomination as were in signal accord with the sworn tenets of the party. His speech met with universal approval, and was applauded to the echo. The convention then adjourned, to meet at 1:30 p. m.

Chairman Stanton tapped the gavel at the appointed time; the Glee Club ennobled up the convention's enthusiasm with a song, and Secretary Hogue being absent, N. A. Leach was chosen assistant secretary. The report of the committee on permanent organization was then called for. It had decided that a regular list of county officers should be placed in the field. The report was accepted.

The committee on resolutions read its report which was accepted as read. The St. Louis party platform was then again read, for final enlightenment of all who expected to vote, after which the following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted: LEXINGTON, Or., Apr. 21, 1892. To the People's Party Nominating Assembly of Morrow County.

faithful of any party to be registered in a county before a party ticket can be placed in nomination, the supreme moment was now arrived for showing down the party head, which was done by a call for representatives from each precinct, to come forward and sign the roll and declare their intentions.

This was done with expedition amidst much acclaim, as the different precincts roared their strength. Eight Mile precinct was called, and a host rose up, like Cadmus' troops, spontaneous from the soil, and eagerly filed into line, anxious to grasp the pen that was to sign the Magna Charta of their emancipation. Lexington was equally strong. As the last man laid down the pen and returned to his seat with a declaration of independence look on his face, the secretary announced a total registration of 169 indivicibles, and the air was rent with applause.

A TICKET BY ACCLAMATION. Nominations were next in order. The following ticket was now indorsed by acclamation, as fast as the names were called by the convention: L. W. Lewis, Hardman, Rep.; E. B. Stanton, Eight Mile, Judge; J. M. Kees Stone, Sheriff; Wm. Blair, Lexington, Clerk; J. E. Scribner, Hardman, Treas.; M. Luez Voruz, Heppner, School Supt.; H. Caldwell, Eight Mile, Assessor; J. W. Redford, Cecil, Surveyor; Geo. Snippley, Black Horse, Coroner.

The long and short term commissioners were balloted for, B. F. King of Jones being chosen to the former, and J. H. Jones, of Eight Mile, to the latter. After the convention had rounded out its ticket with a full corps of county officers, the following precincts added nominees for justice and constable to their ticket: EIGHT MILE AND DRY FORD. C. E. JONES, Justice; Wm. Ingrum, Constable; IONE, CECIL AND CASTLE ROCK. A. D. KING, Justice; JAMES NUNEMAKER, Constable; MATTESON AND BARRY. C. M. HOGUE, Justice; FRANK GRAMER, Constable; LEXINGTON, LENA AND ALPINE. J. L. GIBSON, Justice; D. A. PORTER, Constable.

As this closed the active business of the convention, it adjourned, after a chorus by the Glee Club, for congratulations, and to drill for the 6th of June. WHAT THEY SAY. That the campaign will prove an eye-opener. That the alliance motto is, "We are the people."

That the people's party propose to purify politics. That a ticket that calls out sweethearts and wives should reign. That there are political surprises in store for Morrow county. That L. W. Lewis would poll a larger majority if the ladies could vote.

That Eight Mile will be fully that far ahead of the other tickets on June 6th. That there are bachelors enough in the county to elect a lady school superintendent. That a joint discussion between the orator representative candidates would please the people.

That the farmers' wives and daughters propose to influence the husbands' and lovers' votes this year. That the alliance picnic at Penland's Grove, Lexington, May 1st, should draw together every indorser of the party. GENUINE ARTICLES—Mocha and Java as well as other grades of fine coffees, can be found at J. Cohn's. 73-1f.

BRING THEM BACK—"Pap" Simons has loaned out a brace and bit, a two-inch auger, a hand-saw and other tools. If the parties are through with them, they will kindly return and oblige. 80f.

COWS FOR SALE—Geo. Swagart has about fifty head of fine Holstein heifers and older cows, fine milkers, all gentle. If you want a good milk cow call on him at the Elia ranch and take your pick. Will sell reasonable. 80-3. DRESSMAKING—Mrs. W. Warren wishes to announce to the ladies of Heppner and vicinity that she is now prepared to do dressmaking and would be pleased to see her old customers at her new dressmaking parlors, over Spray Bros' butcher shop. 475-82-1.

JUDGES AND CLERKS APPOINTED—At a recent meeting of the town council, the following were selected to conduct the special election, at which bonds are to be voted on to the amount of $15,000: Judges, E. G. Sloan, A. Wright and W. A. Kirk; clerks, Gov. Rea and J. P. Williams. The election will occur May 3rd, 1892. WILL REPEAL IT—The ordinance passed by Heppner's council on Tuesday evening was found to be so incomplete, that it is necessary to repeal it by passing another. If the town should elect to bond itself for $15,000 a sinking fund must be provided for, as well as some provision for the payment of interest as it comes due. As will be seen in the ordinance passed, there is no provision for a sinking fund or for the council to levy more than the ordinary two and one half mill tax. It is quite necessary to go into all business matters in a business like way, hence the change.

NO MORE BACK ACHE OREGON KIDNEY TEA CURE ALL KIDNEY TROUBLES

Recently the following notice appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle: "Judge B.—had been sick only about two weeks, and it was not until the last three or four days that he finally took a serious turn. At the beginning of his illness he suffered from diabetes and stomach distress. Later his kidneys refused to perform their functions and he passed quietly away. This ended the life of one of the most prominent men in California. Like thousands of others his untimely death was the result of neglecting early symptoms of kidney disease."

IF YOU are troubled with diabetes, gravel, or any derangement of the kidneys or urinary organs, don't delay proper treatment until you are forced to give up your daily duties; don't waste your money on worthless medicines and worse plasters, but strike at the seat of the disease at once by using the greatest of all known remedies, the celebrated Oregon Kidney Tea. It has saved the lives of thousands. Why should it not cure you? Try it. Purely vegetable and pleasant to take. $1.00 a package, 6 for $5.00.
