So long as the Portland Telegram could bellow, "Ellis, the Moody man," "Ellis, the enemy to an open river," "a vote for Ellis means a vote for Chinese immigration," etc., etc., without any interruption, it was fine sailing. It has done so with out the shadow of foundation or semb lance of truth in any of its accusationsabsolutely nothing which it might clothe in rhetorical bombast to besmirch the principles and good standing of W. R. Ellis. But the frail skeleton of wind has been dressed to death to hide the weak subterfuge of "a what is it?" and given up the ghost in the minds of thinking people all over Oregon. As an independent paper, the Gazette would ask the Telegram, just for information, if Mr. Slater ever returned to the government the increase in salary, $2000 a year, received through the "salary grab" act, at the time Mr. Slater was a member of congress from Oregon? It our memory is not faulty, that increase m salaries, known as the "salary grab," was a great "bogie man" in the ranks of the faithful; so much so indeed that they demanded their congressmen to return to the government the raise in salary. If Slater has not done so, he stands in a pen to fall in its own ranks.

Ex-Senator Shater's election as congressman from this district is about as probable as would be Victoria Woodhull's election to the presidential office of the United States. He will not even receive the full vote of his party. Failure at the polls, will not, however, be attributable to lack of respect, because all parties unite in paying tribute to his personal worth and in honoring the man for services rendered in his prime. The work of congress demands a man in the full vigor of life, and in touch with modern thought, and the young voters of Oregon cannot be brought to the support of men who live in the past. They will have little interest in a campaign begun by the reading of congressional records twenty years old. Ellis' triumphant election is beyond question.-Pendleton Tribune.

The Ideal Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

For more than fifty years Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda have been used for leavening purposes with sufficient flour added to preserve the strength of the powder unimpaired, and this with the addition of whites of eggs comprises this pure and wholesome leavening agent, that has been the standard for 40 years. In its use pure, wholesome and delicious food is always assured.

The consumption of brandy in Stockholm has decreased during the last fourteen years with about one-third, computed per individual. A somewhat encouraging phase of the earnest temperance movement of that self-indulgent metropolis.

Somewhat more than a year ago the favorite actress of the Royal Dramatic Theatre in Stockholm, beautiful Mrs. Ellen Hartman, eloped with Count Reinhold von Rosen, making for the shores of America, as the count had monetary expectations from his grandmother, an American lady in Boston. But arrived in Liverpool, the runaway couple was overtaken by the count's brother, who persuaded him to abanden his fair prize, and return home, with which he complied. Had such an action taken place in the Southern States of America, it might, perhaps, have brought the craven seducer within the noose of lynch law. The misguided fair one bethought bertall and view of the misguided fair one bethought the craven.
