Here and There.

T. W. Ayers, Jr., for drugs. 68 sw Hot penants at Chas. Sargent's. sw. Ice cream soda at T. W. Ayers' drug store.

Ernest Everett is working on Joe Luckman's ranch. Portland Preserving Co's. sweet pickles at J. Cohn's. 90-ft Joe Luckman and Billy Barrett were in Friday last.

C. S. and H. A. Emery called on this office Friday. Daily stage both ways between Monument and Long Creek. H. Ford, the painter, still "in it." For any kind of work see him. 81-ft.

Mrs. J. J. Roberts is prepared to do all kinds of plain sewing. 65-ft O. D. Allison and Son, Will, were over yesterday from Eight Mile. Pearl Jones says that upper Eight Mile is nearly all of the alliance faith.

Palace hotel, a first class hostelry, excellent entertainment and living rates. Wall paper, notions, patent medicines, drugs, chemicals, etc. go to Ayers. 68w F. I. McCallum and mother, of John Day, passed through Heppner last week, enroute home.

Rev. Potwine will hold services in the Baptist church, Tuesday, June 7th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Pap Simons & Son still shoe horses and do general blacksmithing at the old stand Matlock corner. 55-ft

"The Parlor," W. F. Runck, prop., in the City hotel, west side of Main street. Neatest place in Heppner. 81-sw S. P. Garrigue is carrying around a game thumb, in consequence with too much familiarity with a chisel.

Miss Marilla Noville's school, down near O. Mitchell's, closes next Friday. She has given excellent satisfaction. Hon. W. H. Wilson came up from the Dalles last Saturday evening, to spend a few days with his friends in Morrow.

The Slocum-Johnston Drug Co., according to the John Day Sentinel, will shortly put in a drug store at John Day. Call on Lisle Sperry, down at the Belvedere, when in town. Keeps on hand a fine stock of liquors and cigars. 61-ft

Hiya ketchum whiskers. Hatt & Mathews, at the city barber shop, place to get a first-class shave, hair-cut or shampoo. For restoring the color, thickening the growth, and beautifying the hair, and for preventing baldness, Hall's Hair Renewer is unsurpassed.

Mrs. J. M. Shulse, wife of Rev. Shulse, of the M. E. church, telegraphed the latter at this place yesterday that she had started for Heppner. The Hatcher beer, 3 cents per glass, at the Columbia Beer Hall, Omers & Hughes, props, next door to M. Lichtenhal & Co.'s shoe store. 8w if

Ed. Allen and Tom Scroggins, of Long Creek, got in Friday in time for the races. They left for home yesterday, Henry Blackwell accompanying them. C. M. Spencer, of Olex, Gilliam county, passed away at our office yesterday on his way home from Hardman. Mr. Spencer's Olex crop is looking fine.

Reub. Sperry and wife returned from the valley late last week, and took in Heppner's races Saturday. There has been but little rain below for some weeks. Newer and neater quarters at the Palace Hotel's north business room. Charley Jones, the barber, wants to see his old friends there. Baths in connection.

C. W. Oney, accompanied by his wife to whom he was recently married in Kansas, has arrived from that section and are living in the section house, near the depot. Thompson & Binns own the bus which goes to and from the City hotel, but will call for parties desiring to go to train in any part of the city. Leave orders at City hotel. 91-ft

Local politics are quiet this year, sure. Ben Gibson, of Ione, was here Saturday.

When in Arlington, stop at the Bennett house, near the depot. 61-ft The work of laying the school house foundation began yesterday. The best grade of wool is starting at from 12 to 14 cents per pound.

Joe Woolery was in Heppner to attend the races one day last week. Ashbaugh Bros. and others pulled in this morning loaded with wool. Dr. A. C. Greenlee writes Dr. Vaughan that he is located at Fergus Falls, Minn. A big lot of farm machinery started by freight wagons for Long Creek Saturday.

Peter Bremner, candidate for short term commissioner, was in town Saturday last. C. M. Mallory's sale of household goods, last Saturday, was quite successful. Chuck Gleason got in from Portland Saturday evening, and looks like a new man.

Chris Reisinger will soon pull out for summer range with one of Ike Large's bands. Albert Ayers and wife took in the Heppner races last week, returning home yesterday. J. H. Shaw has just received the sheep recently purchased from John Barker, of Butter creek.

Milk shake at Chas. Sargent's, Main street. Also fine assortment of candies, nuts, tobaccos, etc. Jerry Phillips is camp tending for C. A. Rhea, the sheep now being in the neighborhood of Dorman. J. M. Hager is over from his reservation ranch near Pendleton. He says the prospect there is quite flattering.

Fred Clarno started for Waterman Flat, Grant county, this morning, having in charge "Chielof," Cal Smith's horse. A. G. Bartholomew and M. Carrigan were up yesterday from the Alpine and Galloway neighborhoods, respectively. L. Miller, of Portland, came up late last week to take charge of N. L. Robinson's May street store, old Minor stand.

W. G. Allen has started with his horses for Dayton, Wash. Reynolds, Tharp, Wilson and others have also gone up that way. Bob Shaw and Sheriff Noble started out this morning with the voting booths, but we could not learn the price paid, but judge it was from 12 to 14 cents.

Sam Palmer has his sheep on the way East, and will come up in person this week. It is a long, tedious drive back to the feeding grounds of the Eastern markets, but there must be money in it. A young man from the country was "thrown up" for drunk and disorderly conduct early Sunday morning, but as he is penitent and promised not to do it again, we will not give his name.

Last Saturday Frank Lee bought Joe Luckman's clip, while Grant Johnson secured Albert Ayers' wool. The Gazette learns that the price was between 12 and 13 cents, but they were choice clips. "Crank," of Hardman, presents in this issue a nicely written, gentlemanly answer to X. Y. Z.'s first article. We do not desire to make odious comparisons, but they make themselves in this case, and we cannot help but notice the difference in the true inwardness of the two writers.

Cal Smith was arrested early yesterday by a deputy sheriff of Grant county. The Gazette heard several stories about the charges, and concludes that it is the result of some family difficulty. He attended the races here, and had sent over for Goldy, his favorite half-mile horse, to attend the Dayton meeting.

For several years past a gentleman in Neshua, N. H., has been in the habit of taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system preparatory to the heated term. He finds that this medicine believes the tired feeling so prevalent during spring and early summer. Just opened. Two hundred pieces of the latest designs in summer calico, gingham, seersuckers, shirtings, China silk, effect lawn, fonnards, Scotch chevots, &c., at the POPULAR store of 91-ft-t

C. S. VAN DUYN. FIRST NIGHT.—Last evening Rev. W. Bowser lectured at the M. E. church. His subject, India, its people, their life and customs, illustrated by costumes, implements, utensils, weapons of war, sandals, trinkets, etc. Prof. Bowser, having lived in India seven years as a missionary, appeared in native costume. His audience were well pleased with the lecture. Tonight he will give a magic lantern exhibition—a medley; the idolatry of India, burning the Hindoo dead, the king's public reception in a quaint old Hindoo palace, city of Pompeii, near Naples, Italy, as seen 1800 years after its destruction; Suez canal, Rome, Gibraltar, etc. etc. A splendid English Stereopticon to be used. 50 fine slides, giving life touches to above topics. Bright pictures cast on canvas ten feet square, viewed with amusing incidents and scenes. Admission, adults 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

Call on us and get prices on groceries before purchasing elsewhere. Just received a fine lot of home cured hams, sides, shoulders, &c. Look in on us any way. 91-ft-t

C. S. VAN DUYN. A GOOD EXCUSE.—The editor, and also a member of our typographical force, have been on the sick list for several days past, and therefore the lack of news in this issue should be overlooked. A person must be well to write, and it takes printers to set the matter up after it is written. Besides our force is short one printer, which in all should be excuse enough.

INCIDENT BLAZE.—Last Friday evening, in some unaccountable manner, a bed was set on fire down at G. W. Harrington's and before it could be extinguished, ruined two pillows and other bedding. It was a very narrow escape from quite a serious conflagration.

LOST Between Heppner and Neis Jones' ranch on Little Butter Creek, on May 27, one roll of bedding, wrapped up in a wagon sheet and tied with a rope. One quilt contained initial letters on one corner. Finder will please leave same at Gazette office. 21-sw A. J. HUNT.

Local politics are quiet this year, sure. Ben Gibson, of Ione, was here Saturday.

BADLY BURNED BY ACID.—Wm. Rasmus, of Walla Walla, brother of J. W. Rasmus, was severely burned in the face by acid, while charging a soda machine last week. Though his wounds are not dangerous, it is said that they will disfigure him for life.

BACK AGAIN.—The three colored lads who visited Heppner some time ago, dropped in again last week, looking happy and well-dressed. These little fellows are artists in the line of singing and dancing, and manage to pick up several dollars daily. Their show last Saturday did not pan out very well.

MISQUOTED.—We took occasion last week to publish a clipping from the E. O., regarding the recent visit of R. L. Shaw to Pendleton. In the same Mr. Shaw was quoted as saying that the people's party movement was constantly losing ground in Morrow county, which Mr. Shaw avers arose in the brain of the E. O. reporter, as he made no such statement. He has no idea of the strength of the people's party movement in this county, and so expressed himself to the E. O. man. Reporters should be very careful in writing up their locals not to do someone an injustice.

BROKEN LEG.—While baling wool Saturday last, our fellow townsman, Henry Heppner, had the misfortune to get caught in some ropes connected with the apparatus, and before the press could be stopped, received a fracture of the large bone of the left leg, below the knee, besides other bruises. He is being cared for at the residence of his sister, Mrs. H. Blackman, and is getting along as well as could be expected. (Since the above was written we learn that the accident happened while changing the position of the capstan, Henry's feet were caught in a loop in the ropes, the slack being taken up by the weight of the capstan, which was four or five hundred pounds.)

A WORD.—Correspondents should, at least, remember to write on only one side of their paper. They should be careful to capitalize and paragraph their matter. But there is one thing that we must impress on the minds of all, that all copy, which requires from one to four hours to get in shape for publication, will hereafter go into the wastebasket. We will be plain. Last week it took three solid hours to decipher the communication of X. Y. Z., and when in shape for printing, was such a mess that no one but a patient printer would have had anything to do with it. If your "gal" is such a soso lar, X. Y. Z., better have her write your letters hereafter, otherwise they will never see the light of day.

Gents do not forget to look at our stock of summer clothing before purchasing. The latest Eastern designs. Alpaca suit and vest, and light weight clothes, just the racket for the heated term, at 91-ft-t

C. S. VAN DUYN'S. SOME OF THE HUNDRED STRIKERS.—The Robinson crew of shearsmen finished Wash Elliott's band Sunday and rested over night in Morrow's metropolis. This crew is composed of Grant Robinson, Andy Howell, Tom Degan, Sam Bodine, Bill McCormack, Billy Lowell and Ed Sheffield. Though Mr. Robinson does not claim to be the captain of the crew, we term them the "Robinson crew" because nearly all the people here know Grant. His comrades are Oregon and California shearsmen, and every one of them "hundred strikers." The quality of wool this year, they say, is about as good as last, though harder to shear, owing to it being dirtier. The price for shearing remains about the same, 7 cents per head. The life of a shearsman is not a pleasant one, though they earn big money while they work, but bad weather and time lost going from one band to the next, or from one locality to the other, leaves them with only fair wages for their time.

CONSUMPTION in its early stages can be cured by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes the inflamed tissues, aids expectoration, and hastens recovery. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co. Lowell, Mass.

NO MORE BACKACHE OREGON KIDNEY CURE ALL KIDNEY TROUBLES. Recently the following notice appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle: "Judge S. had been sick only about two weeks, and it was not until the last three or four days that the malady took a serious form. At the beginning of his illness he suffered from diabetes and stomach disorder. Later the kidneys refused to perform their functions and he passed quietly away. Thus ended the life of one of the most prominent men in California." Like thousands of others his untimely death was the result of neglecting early symptoms of kidney disease.

IF YOU are troubled with diabetes, gravel, or any derangement of the kidneys or urinary organs, don't delay proper treatment until you are forced to give up your daily duties. Don't waste your money on worthless liniments and worse plasters, but strike at the seat of the disease at once by using the greatest of all known remedies, the celebrated Oregon Kidney Tea. It has saved the lives of thousands. Why should it not cure you? It is purely vegetable and pleasant to take. 1.00 a package, 6 for $5.00.
