A THIN RUSE.

The argument that next congress will be democratic sure, and that it is necessary for the voter to put in Granny Slater, a free wool and protected woolen advocate, in order to have a pull with this dead sure democratic house, is about the thinnest ladder that ever was heretofore alighted upon by a newspaper. The argument, summed up, means that we must cut our heads off in a business way to get an open river. That will go with radical partisans, but not with thinkers. If that is the case how is it that congressmen Hermann, in a democratic house, has got through everything that his state wanted in the line of appropriations for rivers and harbors, and enough to complete the Cascade locks. No, we don't have to send a man to congress who would "chop our heads off" with his free wool fallacies if he only could, to get a "stand in." We cannot afford to take the chances.

As a rule, and to the credit of our congressmen, on the subject of internal improvements, there are always enough sensible men to stand together to effect needed legislation. We know that Ellis is for us, both on the open river question and for protection of our home interests, so Granny Slater isn't wanted. The men in whom we depend for an independent, fearless expression of the polls, those who have years back laid aside the partisan collar, won't stand for us as this a proposition as this one urged, that Slater is the only hope of an open river, because he will have a "stand in" with a congress that is going to be dead sure of Slater faith.

R. P. EARHART, one of the best known men in the state, died at Portland last Thursday morning.

Forty-six men lost their lives at mine No. 2, Roslyn, last Tuesday. It was caused by an explosion of fire damp.

"Avery's Ox," as Bush used to call Slater, actually thinks he is running for congress in this district. What a delusion.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Death of Z. T. Wright, of Portland, the well-known capitalist and manufacturer, occurred at his home at 1 o'clock a. m., on the 13th inst. His sudden demise was caused by an overdose of morphine, taken to relieve pain.

The discovery of the Columbia river May 10, 1792, by Capt. Gray, was properly celebrated at Astoria Tuesday last, being the centennial year and date of that event. When the river is opened we'll have a bigger round up than that and from appearances we will not have to wait many years.

This Gazette is the authorized paper for this county to aid the National Columbian Public School Celebration. It is proposed to have the public schools over the country celebrate the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus, October 12th. We shall publish illustrated articles from time to time bearing on this work.

The river and harbor bill has passed the house, and should it run the gauntlet of the senate, the looks at the Cascades will have money enough apportioned to complete them. The work will be taken up by the contract system. Thanks to our congressmen, other sections of Oregon and Washington have not been overlooked. Hermann worked diligently in the interest of this bill, while Holman, of Indiana, was sorry to say, kept up his bombastic record as an opponent of the measure.

Hon. Wm. Hughes, of Heppner, who is personally acquainted with nearly every stockman of Grant county, is the democratic nominee for a member of the state board of equalization from the seventh judicial district. While Mr. Hughes is not of this district, yet his acquaintance with the duties incumbent on a member of the state board of equalization is a qualification that not every candidate for that position possesses. Mr. Hughes' popularity in the seventh judicial district makes his nomination equivalent to an election and if such be his good fortune the people of that district can rely on the fact that he will look well to their interests.—Eagle.

EASTERN OREGON can secure the much needed "open river," and still put a finger on this "free wool and taxed woolen" business by electing W. R. Ellis to represent the second district of Oregon in congress. What can we expect from Slater? Is it business to sacrifice home interests to elevate an aspiring old granny to the halls of congress? With Hermann's success in securing needed appropriations in a democratic house, fresh in the minds of our people, is there any reason in urging Slater in order to have a good, stout pull with that body? Is there any "dead sure" thing about the complexion of next congress anywhere? The answer will be heralded far and wide on June 6th.

Perry Snyder got home Thursday last week from Illinois, taking in the Astoria celebration while down. He was permitted to visit the cruisers, Baltimore and Charleston, of which he gave ye reporter a complete account. He says they are admirable in construction.

Mrs. M. B. Potter, of Hood river, mother of Mrs. Frank McFarland, accompanied by Master Earl McFarland, came up on Thursday's train, being called here by the illness of the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland.

Senator Henry Blackman took in Portland last week, returning Saturday. While he attended the funeral of Rocky P. Earhart, who was an old acquaintance and staunch friend of the senator's.

PROTECT OUR BREAD.

The machinery of the law has not been put to work too speedily against the fraudulent use of ammonia and alum in Baking Powders. Both health and the pocket of the people are demanding protection. The legislatures of New York, Illinois and Minnesota have taken this matter of adulteration up, and especially that of Baking Powders. It will be in the interest of public health when their sale is made a misdemeanor in every State in the UNION, and the penalties of the law are rigidly enforced. There is no article of human food more wickedly adulterated than that of Baking Powder.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder having a general sale that is free from ammonia, alum or taint of any kind of impurity. It makes the sweetest and lightest bread, biscuit and cake that are perfectly digestible whether hot or cold. It costs more to manufacture Dr. Price's than any other baking powder. It is superior to every other known and the standard for forty years.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

HARDMAN VS. DAIRYVILLE.

Will someone inform a stranger as to which is the proper title for this important trade center?

Will someone tell us when J. A. Woolery & Co. will get through invoicing and placing fresh, new goods on their shelves and counters?

Will someone tell why Ben Parker would not be the proper man for the bachelors' nominee for congress from the second district of Oregon?

Will someone tell us who the champion wrestler is, about Dairyville?

Will someone tell us what the capital stock is, of the new transfer line recently organized here to carry passengers between this place and Heppner by "Uncle Jimmy" and "stand back, gentlemen, stand." It only takes five days to make the round trip.

Ed. Cox lost a valuable team on Tuesday last.

Several young men here lost an opportunity worth more than a team.

LATER—Saturday morning Ed. found the team in the stable again, and the only way he can account for it is in the depressed condition of the horse market. Horses are not worth their keeping.

J. H. Hamilton passed through town today on route for home from Portland where he had been with a car load of horses. Mr. Hamilton reports a dull market.

There is strong talk of a new grist mill at Dairyville. Good thing!

Miss Ada Jones, who has charge of the large school at this place, is rendering excellent service.

Sheep shearing has begun here and "the boys" meet for their annual tournament of devilish tricks and improbable yarns.

ROSLYN BENEFIT.

On Monday afternoon, May 14th, 1892, a number of Heppner's ladies met at the Baptist church for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for some sort of an entertainment to be given for the benefit of the Roslyn sufferers.

Mrs. S. P. Sorvener was chosen chairman of the meeting and Mrs. W. J. Lechner secretary.

It was decided by vote that there be a public supper served in the opera house on Wednesday evening, May 18th at 6 o'clock, sharp.

A committee was appointed to sell supper tickets at the door, adults 50c, children, 25c.

Committee on supper: Misses Ida Ayers, Etta Minor; Mesdames Thornton, French and Briggs. Committee on arrangements: Mesdames Rasmus, Charlton and Scrivner. Committee on hall: Mesdames Danner and Ayers.

A committee of boys was appointed to deliver donations to the opera house, consisting of Ralph Fox, Grover Smith, Clarence Kirk, Robby Stott, Louis Biscoe, Doc Conser, Oscar Borg and Charlie Van Duyn. Committee on music: Mrs. Otis Patterson.

A motion was made by Mrs. W. R. Ellis that a copy of the minutes, in full, be sent to the city papers for publication. Moved that the mayor take charge of the proceeds of the supper. Meeting adjourned. Mrs. W. J. Lechner, Secretary.

Since it is now a well-established fact that catarrh is a blood disease, medical men are quite generally prescribing Ayer's Sarsaparilla for that most loathsome complaint, and the result, in nearly every instance, proves the wisdom of their advice.

Dan Osmer and wife left on this morning's train for the Dalles to attend the marriage of Dan's brother.

JOHN NEIGHBORHOOD.—Wm. A. Allen, of the town country, while in town Friday last, ran across a Gazette man, to whom he reports a universal feeling of content in his neighborhood over the grand prospects for crops. He desires Mr. T. K. Roberts to call down his way as soon as possible, and hopes he will bring along a new look, and thinks probably with a little instruction T. K. can learn that game they call cucurbit.

LOOK OUT FOR BREAKERS.—One day last week Allen Evans' horse on the Peter ranch, near Ellis, was broken into and robbed of a lot of sheep pelts. (See ad. under caption of "Stolen.") This is not the first time Mr. Evans' horse has been broken into and he proposes to put a stop to it, and to that end has offered rewards aggregating to the amount of $100. Home-breaking and camp robbing, if continued, will get someone in serious trouble.

DISTRICT CANDIDATES HERE.—Judge A. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, candidate for re-election, and J. F. Moore, of Heppner, candidate for prosecuting attorney, both democratic nominees of the seventh judicial district, arrived Saturday evening. The judge returned below Monday, but Mr. Moore will remain till tomorrow morning. This was the latter's first visit to this section, and he was much impressed with our advantages. He made the acquaintance of quite a number of Morrow county people while here.

FAREWELL PARTY.—The friends of Miss Maggie Hartley gave a party in her honor, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Rasmus last Saturday evening, it being on the eve of her departure for the East. Numerous games were indulged in till a late hour, a very pleasant occasion.

WEST FREE.—The report comes up from California that John Chretien, alias the "Fresno Kid," was released at Marysville, Calif., on the preliminary examination. His father, we are informed, will commence suit on the parties causing his arrest and imprisonment.

Before Starting on a Journey

A person usually desires to gain some information as to the most desirable route to take, and will purchase tickets via the one that will afford him the quickest and best service. Before starting on a trip to Chicago or any point East, you should provide yourself with a map and time table of the Wisconsin Central lines. The trains run on this route are vestibuled and equipped with Pullman's latest dining room sleepers, elegant day coaches and dining cars of latest design, built expressly for this service, and are exquisite in furnishings and convenient and comfortable in arrangement and so complete in every detail that they have no superior in comfort and elegance. The dining car service is pronounced by all the most elegant ever inaugurated, and is operated in the interest of its patrons.

Fast trains via the Wisconsin Central lines leave Minneapolis daily at 12:45 p. m. and 6:25 p. m., and St. Paul at 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., making favorable connection with all trains from the West and southwest.

For tickets, time tables, berth reservations, etc., apply to G. F. McNeill, C. P. & T. A., Minneapolis, Minn., or to Jas. C. Pond, general passenger and ticket agent, Chicago, Ill. 4897

As a family medicine, the Oregon Blood Purifier has no equal. It has proved itself a certain and efficacious remedy for all diseases caused by an impure state of the blood.

DEMOCRATIC COLUMN.

J. F. MOORE.

The Democratic Candidate for the Office of Prosecuting Attorney.

Many citizens of Morrow county have had the pleasure of meeting within the past week, Mr. J. F. Moore, of Princeton, candidate on the democratic ticket for the office of prosecuting attorney for the seventh judicial district.

It is certainly not out of place at this time to present for the consideration of the numerous readers of the Gazette, a short biography of this gentleman. He was born in the "Hoosier" state of Indiana in the year 1849, but when quite small moved with his parents to Iowa, which, at that date, in the minds of the Eastern people, seemed far, far West. Here he grew up to manhood, and at the age of twenty-two years came to Oregon, settling in the southern part of the state. There he followed various callings, with one end in view, that of the practice of law. To reach the goal of his ambition, there were many obstacles to overcome, and to many a lesser energetic person, unsurmountable ones. But Mr. Moore was not to be outdone. He taught school when the opportunity presented; at other times rode the range as a cowboy or handled the reins as a stage-driver. At old times he pursued the study of law, and in 1884 was rewarded by being admitted to practice in Oregon's supreme court. The same year he came to Princeton and opened a law office, gaining in a short time a large and paying practice.

One of his home papers, the Okech Review, independent in politics, pays him the following tribute:

"Mr. Moore is a self made man in every respect, a close student, and anyone wishing to consult him on business will always find him at his office, will never advise clients to begin litigation unless their cause is just, is scrupulously honest, deals honorably with his clients, making their interests paramount in all things; and should be elected to the office of prosecuting attorney, the people of this district may rest assured of securing an officer possessed of all the qualifications which are necessary to an honest, intelligent and just attorney."

Wool Insurance.

The Pacific Insurance Union has fixed the risk on wool in both of the warehouses in Heppner at the same rate, being $5 per $1000 per month. I shall be pleased to issue policies for the Manchester Co. on wool in storage. This company has a capital of $500,000 in gold. T. E.
