A Gale Sweeps Through Jackson Park, Doing Much Damage.

THREE MEN ARE BADLY INJURED

Massive Timbers, Trestles and Piers of the World's Fair Buildings Blown About Like Matchsticks.

CHICAGO, April 29.—During a gale that swept through Jackson Park yesterday afternoon, sections of the south and west walls of the manufacturers' and liberal arts buildings of the world's fair were wrecked. This is the biggest building on the grounds. One tornado followed another. About 1:30 p. m., the first one hit the big building at the southeast corner, and tore out 100 feet of the lattice-work that served as a wall. Three men were injured in the wreck—Charles Sandow, A. Johnson and W. B. Johnson. Half an hour later another tornado tore through the park, and in its path left the wreck of the west wall, 100 feet long and sixty-six feet high. Nobody was injured in the fall. When the first section tumbled down all the employees climbed down from the building. Nearly all of them were crowded about the wrecked section when the second tornado did the greatest damage. Scores of workmen would have been carried down had falling timbers had the west section driven away from the east wall. They hurried down before the second section fell. The wind blew great gusts all day, but the laborers kept their work. After the first wreck, the architect ordered the carpenter work on the building, ordered his men to make ready for another shock by bracing the weaker sections of the building. He was confident that the west wall would hold against any storm, but had less confidence in the strength of the east wall, which stretches 1715 feet along the lake shore and is fully exposed to the winds. Before his orders could be carried out, a second gale swept through the park. It also came from the southwest and rushed through the building with frightful velocity. The tornado seemed to describe a circle across the building, and to strike the extreme north-west corner of the building. The first damage was done at the southeast corner. The massive timbers trembled and shook for an instant before the blast. The whole section rocked, and a deafening roar sounded through the building. One of the heavy wall-piers at the very corner of the building snapped and plumed forward with the coast wind, and as it fell it carried down the next pier south of it. The whole wall crumbled, falling down by piers and trusses, like so many blocks in a row. In an instant the entire section, 700 feet long and sixty-six feet high, was piled on the floor. The few workmen who remained at their posts went down with the wreck, but escaped injury. Three of them jumped to save themselves from the damage to the building. The damage to the building is estimated at $2,000,000. This building is the largest fair building in the world. It is 1700 feet long by 150 feet wide, and will cost $1,500,000.

A PECULIAR SHOOTING CASE.

A Young Man Leads a Dual Life and is Not Accountable for His Crime.

SANTA ROSA, April 29.—Ed J. Livernash, the young man who created a sensation in San Francisco last October by appearing on the streets disguised as a negro woman, and who, the morning of October 29, created great excitement in Cloverdale, by attempting to kill D. Etheridge, of that place, has been held to appear before the superior court for Livernash's preliminary hearing. The trial was held before Justice Abraham, of Cloverdale, two weeks ago, but a decision was not rendered until this afternoon. The trial promises to be one of the most interesting ever held in California. Livernash claims to have been in a somnambulant condition when he made his attempt to kill Etheridge, and that he knows nothing about the affair. The morning of the assault he went to Etheridge's home and ordered him to get up. He was in his favor, leaving him all his property. Etheridge demurred, and then Livernash fired four shots at him, two of which took effect, but only slight wounds were inflicted. Livernash was arrested, and told such wild stories about having put bullet holes into Judge Johnstone, of San Francisco, who, he said, had assumed the person of Etheridge, that he was examined for insanity and committed to Napa asylum. A few weeks ago he was discharged from that institution and pronounced cured. He was then brought back here to answer to the criminal charge preferred against him. At the preliminary examination at Cloverdale, Doctors Gardner and Robertson, of Napa, testified that Livernash was subject to a somnambulant influence that once he was in a condition of dual life, and that when in his somnambulant state he was not accountable for what he did. In their opinion he was in that condition when he made the attempt to kill Etheridge. Opinion is divided upon the matter among the Sonoma county people, and the case will be stubbornly contested on both sides.

THE INVESTIGATION COMMENCED.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—In the house, the committee on banking and currency yesterday began the investigation ordered by the Mutchler resolution into the failures of the Keystone and Spring Garden National banks of Philadelphia. The committee was composed of Charles D. Rowley, chairman, and Messrs. Sweeney, Sargent, and Sargent. The committee was informed by John Sargent, assistant bookkeeper and collector of the Keystone National bank, that he knew where the books of the bank were in which the false entries had been made. The witness said Lawrence, one of the employees, kept the books in part of which he made the forged balances. The amounts were doctored by rubbing them off the book and making false charges. Sargent said he saw Lawrence make an entry for John Bardley for $40,000 or $50,000. He said they put him out of the bank one night while they doctored the books, and that imitations of his handwriting had been on the books, which, upon seeing them, at first, he thought actually his.

WHITEGAPS AT WORK.

A Deposed Minister Taught a Severe Lesson by Angry Citizens. Knoxville, Tenn., April 29.—Twenty men last night surrounded the home of Rufus Jenkins, a deposed minister, near Danbridge, and ordered him to surrender. He answered their summons by firing into the crowd with a shotgun. The house was set on fire and Jenkins was rendered. His face was filled with small shot and his body mutilated by the gang. The woman with whom Jenkins is charged with living has disappeared. This morning W. A. Givens, a merchant and influential citizen living at Danbridge, found posted on his door a document notifying him to remain indoors after dark or he would be forcibly dealt with. The whitecaps are a portion of the Anti-Lost Cause organization, which formed in Jefferson county sixty days ago. They are believed to be composed of farmers who have become tired of the way in which some residents conduct themselves.

A DEMAND THAT JUSTICE BE DONE

Chief White Ghost Writes the Department About It, and Makes Threats If Promises Are Not Kept.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., April 29.—Several thousand dollars were sent to Crow Creek agency a day or two ago by the government for distribution among the Indians. Chief White Ghost and other leaders at the agency refused to receive the money, and White Ghost has now sent the following threatening letter to the commissioner of Indian affairs at Washington: "The Indian agent at Crow Creek agency is making a cash payment of about $3 per capita. Myself, and seven other chiefs and a majority of the Indians here have hesitated to receive this money, and if we refuse to receive it we are threatened by the agent that we will be deprived of seeds for the season's planting. I can get no satisfaction from the agent as to where the money, now being distributed, comes from. I know what rights we may be surrendering when we receive for the money, so I write you for information and ask you for an immediate reply to me in person, and not through the agent. "When the Sioux Indians signed the treaty by which they ceded a large part of their reservation to the government, there was an unwritten contract, but a honor just as binding, to the effect that the Indians of Crow Creek agency were to receive about $15,000 in consideration of the fact that their diminished reservations left them less land per capita than Indians of other Sioux reservations. What has become of that money? And has the appropriation been made by Congress? "Again, we Sioux, when the treaty referred to above was signed, were promised, in addition to cattle, horses, etc., $50 per capita to assist us in building houses. That promise, too, seems to have been forgotten, and many of my people are living in decayed log huts, exposed to the inclemency of the weather. This is bringing on disease and sickness. "Why will the government be so unjust? Why will it not give us what is due and promised us, instead of doing out small payments like that now being made? Does the government wish more bloodshed, and will it refuse us justice unless demanded at the muzzle of a gun? Is not the bloodshed at Wounded Knee a sufficient reminder of the wrongs perpetrated upon us, and the desperate attitude into which we have been driven? "I beg to ask Mr. Commissioner, to lay these facts before the president, to justify and demand justice for us at their hands. "Accidentally Shot Himself. NEW YORK, April 29.—News has been received here of a fatal accident which happened last night to Thomas Oliver Spear, the well known architect, at his residence in South Orange, N. J. Spear had been shot by a revolver which he was using to clean. The weapon was accidentally discharged. He fell to the floor and soon after died.

SENATOR STANFORD TALKS.

The People's Party as Viewed by Him—The Palo Alto Visitor. STANFORD, Cal., April 29.—Senator Leland Stanford, of California, passed through Pittsburg this morning on his way to Washington. "The people's, or independent party, will certainly have a candidate in the field this fall," he said. "With a national debt of $2,000,000,000, an enormous railway indebtedness, half the land mortgaged, and the load growing heavier, it is time that measures of relief be taken. In the West, particularly, they need more money or more money. The people's party hope to get it. I do not know who their candidate will be. I presume Mr. Harrison and Mr. Cleveland will be the respective candidates of their parties. There is the general impression of the West." Regarding his university at Palo Alto, the senator said he was making accommodations for 500 more pupils.

WORKING FOR LIBERTY.

Impressed Wyoming Stockmen Trying to Checkmate Their Enemies. CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 29.—The stockmen imprisoned in Fort Russell are moving heaven and earth to defeat the attempt to return them to Johnson county. They are fighting with the lawyers to place four of the alleged lawbreakers, who are working like Trojans on the case. They only assert the case shall not be tried by public opinion. Too much excitement, they think, has been occasioned already. It is now thought that it was a mistake to move the prisoners from Fort McKinley, where, under military protection, they were safe, and where, had they remained, the dangers of the return to Buffalo, should it become necessary, would have been avoided.

WERE PROBABLY DROWNED.

Fears Entertained for the Safety of Two Prospectors.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 29.—Grave fears are entertained as to the safety of John Ingels and Steve Vaughn, who left last November in an open boat on a prospecting and trapping expedition to the Yukon. The boat was blown out to sea in the middle of December by Frank Rothwell, who was also on a similar trip to that region. When they left Alert Bay they only took provisions to last until March 1, the time they expected to return. Inquiries have been made of all the steamers and canoes coming down the coast, and no one appears to have seen or heard anything of them. It is feared they have met with some accident, as Cape Canton and the adjacent waters are not very safe for boats. Vaughn has a wife and family in Seattle.

A BIG CONSPIRACY.

Liquor Firms Combine to Defraud a Bank. DENVER, April 29.—A sensational exposure was made during the trial of the attachment suit against the defunct liquor firm of Boehm & Co. by the First National bank. The firm failed for $250,000. A member of the Board of City Directors has testified that the trial of the trial of Boehm & Co. and Nagle & Becker, liquor brokers of Chicago, had entered into a conspiracy, whereby the former was to purchase through their goods enough to amount to $4,000,000 and to fail. The Chicago firm to share the profits. In this way over $50,000 worth was disposed of in Chicago, Denver and the East. An attachment of the bank was declared void because of the discovery of the paper was not given for a consideration.

SUFFERING FOR FOOD.

Terrible Effect of the Drought in Southern Texas. CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, April 29.—The distribution of food sent from this section to the famine sufferers on the Rio Grande in the Rio Grande section here yesterday, when rations were issued to five hundred people, some of whom were actually starving. Unless further assistance is soon had many sufferers will die. The great distress is reported from the country back from Rio Grande where there are many people who had had hundreds of cattle before the drought but are now destitute, their stock having died.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Colonel Remington, Receiver a Ball Intended for a Squared. THE DALLAS, April 29.—Col. J. E. Remington, a veteran of the civil war, aged 70, was accidentally shot this morning by his grandson, a boy of 17. The boy was trying to shoot a squirrel near the house, when the pistol was accidentally discharged and the ball passed through the outer wall of the colonel's residence, striking him in the right thigh. Beyond the wound the pistol was accidentally discharged. The prospects are that the enterprise will be started this fall.

NO MONGEROUS WANTED.

SACRAMENTO, April 28.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the state board of agriculture today the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the reported action of the National Fruitgrowing Company of San Francisco in arranging for the introduction of mongeese into California, is by the state board of agriculture deprecated, and that the said company be petitioned to refrain from importing said animal into this state, as we believe it more dangerous than ground squirrels or soppers."

STOCKYARDS FOR LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 29.—The chamber of commerce is endeavoring to establish in this vicinity a large packing-house and stockyards. A number of practical packers representing a capital of $15,000,000 have been here and have looked over the ground. They say one bushel of corn will make more pork here than three bushels in Kansas or Illinois. The prospects are that the enterprise will be started this fall. Killed by a Falling Chain. MARQUETTE, Cal., April 29.—An accident in which Mrs. John Soderland, the wife of a well-known rancher lost her life, occurred last evening about five miles west of here. She was watching some chain men erect a windmill, when a chain broke and knocked her inexcusable. She died without recovering consciousness.

SEVEN BURNED TO DEATH.

A Terrible Holocaust in a Philadelphia Theater. PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The destruction of the Grand Central Theatre by fire last night proves far more terrible in its results than anticipated. Six members of the "Devils Auction Company" lie dead beneath the fallen walls, and nearly three score people in the hospital suffering from burns. Of the men and boys in the hospital seven are such serious cases that their recovery is doubtful. All the members of the audience, besides those seriously enough hurt to remain in hospital, and fully fifty others, are being treated for minor injuries. The members of the company who lost their lives are: Thos. Lrella, Grotosque, and wife, Flora, a Ballet dancer; Incensina Chitten, the premier danseuse; One of Chilton's sisters; Fanchon Chilton, juvenile; Sarah Golden, ballet dancer; Wm L. Brooks, leading man.

A TOWN BURNED UP.

Hudson, O., April 28.—A fire in Cayuga this morning resulted in the burning to death of a man and woman. The bodies are unrecognizable. Several others were badly burned.

TUPPER INTERVIEWED.

He Thinks the Modus Vivendi Will Work Greatly. OTTAWA, April 28.—Bertram, of North Sydney, Cape Breton, owner of the Nova Scotia sealing schooner, now on the way to Behring sea, had an interview with Sir Charles Tupper, minister of marine and fisheries, respecting the recent proclamation of the modus vivendi. He made strong representations to Tupper of the loss which the restriction of sealing will cause. From the harbor of North Sydney alone, seven sealing schooners now being sent to the round Cape Horn are bound for Behring sea. Bertram says the modus vivendi will be hard on Nova Scotia owners of sealing schooners, that almost the whole of the vessels reported to them would be to have their vessels driven ashore by a storm so long as the crews are not lost. In that case they would have the insurance. Tupper is not able to give the solution until the next election. ### SILVER MEN ARE MAD.

They Have Given up All Hopes of Silver Legislation at This Session. NEW YORK, April 28.—The Herald's Washington special sends the following: "For the sake of a few New England mine owners, the great majority of the members of democratic states, declared Congressman Bland today. Bland has apparently given up all hope of silver legislation at the present session of congress. He named North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas as likely to be lost. He characterized the proposition for a monetary conference as merely a political trick on the part of the president to tide over the solution of the next election. The views of Bland seem to be shared by Hugh Alabama. "Hunting" was the ejaculation of Senator Stewart of Nevada when asked what he thought of the president's plan for an international silver conference.

A SAD AFFAIR.

A Boston County Farmer Blows Off the Top of His Head. CORVALLIS, April 28.—Al Modi, a farmer living near this city, shot himself, he thought he had killed a snake. He was yesterday morning and drew nearly a hundred dollars out of the bank. He gave the money to his sister and took a rifle out, presumably to kill a pheasant near the house. He had gone but a short distance when the gun was discharged and blew off the top of his head. It is not known whether it was accident or suicide.

OUR MERCHANT MARINE.

Twelve Vessels Loading With Wheat, and One Carrying the American Flag. SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Yesterday there were twelve vessels in port under engagement for wheat, etc., to Europe, and four of them had charters for a new crop loading. All but four were iron steamers, and the entire tonnage was American vessels. Each has Continental options. Vessels are now seldom chartered for a direct port, though occasionally a charter calls for such option. Rates of vessels already engaged for a new crop loading range from 28.94 to 32.90, one having accepted the first name, two the latter and on 308. Total amount of a charge under the engagement was $1,000,000, against 48,100 tons on corresponding date last year. There were in port yesterday fifty-eight disengaged vessels, having an aggregate tonnage of 102,700 tons, against only 50,000 tons yesterday. The fleet comprised forty-four British vessels, thirteen American and one Nicaraguan. Disengaged vessels are located at various points. Of the disengaged vessels the longest iron ship Andrea has been the longest in port, having a tonnage of 10,000. Four of the disengaged vessels are iron, the inward coal fleet contributed thirty-seven of the fifty-eight vessels now disengaged. At night sailing vessels were engaged to carry disengaged vessels, representing 17,900 tons of tonnage, against 19,000 tons of the same date last year. The head of miscellaneous charters there were five, including the official load lumber for England, one takes lumber to Sydney, two go to New York with general cargoes, and three others load merchandise, one each for Honolulu, Central America and Mexico. Total amount of tonnage of all classes on the way to this port yesterday was 219,800 tons, against 272,200 tons on the corresponding date last year. Wheat freights are nominally quoted at 23.60 for iron, United Kingdom, Havre or Antwerp.

Advices bearing date March 26 state that at that time there were one hundred vessels, known to be poachers, and flying either the American flag or the flag of some other nation. Little seal was taken, and the whalers, although a few sea otter have been killed.

INSTRUCTED FOR HARRISON.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 28.—The state republican convention today nominated Major William Warner of Kansas City for governor by acclamation. The platform adopted was a combination of Jeffersonianism, statesmanship and patriotism, especially in his foreign policy. It complies the name of Blaine with the latter and instructs its delegates for Harrison.

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS.

ALBANY, April 28.—It was said this morning that the sentiment among the delegates to the republican convention is generally for Harrison, that it would not be necessary to instruct the national delegates for him. Chairman Brookfield, in a state committee, called the convention to order at noon.

TWO BRUTES LYING.

Nashville, April 28.—A telephone message from Goodensville says that four negroes were lynched and two others shot at. The cause of the lynching was that the negroes brutally outraged two respectable white girls named Nellie and Sadie Bruce, aged 18 and 14. A California Man Robbed of $750. CHICAGO, April 27.—Sunday afternoon Joseph Ward arrived from Oakland, Cal., with $800 in his pocket. He spent the afternoon and night drinking in a state saloon, and toward morning three rascals hangers on held him up and robbed him of the $750. His assailants were arrested.

The California Express Ditched Near Myrtle Creek, Oregon.

ROBBERY THE OBJECT OF THE WRECK

The Engineer and Fireman Badly Injured, But Fortunately No One Killed. A Miraculous Escape.

MYRTLE CREEK STATION, Oregon, April 28.—The North-bound California express was wrecked a mile north of here this morning. The wreck was the work of train wreckers. Two ties were placed across the track and the engine and mail and express cars were derailed. Engineer Morris jumped and was cut and bruised about the head and otherwise injured. Fireman Geo. Golling was caught between the tender and train. His legs were broken in three places and he was also severely scalped. Two tramps were between the express and mail cars. One was caught and badly injured. The accident was fortunately the fact that no one was killed. The engine lies on the right side of the track and the tender is jammed into the cab. The mail car is partly on the engine, one side being torn away. The postal clerk, who was on duty by a miracle. He was in the back end of the car carrying up the Roseburg mail. Express Messenger Applepie was standing before the desk when the crash came and seized the books on his head and swung himself off the floor. The freight was all thrown into the front of the car. The Messenger says: "I would have been killed sure, if I had stayed on the floor. The train fell toward the bank. There is a steep bank sloping to the river, and if the train had gone over the bank loss of life would have been fearful. Wrecking trains are at hand and the wreck is being cleared away. The track is torn up nearly two hundred feet. There is no clue to the perpetrators, but robbery is supposed to have been the object, and was given up for some reason unknown."

AWAITING A DECISION.

Two Important Suits Filed in the Superior Court of California. FRESCO, Cal., April 28.—Two important suits were begun in the superior court yesterday by Laura J. Hildreth, administrator of the estate of Thomas Hildreth, et al., against Jeff James, J. B. White et al. One is to set aside judgment obtained by the defendants against the plaintiffs in the superior court of this county, the purpose of said suit being to quiet a title to the land containing nearly 14,000 acres. The plaintiffs in the first suit filed yesterday claim that the said judgment was fraudulently obtained by the suppression of certain evidence, consisting of a mortgage on the property of Thomas Hildreth to Charles McLaughlin to secure a loan of $40,000. Subsequently the late Mr. Hildreth made a contract of sale with W. Davis and D. P.
