The Original Webster's Unabridged DICTIONARY.

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE publishers, we are able to obtain a number of copies of this dictionary in every home, school and business home.

As some have asked if this is really the original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, we are pleased to state we have it in the very best form complete on which about forty of the best years of the author's life were so well employed in writing. It contains the entire vocabulary of the American language, including the correct spelling of over 100,000 words, including of same, and is the regular standard size, containing about 300,000 square inches of printed surface, and is bound in cloth half morocco and also in leather.

Until further notice we will furnish this valuable Dictionary—

First—To any new subscriber.

Second—To any renewal subscriber.

Third—To any subscriber now in arrears who pays up and one year in advance, at the following prices, viz:

Full Cloth bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $5.00

Half Morocco, bound, gilt side and back stamps, marbled edges, $3.50

Full Sheep bound, leather label, marbled edges, $2.00

Fifty cents added in all cases for expressage to Heppner.

As the publishers limit the time and number of books they will furnish at the low prices, we advise all who desire to avail themselves of this great opportunity to attend to it at once.

Before Starting on a Journey

A person usually desires to gain some information as to the most desirable route to take, and will purchase tickets via the one that will afford him the quickest and best service. Before starting on a trip to Chicago or any point East, you should provide yourself with a map and time table of the Wisconsin Central lines. The trains run on this route are vestibuled and equipped with Pullman's latest drawing room sleepers, elegant day coaches and dining cars of latest design, built expressly for this service, and are exquisite in furnishings and convenient and comfortable in arrangement, and so complete in every detail that they have no superior in comfort and elegance. The dining car service is pronounced by all the most elegant ever inaugurated, and is operated in the interest of its patrons.

East trains via the Wisconsin Central lines leave Minneapolis daily at 12:45 p. m. and 6:25 p. m., and St. Paul at 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., making favorable connection with all trains from the West and south-west.

For tickets, time tables, berth reservations, etc., apply to G. F. McNeill, C. P. & T. A., Minneapolis, Minn., or to Jas. C. Pond, general passenger and ticket agent, Chicago, Ill.

At the general Methodist conference, held on the 1st of May at Omaha, several prominent members of the sect in Sweden were present as delegates, namely, K. A. Jansen, editor of the Swedish Missionary, T. P. Larsen, pastor of the Motala Methodist congregation, T. Th. Jacobson, merchant from Stockholm, and Ang. Flink, foreman at Sandviken.

At the latter place a baptism was recently performed by his employment by the manager, because he refused to honor a clergyman of the established church, to have his children baptised in accordance with the ritual of that church, an act of diabolical religious intolerance, which has been condemned.

The outpouring of emigrants from Northern Finland to America has this year begun to an alarming extent. Young men and young women depart daily and small farmers are disposing of their homesteads for little money to enable them to leave with their whole families for the land of the free. A perfect "American fever" is raging and all of the emigrants seem to understand that America spells "opportunity."

The steamer Louise, Captain Scherfberg, from Brettesnes, has been totally lost near Alden. The captain, the two mates, the first engineer, the pilot and five of the crew were all lost, but the second engineer, the steward, the cooks and four sailors were saved and landed at Floro, Norway. The steamer came from Port Island, bound for Brettesnes, with a cargo of coal and merchandise.

IN A WOMAN ELIGIBLE?

From the Pendleton Tribune.

One of the most frequent inquiries among the people in these days is: "Can a woman, under the laws of Oregon, hold the office of county school superintendent?" The Tribune has received several requests to publish the laws touching the question, and in response gives below sections bearing thereon. First, section 8 of article VI, of the constitution of the state declares that:

"No person shall be elected or appointed to a county office who shall not be an elector of the county; and all county, township, precinct and city officers shall keep their respective offices at such places therein, and perform such duties as may be prescribed by law."

That unquestionably settles the fact that a county official must be a qualified elector, hence the question arises, what constitutes an elector? Upon this point the same constitution in section 2 of article II, declares that:

"In all elections not otherwise provided for by this constitution, every white male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who shall have resided in the state during the six months immediately preceding such election, and every male of foreign birth of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the state during the six months immediately preceding such election, and shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, shall be entitled to vote at all elections authorized by law."

The XV amendment to the federal constitution of course in effect strikes out the word "white" in the above section and confers the franchise on negroes, but the courts, we believe, have never held that that amendment conferred the same right on women.

Further, section 21 of the school laws of the state reads as follows:

"There shall be elected by the legal voters of the several counties of the state, at the biennial elections, a county superintendent of common schools for each county, who shall hold his office for two years, or until a successor has been chosen and has qualified as required by this act."

It is a noticeable and suggestive fact that all through these statutes the masculine pronoun is used, plainly indicating that the framers of the law understood the term "qualified elector" to mean:

It has been argued by a few that the law allowing women to vote under certain conditions at school elections would have some bearing on the eligibility of women to the office of school superintendent. The argument, if in any degree pertinent, would seem to weigh against such eligibility, since the framers of the law apparently considered it necessary, in order to confer the limited franchise, to insert specifically the feminine pronoun.

Following are the sections in question:

"Sec. 43. First—Any citizen of this state shall be entitled to vote at a school meeting who is twenty-one years of age and who has resided in the district thirty days immediately preceding the meeting, and who has property in the district upon which he or she pays a tax, or have children of a school age to educate, but this act (section) shall not be applicable to districts with a population of one thousand and upwards.

"Second—In all school districts in this state with a population of 1,000 and upwards, any citizen of this state shall be entitled to vote at a school meeting who is twenty-one years of age and has resided in the district thirty days immediately preceding such meeting, and who

POLITICAL SPEAKING BY HON. W. R. ELLIS.

Monday evening, as announced the people by The County News, W. R. Ellis, the republican nominee for congress, made a lengthy and pleasing political speech to one of the best audiences that ever greeted a speaker in the M. E. church.

The glee club opened the evening with one of its choicest selections, and closed with "My Country 'tis of Thee."

Capt. Waters makes a model chairman by doing his part to keep the speaker and his hearers in touch from the beginning to the end of the evening.

Democrats and alliance men turned out in full force to aid their republican brethren in entertaining their party's nominee.

Mr. Ellis is a forcible, earnest speaker, with his feet firmly planted on every plank of his party platform, and whatever laws he may aid in making, if he is elected, will be from the standpoint of the republican party, though he promises not to be a mere partisan-republican in the performance of his official duties.

Hon. Harrison Kelly, republican nominee for circuit judge for the sixth judicial district, in response to a call at the close of Mr. Ellis' speech, made a few brief remarks to the effect that the office of circuit judge being purely executive, he considered it as non-political, and he would only say, that, if elected, he will follow the law as laid down in the statute books.

A pleasant little social affair, a reception, was participated in by republicans present, after dismissal of the audience, A. W. Gowan introducing Mr. Ellis—News, (Harney Co., Dem.)

"CORRESPOND SOME MORE"

During the past twelve weeks it has been our province to travel through the rural districts of Morrow county in the interest of the Gazette. How well that duty has been discharged remains for the editor of the Gazette to say. In passing through the various localities, items of general interest were noted and as to the merit of this very commonplace correspondence the readers may judge.

According to instructions, a general invitation has been extended to any and all parties to give vent to their feelings on any subject of common interest. The Gazette is conducted on the broad gauge principle "equal rights to all and special favors to none." It firmly believes its mission is to voice the sentiments of the people. Sometimes this policy is fraught with difficulty, not of a serious nature, but at the same time vexing. Therefore the correspondent, however careful he may be, will often find himself "between the devil and the deep sea." Our purpose is not to enter into a wordy battle with any rising genius, but we certainly have the inherent right to defend ourselves from any unjust assault from whatever source, be it a reformer (?), a democrat (?), a god (?), or even a republican (?).

In the past few weeks a number of alluance meetings have been reported. The same attention would have been paid to republican or democratic meetings. The files of the Gazette will bear out the statement that not one word has ever been said by this writer in detraction of any political party or candidate.

Once or twice some evil spirit has prompted alliance men to withhold news items and even accuse us of evil designs. This action, however, is discontinued by a majority of them.

Now comes a democrat, a Jeffersonian democrat—one of the "old school." He signs with the tail end of the alphabet, with which he is evidently more familiar than with some other parts of it. "X. Y. Z." hails from Hardman. Bully for Hardman, bully for "X. Y. Z." His style is admirable, a plain, frank, every-day kind of fellow. His "spot cash" proclivity covers a multitude of sins and the paying subscriber will always find room in the crowded columns of the Gazette to make his "kick" every year. He stays at home, minds his own business, takes eleven newspapers, and has not been far enough from his own "vine and fig tree" in the past nine years to see a train of cars. The only crime he has ever committed is that of being a democrat. His sarcasm is wasted. His assertions fall flat. He cites nothing to prove his own statement or disprove ours. In twelve weeks last past the correspondent he scores so lustily has traveled in Morrow county over 2,100 miles, interviewed four hundred farmers and business men. It would be strange if after such a careful canvass one would not be possessed of some information concerning the country traversed.

Will "X. Y. Z." please tell if in all his "born days" he has ever traveled two thousand miles, or even talked with four hundred men? It becomes anyone to make light of important political issues. This "side-show" talk is sadly out of season and "Hades" and Lewis can and will fill all "daties." The "song and dance" offer has not been retuned and it seems about time to "put up or shut up."

Let your pen have full swing and rest assured that you will receive "fare" plus an exquisite picture; and to those who already have "A Yard of Pansies," a "Yard of Pansies" will be doubly valuable, especially as accompanying it are full directions for framing either the "Pansies" or "Roses" at home, at a cost of a few cents. You can get the June number of DEMONSTRATION'S FAMILY MAGAZINE, containing "A Yard of Pansies," of any of our local newsmen; or send 25 cents to the publisher, W. JENNINGS DEMONSTRATION, 15 East 14th St., New York.
