The Day Should Be Signalized in Every way East. Town and Village in the Republic by a Local Celebration of Which the Publie School Is the Center. Castle Rock,

To the scholars of the public schools of the United States the executive comnittee of the Columbian public school celebration sends the following mes-

anniversary of the discovery of Amer- of Montana. ica, ought to be observed everywhere in America. The day will be marked in Chicago by the dedication of the Columbian exposition grounds. The day also may be signalized in every town and village in the republic by a local celebration of which the public school is the center. The public schools of the republic will and Mrs. Cox, of Eight Mile. orm the most fitting centers for all these local celebrations. A national public school observance simultaneous with the Chicago exercises will awaken a popular interest in the coming exposi-ture in the M. E. church Sunday eve-To whom it may concern : ion. Far more important is the fact that ning. the public school has the right to occupy the most prominent place in the celebra-ripe fruit of the four centuries of Ameri-can civilization. The public school of today sways the hundred years to come. How It Came About.

The first approval of this suggestion came from the public school scholars themselves. When the plan was first proposed by The Youth's Companion, January, 1891, thousands of letters were received, testifying to the enthusiasm with which the scholars responded.

The world's congress auxiliary of the Columbian exposition then took up the Columbian exposition then took up the proposal, calling upon all the people of the republic to observe the day in their the main the toward activity that they receive from Hostetter's Stomach Bitters rescues them from impending danger, and averts the republic to observe the day in their own localities, and suggesting that the public schools be everywhere the cen-ters of the celebration. The superintendents of education were the next to recognize the fitness of giving to the public schools the first place in this Columbian anniversary. At their national convention in Brock-lyn in February, 1892, they took charge
