The assembling of the Chicago convention one week from today, for the selection of democratic standard bearers, is looked forward to as the most important political event before the November election. In the language of the turf we may say, it will be Cleveland against the field, just as it was Harrison against the We understand that Wm. Penland is field at Minneapolis. There will be more than the republicans brought into their We understand that school will begin convention. Nor is it so apparent who about the mindle of this month, in the the choice, viewed from this date, will be. The democratic party has far more serious factional difficulties to settle than had their opponents. Campbell, Gray. Palmer, Boies, Gorman and Carliale will all claim attention on the side, while Cleveland and Hill will make the cock and bull fight.

The Syracuse convention of the 31st uit., recommended Cieveland to the Chieago convention as the choice of all the democracy and pledged itself to support the candidate, whoever he might be. No doubt Cleveland has most of the democracy behind him, so that he may frustrate the schemes of his enemies and the blunders of his friends. The republicans have just furnished a pertinent lesson as to which are the most disastrons. The fight will be with the Albany delegation instructed for Hill.
