SCANDINAVIAN NEWS.

The criminal court of Copenhagen has sentenced Mr. Peterson, editor of the Workman, a socialist paper, to one year in the house of correction.

The agitation in the Swedish Ricksdag for a new conscript law enforcing ninety days' yearly military practice in barracks, etc., has fallen through the lower house.

Several of the democratic congressmen have, since the vote on the silver bill, openly declared their intention to support the people's party; whereas the democratic leaders gnash their teeth and crack the party whip.

ALLIANCE COLUMN

The people's party is not for this campaign alone. It is now only beginning its work. "Monopoly has the republican party in one pocket and the democratic party in the other pocket."

Several of the democratic congressmen have, since the vote on the silver bill, openly declared their intention to support the people's party; whereas the democratic leaders gnash their teeth and crack the party whip.

The people have been goaded past endurance by the unjust acts of the old party leaders and they no longer fear to speak and act for themselves.

Money bears the same relation to the people of a nation that the blood bears to the human system. Contract the currency and the business of the nation suffers.

EIGHT MILE NEWS.

Since our first visit to this (the best part of Morrow county) some three months ago, thousands of acres of new land have been broken.

The present indications point to the fact that the coming harvest will be the largest and most profitable in the history of the country.

It costs today over twenty-five cents per bushel to ship wheat to Portland; full one third of average market price.

Farmers are accused of being dissatisfied and of complaining without cause. Examine these conditions. The next man who represents Eastern Oregon in congress will do well to look after the interests of the common people.

Is there anything more plain than the evidence of "jobbery" on the Columbia river at the Cascades where for thirteen years the government has been working (?) to give the people an open river?

The "finger prints" are visible to the same agency that pays annually to the Canadian Pacific railway company a subsidy of one hundred thousand dollars to aid the freight business of the Pacific Northwest alone.

About one thousand dollars have been expended on the Butter Milk canyon road and it will take at least five hundred more to place it in fair condition.

Active preparations are being made by A. H. Hooker and family to move to the coast in a few weeks.

"Pap" Hooker, as he is familiarly called, never was a glowing success as a financier, still he has a fair share of his wife's goods, and a list of friends whose name is legion.

Ed Hooker says "the present outlook for a crop surpasses anything ever seen in this country. For a wonder a stubble land is too wet to plow nicely."

Farther down the road two good neighbors get to be bad neighbors about a cow. Peace has been restored through the intervention of friends. It is well.

Wright Saling, Bud Ingraham and E. H. Stanton have changed the complexion of the earth in their neighborhood by plowing several hundred acres of sod.

Chas. A. Repuss has the finest farm on Hale Ridge and the only feature about his surroundings that could be improved upon, would necessitate his resigning his office in the Bachelors' club.

The school at Hale Ridge is under the care of Miss Anna Clark, of Lone Rock. Miss Clark is deservedly enjoying the reputation of a first-class teacher.

Andrew Ham will soon resume school duties at the Center, which have been closed for two weeks on account of diphtheria.

Ed Hood says "love blinds." Herman Meissner says "cayenne pepper blinds." C. A. Repuss says "alopathic doses of either one are pretty effective."

Albert Lovgren says "cayenne pepper would not help his complexion one bit, but that he might be persuaded to try the other remedy."

John Copple has been very sick. We are having lots of rain at present. Jess Kirk was in our neighborhood last week.

Sam Croson made a trip to Black this week. Grant Copple is going to herd sheep for Wm. Penland.

B. E. Hevland made a business trip to Heppner this week. Miss Cora Hevland was visiting relatives on Six Dollar last Monday and Tuesday.

B. F. Hevland and Fred Thomas made a trip to the forks of the creek last Saturday. They report the roads about impassable. PANSAKE.
