

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

The Kansas delegation to the Chicago convention are in favor of Cleveland.

The Fashnagle, of Bochum, Germany, has commenced a damage suit against Bismarck for libel.

Harry Storrera, 19 years old, was drowned at New York Sunday by the capsizing of a sailboat.

Charles Smith, a tramp committed suicide on the Payallop Indian reservation Tuesday by hanging himself.

Ernest Rapp, a mechanic of Syracuse, N. Y., shot his wife and baby Thursday, and then killed himself.

F. Harkness, a deserter from the regular army, hanged himself in the city jail at Spokane last Friday.

The body of Thomas Burgoyne, one of the victims of the colliery disaster at Pottsville, Pa., was recovered Sunday.

In a row among a gang of tramps at Fairmont, W. Va., Sunday, pistols were drawn and three of them shot and killed.

Daniel Wedder, a farmhand near Endicott, Wash., died Saturday of blood poisoning, caused by the bite of a horse.

Georgeine Walters, of New York, has secured a verdict for $25,000 in a breach of promise case against inventor Schultz.

Two workmen named Knoll and Heydrick, who murdered the widow Loucheur, were beheaded at Goritz, Germany, last Saturday.

The residence of the late F. E. Eldridge, five miles from Gervais, Oregon, was destroyed by fire Thursday. The loss is about $8,000.

James A. Palmer, a trusted clerk of Thibault & Co., of New York, was arrested Thursday on a charge of stealing $50,000 of the firm's money.

The village of Trent, Germany, was struck by a cyclone Wednesday and six people were killed. A great deal of property was destroyed.

The bill introduced in the house by Clark of Wyoming, aims to give every woman over 21 years of age the right to vote for congressmen.

While some boys were playing in a sandpit at Toronto, Canada, Saturday, a slide occurred and three of the boys were smothered to death.

Orville Griffith, a prominent rancher near Dixie, Wash., was knocked down by a horse he was hitching Tuesday, and died a few hours afterward.

Several Indians are in the Grant county jail for driving 40 sheep belonging to W. H. Johnson over a precipice. They did it for the sake of the wool.

Ex-Postmaster L. C. Mason, of Tillamook, Oregon, was arrested Saturday on a charge of forging a money order. He will be taken to Portland for trial.

A two-story building in Baltimore was blown up by dynamite Tuesday and several occupants had a narrow escape. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

Louis Kuntz, a tall, shot Charles Evans Sunday, at Salt Lake, inflicting a wound which is not considered serious. A woman was the cause of the shooting.

A man named Coonan, a cook for Day camp, logging camp, Big Bear, Cal., committed suicide Tuesday by hanging himself. He is said to be well connected.

An official telegram from Annam, France, states that on April 30 a schooner drowned in the river Claire. Thirty soldiers and the ship's captain were drowned.

Hon. Patrick Greville Nugent was arrested in London, charged with having indecently assaulted a young lady named Price. He claims that it is a case of blackmail.

Gladwater, Tex., was in the path of a hurricane Wednesday, and when it had passed it was found an old negro woman had been killed and seven other people seriously injured.

A deal was completed Wednesday in San Francisco by which the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company takes the Pacific Coast business of the California Insurance Company.

Dominico Coella, the Port Townsend Italian murderer, was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary. A stay of execution is pending an appeal to the supreme court.

The people of Dayton are delighted with their water works, at a recent test from the street hydrants several streams of water being thrown each as high as the tallest flagpole in the city.

Typhoid fever has invaded the Pennsylvania military academy at Chester. Cadet Barrett is the third victim. Fatally attacked thus far. The sanitary conditions are reported to be good.

The property of General Ben Butler, in Lowell, Mass., was attached Tuesday for $50,000 by the Jewett Publishing Company, as the outcome of a suit about printing the general's memoirs.

John Leary, ex-mayor of Seattle, was married to Eliza P., daughter of Governor Ferry Tuesday. The affair was one of the most brilliant social events that ever took place in Olympia.

An investigation is being made to ascertain the guilt or innocence of the government officials at Baltimore. It is reported that the facts do not justify the dismissal of the alleged offenders.

An attempt on the life of Election Commissioner Charles Schweichthal of Chicago, was made Tuesday by Thomas Keenan, who lost his savings by the recent failure of Schweichthal's bank.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN ROBBERY.

The six-year-old son of W. Day, while walking along the river bank, near the Centennial mill, stumbled and fell into the river. The stream is very swift at that point and it is supposed that the body was carried over the falls.

The bureau of American republics is informed that in several places in Central America flour is now being made from bananas, which, under chemical analysis, is found to contain more nutriment than rice, beans or corn.

Harry Rogers flogged the Rev. Father O'Kane on the public streets of Eureka, Cal., with a horsewhip. The trouble grew out of assertions made reflecting on the honor of Rogers' life from the altar of the church some time ago.

It is admitted by Harrison's friends that he may incidentally talk politics with some of his friends while in New York at the laying of the cornerstone of the Grant monument, but they deny that to be his motive in going there.

Syl Harvel, who lives in the Kentucky mountains, was Thursday killed by his wife, whom he accused of intimacy with Alexander Brady. While the woman and Brady were running away they were seized by a mad bull and both killed.

At St. Albans, Vt., Sunday the locomotive attached to the south-bound cat train on the Central Vermont, plunged from an iron bridge into the river. Brakeman George T. Jolly, Engineer Babcock and Fireman Mitchell were severely injured.

Two large barns were burned at San Francisco, Sunday, and John Hand, a teamster, and sixteen horses were burned to death. Hand slept in the barn. It is supposed he was sleeping with a lighted candle in his mouth.

Arthur Freidman, a well-known pianist of New York, assaulted August Battenhauser, a ticket-taker at Amberg's theater, Wednesday night for refusing to pass him in. Battenhauser received a blow under the ear, and died in a few moments.

Ezrene Kaufman, postmaster at Riesel, a small town two miles south of Waco, Texas, was murdered Thursday by a woman named Battenhauser. A large band of regulators are on the trail, and will hang the murderers if they catch them.

People of Great Britain are becoming excited over the repeated outrages on women in railroad coaches. The carrying of baggage in the cars affords the scoundrels plenty of scope in these cases. The American passenger car is the only safe means of travel.

John Hartman, chief astronomer of Bierton observatory, Dechenbach, Prussia, was killed by a frightful accident. He went to the summit of the observatory to examine the apparatus. While there he overbalanced and fell to the ground. His neck was broken.

A well worn by a recently confirmed invalid, at high means in the Catholic church at Josephstadt, Austria, Tuesday, caught fire and a panic ensued. Many women and children fainted from the crush and were trampled upon. It is feared that several victims were fatally injured.

News comes from Scranton, Pa., that Mayor Feltz and P. A. Barrett, city editor of the Times, are arranging to knock out the enmity existing between them with bare knuckles. The indications are that it will be a fight to a finish, but it is likely to prove fatal.

The state election in Louisiana Tuesday was one of the hardest fought contests in the history of the state. There were five tickets in the field—two democratic, two republican and the people's party. Foster, candidate for governor on the regular republican ticket, was elected.

The well-known White Swan, situated twelve miles east of Baker City, from which nearly $100,000 in gold has been taken out of a shaft forty feet deep and fifty feet in diameter, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000—20,000 shares at a par value of $5 each.

Tuesday, John Bays, a farmer residing near Touchet, died from injuries received by being thrown from a horse the day previous. He got up after the accident and with his family about it. Later he was attacked with severe pains in the abdomen went to bed, and suffered terribly until relieved by death.

At Dayton, Wash., Sunday night forty masked men made an attack on a Chinese house house and ordered the Celestials under pain of death, to leave in twenty-four hours. The sheriff was informed and put guards over each house preventing the mob from further action. The mob's work is not sustained by the people at large.

Speaker Crisp and the ex-speaker from Maine had their usual bit-and-strike back in the house Monday. It ended with ex-speaker Reed straining a point to remark that Butler's conduct in the exhibition of temper on the part of the chair, to which the chair returned there should be no attempt at scolding on the part of the gentleman from Maine.

How They Did it in Doxey. Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN ROBBERY.

The six-year-old son of W. Day, while walking along the river bank, near the Centennial mill, stumbled and fell into the river. The stream is very swift at that point and it is supposed that the body was carried over the falls.

The bureau of American republics is informed that in several places in Central America flour is now being made from bananas, which, under chemical analysis, is found to contain more nutriment than rice, beans or corn.

Harry Rogers flogged the Rev. Father O'Kane on the public streets of Eureka, Cal., with a horsewhip. The trouble grew out of assertions made reflecting on the honor of Rogers' life from the altar of the church some time ago.

It is admitted by Harrison's friends that he may incidentally talk politics with some of his friends while in New York at the laying of the cornerstone of the Grant monument, but they deny that to be his motive in going there.

Syl Harvel, who lives in the Kentucky mountains, was Thursday killed by his wife, whom he accused of intimacy with Alexander Brady. While the woman and Brady were running away they were seized by a mad bull and both killed.

At St. Albans, Vt., Sunday the locomotive attached to the south-bound cat train on the Central Vermont, plunged from an iron bridge into the river. Brakeman George T. Jolly, Engineer Babcock and Fireman Mitchell were severely injured.

Two large barns were burned at San Francisco, Sunday, and John Hand, a teamster, and sixteen horses were burned to death. Hand slept in the barn. It is supposed he was sleeping with a lighted candle in his mouth.

Arthur Freidman, a well-known pianist of New York, assaulted August Battenhauser, a ticket-taker at Amberg's theater, Wednesday night for refusing to pass him in. Battenhauser received a blow under the ear, and died in a few moments.

Ezrene Kaufman, postmaster at Riesel, a small town two miles south of Waco, Texas, was murdered Thursday by a woman named Battenhauser. A large band of regulators are on the trail, and will hang the murderers if they catch them.

People of Great Britain are becoming excited over the repeated outrages on women in railroad coaches. The carrying of baggage in the cars affords the scoundrels plenty of scope in these cases. The American passenger car is the only safe means of travel.

John Hartman, chief astronomer of Bierton observatory, Dechenbach, Prussia, was killed by a frightful accident. He went to the summit of the observatory to examine the apparatus. While there he overbalanced and fell to the ground. His neck was broken.

A well worn by a recently confirmed invalid, at high means in the Catholic church at Josephstadt, Austria, Tuesday, caught fire and a panic ensued. Many women and children fainted from the crush and were trampled upon. It is feared that several victims were fatally injured.

News comes from Scranton, Pa., that Mayor Feltz and P. A. Barrett, city editor of the Times, are arranging to knock out the enmity existing between them with bare knuckles. The indications are that it will be a fight to a finish, but it is likely to prove fatal.

The state election in Louisiana Tuesday was one of the hardest fought contests in the history of the state. There were five tickets in the field—two democratic, two republican and the people's party. Foster, candidate for governor on the regular republican ticket, was elected.

The well-known White Swan, situated twelve miles east of Baker City, from which nearly $100,000 in gold has been taken out of a shaft forty feet deep and fifty feet in diameter, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000—20,000 shares at a par value of $5 each.

Tuesday, John Bays, a farmer residing near Touchet, died from injuries received by being thrown from a horse the day previous. He got up after the accident and with his family about it. Later he was attacked with severe pains in the abdomen went to bed, and suffered terribly until relieved by death.

At Dayton, Wash., Sunday night forty masked men made an attack on a Chinese house house and ordered the Celestials under pain of death, to leave in twenty-four hours. The sheriff was informed and put guards over each house preventing the mob from further action. The mob's work is not sustained by the people at large.

Speaker Crisp and the ex-speaker from Maine had their usual bit-and-strike back in the house Monday. It ended with ex-speaker Reed straining a point to remark that Butler's conduct in the exhibition of temper on the part of the chair, to which the chair returned there should be no attempt at scolding on the part of the gentleman from Maine.

How They Did it in Doxey. Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN ROBBERY.

The six-year-old son of W. Day, while walking along the river bank, near the Centennial mill, stumbled and fell into the river. The stream is very swift at that point and it is supposed that the body was carried over the falls.

The bureau of American republics is informed that in several places in Central America flour is now being made from bananas, which, under chemical analysis, is found to contain more nutriment than rice, beans or corn.

Harry Rogers flogged the Rev. Father O'Kane on the public streets of Eureka, Cal., with a horsewhip. The trouble grew out of assertions made reflecting on the honor of Rogers' life from the altar of the church some time ago.

It is admitted by Harrison's friends that he may incidentally talk politics with some of his friends while in New York at the laying of the cornerstone of the Grant monument, but they deny that to be his motive in going there.

Syl Harvel, who lives in the Kentucky mountains, was Thursday killed by his wife, whom he accused of intimacy with Alexander Brady. While the woman and Brady were running away they were seized by a mad bull and both killed.

At St. Albans, Vt., Sunday the locomotive attached to the south-bound cat train on the Central Vermont, plunged from an iron bridge into the river. Brakeman George T. Jolly, Engineer Babcock and Fireman Mitchell were severely injured.

Two large barns were burned at San Francisco, Sunday, and John Hand, a teamster, and sixteen horses were burned to death. Hand slept in the barn. It is supposed he was sleeping with a lighted candle in his mouth.

Arthur Freidman, a well-known pianist of New York, assaulted August Battenhauser, a ticket-taker at Amberg's theater, Wednesday night for refusing to pass him in. Battenhauser received a blow under the ear, and died in a few moments.

Ezrene Kaufman, postmaster at Riesel, a small town two miles south of Waco, Texas, was murdered Thursday by a woman named Battenhauser. A large band of regulators are on the trail, and will hang the murderers if they catch them.

People of Great Britain are becoming excited over the repeated outrages on women in railroad coaches. The carrying of baggage in the cars affords the scoundrels plenty of scope in these cases. The American passenger car is the only safe means of travel.

John Hartman, chief astronomer of Bierton observatory, Dechenbach, Prussia, was killed by a frightful accident. He went to the summit of the observatory to examine the apparatus. While there he overbalanced and fell to the ground. His neck was broken.

A well worn by a recently confirmed invalid, at high means in the Catholic church at Josephstadt, Austria, Tuesday, caught fire and a panic ensued. Many women and children fainted from the crush and were trampled upon. It is feared that several victims were fatally injured.

News comes from Scranton, Pa., that Mayor Feltz and P. A. Barrett, city editor of the Times, are arranging to knock out the enmity existing between them with bare knuckles. The indications are that it will be a fight to a finish, but it is likely to prove fatal.

The state election in Louisiana Tuesday was one of the hardest fought contests in the history of the state. There were five tickets in the field—two democratic, two republican and the people's party. Foster, candidate for governor on the regular republican ticket, was elected.

The well-known White Swan, situated twelve miles east of Baker City, from which nearly $100,000 in gold has been taken out of a shaft forty feet deep and fifty feet in diameter, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000—20,000 shares at a par value of $5 each.

Tuesday, John Bays, a farmer residing near Touchet, died from injuries received by being thrown from a horse the day previous. He got up after the accident and with his family about it. Later he was attacked with severe pains in the abdomen went to bed, and suffered terribly until relieved by death.

At Dayton, Wash., Sunday night forty masked men made an attack on a Chinese house house and ordered the Celestials under pain of death, to leave in twenty-four hours. The sheriff was informed and put guards over each house preventing the mob from further action. The mob's work is not sustained by the people at large.

Speaker Crisp and the ex-speaker from Maine had their usual bit-and-strike back in the house Monday. It ended with ex-speaker Reed straining a point to remark that Butler's conduct in the exhibition of temper on the part of the chair, to which the chair returned there should be no attempt at scolding on the part of the gentleman from Maine.

How They Did it in Doxey. Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

Early in 1881 the Denver chamber of commerce and board of trade instituted the Denver Manufacturing and Mercantile Bureau. Naturally, it took some time for the machinery of the bureau to get into smooth running order.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN ROBBERY.

The six-year-old son of W. Day, while walking along the river bank, near the Centennial mill, stumbled and fell into the river. The stream is very swift at that point and it is supposed that the body was carried over the falls.

The bureau of American republics is informed that in several places in Central America flour is now being made from bananas, which, under chemical analysis, is found to contain more nutriment than rice, beans or corn.

Harry Rogers flogged the Rev. Father O'Kane on the public streets of Eureka, Cal., with a horsewhip. The trouble grew out of assertions made reflecting on the honor of Rogers' life from the altar of the church some time ago.

It is admitted by Harrison's friends that he may incidentally talk politics with some of his friends while in New York at the laying of the cornerstone of the Grant monument, but they deny that to be his motive in going there.

Syl Harvel, who lives in the Kentucky mountains, was Thursday killed by his wife, whom he accused of intimacy with Alexander Brady. While the woman and Brady were running away they were seized by a mad bull and both killed.

At St. Albans, Vt., Sunday the locomotive attached to the south-bound cat train on the Central Vermont, plunged from an iron bridge into the river. Brakeman George T. Jolly, Engineer Babcock and Fireman Mitchell were severely injured.

Two large barns were burned at San Francisco, Sunday, and John Hand, a teamster, and sixteen horses were burned to death. Hand slept in the barn. It is supposed he was sleeping with a lighted candle in his mouth.

Arthur Freidman, a well-known pianist of New York, assaulted August Battenhauser, a ticket-taker at Amberg's theater, Wednesday night for refusing to pass him in. Battenhauser received a blow under the ear, and died in a few moments.

Ezrene Kaufman, postmaster at Riesel, a small town two miles south of Waco, Texas, was murdered Thursday by a woman named Battenhauser. A large band of regulators are on the trail, and will hang the murderers if they catch them.

People of Great Britain are becoming excited over the repeated outrages on women in railroad coaches. The carrying of baggage in the cars affords the scoundrels plenty of scope in these cases. The American passenger car is the only safe means of travel.

John Hartman, chief astronomer of Bierton observatory, Dechenbach, Prussia, was killed by a frightful accident. He went to the summit of the observatory to examine the apparatus. While there he overbalanced and fell to the ground. His neck was broken.

A well worn by a recently confirmed invalid, at high means in the Catholic church at Josephstadt, Austria, Tuesday, caught fire and a panic ensued. Many women and children fainted from the crush and were trampled upon. It is feared that several victims were fatally injured.

News comes from Scranton, Pa., that Mayor Feltz and P. A. Barrett, city editor of the Times, are arranging to knock out the enmity existing between them with bare knuckles. The indications are that it will be a fight to a finish, but it is likely to prove fatal.

The state election in Louisiana Tuesday was one of the hardest fought contests in the history of the state. There were five tickets in the field—two democratic, two republican and the people's party. Foster, candidate for governor on the regular republican ticket, was elected.

The well-known White Swan, situated twelve miles east of Baker City, from which nearly $100,000 in gold has been taken out of a shaft forty feet deep and fifty feet in diameter, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000—20,000 shares at a par value of $5 each.

Tuesday, John Bays, a farmer residing near Touchet, died from injuries received by being thrown from a horse the day previous. He got up after the accident and with his family about it. Later he was attacked with severe pains in the abdomen went to bed, and suffered terribly until relieved by death.

<