Alva Leach and Joe Gibson were up from Lexington yesterday. They are making extensive preparations for the Fourth, so they say.
A number of sales of medium sized chips of wood were made last week. Late eastern dispatches are to the effect that prices remain the same.
W. H. Colwell, of the firm of Colwell & Caldwell, lapidists of Portland, is in the city. He has some very fine samples of polished opals with him.
Thomas Stibbels, a sheep raiser of Monument, was in town yesterday. He says the crops in that section are looking well. The hay crop is heavy.
To strengthen the hair, thicken the growth, stop its bleaching and falling out, and where it is to restore the youthful color, use Hall's Hair Renewer.
Mr. S. J. LaFrance, of Hood River, representing the Knicker and Chase Piano Co. is in town today, looking after the growing interests of his house. Mr. LaFrance has numerous patrons here.
Sheriff Noble served a subpoena Saturday evening upon Mayor Matlock, to appear yesterday morning at the Oregon county court. The mayor left for Pendleton on Monday morning's train.
Dr. W. Tackman, the dentist, will be found at Dr. B. F. Vaughan's office, Leezer building. Does all the latest crown and bridge work, aluminum plates, etc. Don't miss the opportunity.
A team belonging to Mr. Frank Wilson while attached to a phonograph carriage, broke loose at the camp meeting grounds on Rhea creek Sunday and ran for some distance. No serious damage resulted.
G. B. Wagner was in from the Haystack country last Saturday. We learn from him that the dry weather has been to effect the grain, although they have had considerable rain over there from all reports.
Arrangements have been made with the railroad company, to run an excursion train from Heppner to Lexington on the evening of the Fourth, to accommodate those wishing to attend the ball at the latter place. 509-3
A camp-meeting, under the auspices of the M. E. church, North, will be opened in the grove at Lexington, next Saturday, to be continued until the Fourth. A new grove, just north of the mill, is being fitted up for the occasion.
A gentleman under forty years of age, whose hair is rapidly becoming thin and gray, began the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in six months his hair was restored to its natural color, and even more than its former growth and richness.
The bounty upon coyotes and skunks, which expired Saturday, during the term of the salinity, from the 1st of February, there was paid out in scrip upon the bounty of the sum of $1778.83. The bounty probably will not be renewed.
Mr. Robert Dexter, of upper Balm Fork, made the Gazette office a pleasant call Sunday, in company with his daughter, Miss Lila Bell Dexter. Miss Lila is a bright little midget of six months, whom her proud papa thinks should win a prize at the "handsome baby" fair.
Thomas Merriam, a stranger in town, who has been herding sheep for Wm. Penland, was arrested Friday afternoon on a charge of using obscene language. He was detained before Justice Rea and fined $25, in default of paying which, he was committed to the county jail for twelve days.
A party of fifteen of Heppner's young people chartered a back Sunday and drove out to the Adkins ranch on Rhea creek, to attend the camp-meeting of the M. E. church, South, now being conducted there by Revs. Bell and Gibbs. The gathering is said to have included representatives from all parts of the county. The Heppner company report having had a very pleasant time. There were some thirty or forty persons present from this place.

Revs. P. M. Bell and G. H. Gibbs were the sole participants in an unprecedented baptismal service yesterday. While crossing Rhea creek in a buggy they were fording the creek safely and starting up hill, decided, in opposition to the wishes of the reverend gentlemen, to indulge in a douché bath. Acting on this decision it whirled about, made a dash for the cool mountain stream, and stopping at a point where there was a small pool of water proceeded to lie down in the harness. This called for prompt action on the part of the drivers and, deciding that wet clothes were preferable to a drowned horse, they sacrificed broadcloth and plunged into the murky stream. One held up the head of the recalcitrant horse, while the other went fishing for the traces. After such heroic efforts in behalf of a bucking broncho, we would suggest that the tenacious gentlemen be the proper persons to inaugurate a humane society in behalf of animals whose sufferings are not self imposed.
P. O. Borg returned Saturday evening from Portland, where he has been the past week, representative from the Heppner Masonic lodge to the Grand lodge of Portland. While there, Mr. Borg took the degree of the Mystic Shrine, the highest of the Scottish rank. The sixth Mason gave a grand banquet at the close of the session, in their new hall in the Marquam Grand, to all representatives present from the Blue lodges of the state. Mr. Borg visited Astoria while gone and expresses himself as having had a delightful time.
Long Creek Eagle: R. L. Shaw, assessor elect of Morrow county, accompanied by Frank Sloan, a nephew of A. D. Sloan, of Middle Fork, and formerly a resident of Grant county, were in Long Creek last Saturday, calling at this office while in the city. They were over on a cattle deal with J. J. Hinton, of Hamilton, and although well acquainted in this part of the country they expressed themselves as highly pleased with the bright outlook of our county.
A son of Hon. Wm. Hughes, Master Percy, was seriously injured while riding a pony, by being kicked on the head by a horse that was running ahead of him. An ugly scalp wound, four inches long, was made just over the forehead which required a number of stitches to sew up. Dr. Gagen, who attended him, says that no symptom of injury to the brain was noticeable and he is doing as well as could be expected.
The people of Lexington have prepared an elaborate programme for the Fourth of July celebration to be held at Penland's grove, which has been tastefully fitted up. There will be music by the Lexington cornet band. The amusements will consist of various kinds of athletic sports in which prizes are offered. A ball-room program is arranged for afternoon and evening. 490-593
E. O. Charles Cunningham, the extensive sheepowner, informs an East Oregonian representative that all his wool, 250,000 pounds, is now warehoused. The wool clip has been large, and the wool clean and of excellent quality. He has not yet sold. Mr. Cunningham's sheep have all been driven to mountain ranges, and are thriving on fine grass, which is much better than for years.
W. J. Brown, who started for Grant county with Messrs. Thompson and Mathews' sheep a short time since, was in the city last Friday. He informs our reporter that there has been a great many hard rain storms in the mountains this season, several of them having much the appearance of water sports.
W. J. McAtee, who has been visiting his family in the Dalles, for the past few days, returned Saturday evening last, accompanied by his son-in-law, Charles Wagner. Mr. McAtee informs us that he will move his family here soon. We also learn that Mr. Wagner will locate permanently in Heppner.
Charles Miller, the berry man from Rhea Creek, was in town yesterday with his first load of strawberries for the year. Mr. Miller reports the crop unusually large. Contracts will be made for delivery during the balance of the season. W. L. Matlock is taking from 75 to 100 quarts a day.
Isaac Knighten and J. H. Billenbrook, two progressive farmers of the Eight Mile section, were in the city today. In conversation with them they tell us that the spring grain is badly damaged by the dry weather, but fall grain is yet looking fairly well.
It is conjectured that a specific may yet be found for every ill that flesh is heir to. However this may be, certainly the best specific yet found for diseases of the blood is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and most diseases originate from impure blood.
The greatest excursion of the season will be the one to Bonneville Sunday, June 26. A special rate of $2.50 has been secured from Heppner to Bonneville and return, a total distance of 312 miles. Cheap enough, isn't it? Everybody's going.
Fred F. Wilmarth has leased the Princeton News, and will now leave fall away from the city. We do not hesitate to assure the people of Princeton that they will have a strictly first-class journal while Fred is at the helm. Here's to you, old boy.
D. Grant's Cloalo, the great dyspepsia conquerer, will positively cure dyspepsia and all its kindred ailments. Every bottle sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or money refunded. See ad. in this issue.
All those who are owing the old firm of Messrs. Kirk & Hayes, either by note, which is now due, or account, will please settle same at once. Remember these gentlemen must have money to settle bills. 499-507
The Gazette acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present at the 22nd annual commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural College, June 26th to 29th, 1902.
Thompson & Binns own the bus which goes to and from the City hotel, but will call for parties desiring to go to train in any part of the city. Leave orders at City hotel. 91-1f
Newer and neater quarters at the Palace Hotel, north business room. Charley Jones, the barber, wants to see his old friends there. Baths in connection.
A. Hirschberg and George Rader got in from Long Creek Friday evening last. Mr. Hirschberg will leave tomorrow for Portland, to be gone a few days.
The Bucher beer, 5 cents per glass, at the Columbia Beer Hall, Osmer & Hughes, props., next door to M. Liechtenthal & Co.'s shoe store. 5w 1f
Rev. Motor, from Arlington, presiding elder of the M. E. church, North, will deliver the Fourth of July oration at the Lexington celebration.
Carriages, hacks, carts, etc., painted in first class shape. Portland prices. Shop, May street, one door west First National Bank.
Callon Lisle Sperry, down at the Belvedere, when in town. Keeps on hand a fine stock of liquors and cigars. 61-1f
When in Arlington, stop at the Bennett house, near the depot. 61-1f
HALF FARE.—The Union Pacific will sell tickets July 24, 34 and 4th to any point within 300 miles at one fare for the round trip, good for return until July 6th, inclusive. J. C. Hart, agent Union Pacific system. 499-3.

COUNCIL MEETING.
The regular council meeting convened June 26th, 1902. Mayor Matlock being absent, Recorder A. A. Roberts acted as chairman. Councilmen present: Liechtenthal, Gilliam, Garrigues and Farnsworth. Absent, Patterson and Morgan. Minutes of the last regular meeting read and approved.
Motion by Liechtenthal that reports of treasurer, recorder and marshal for the last year, ending March 1st '02 be accepted as reported by finance committee. Seconded by Garrigues, voted and carried.
Motion by Liechtenthal that Gilliam be instructed to correspond and get an offer on well machinery, etc., and report same to council for their consideration. Seconded by Farnsworth and carried.
Motion by Liechtenthal that committee on ordinances be instructed to draft dog ordinances, licensing male dogs $1.50 and female dogs $3.00 a year, and report on the same. Voted and carried.
Motion by Garrigues that the finance committee make a loan of $2,000 of city's money for a period of one year at 10 per cent. interest, payable semi-annually; said loan subject to the approval of the whole council. Carried.
Motion by Liechtenthal that bills amounting to $380.11 be allowed paid. Seconded by Garrigues.
The recorder bid in well auger and machinery, as ordered by council April 22nd, which amounted to $800.
The meeting then adjourned.
DIED.
At her home in Heppner, Monday morning, June 24th, Mrs. Mary E. Morgan, wife of Thomas Morgan, after a lingering sickness from consumption. Mrs. Morgan has been for many years a resident of Heppner and her circle of friends extended throughout Morrow county. She was 39 years of age and leaves a family of five children, three sons and two daughters.
Mrs. Morgan was a sister of James, Columbus and Thomas Rhea. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev J. M. Shulze and the Rebecca degree of the I. O. O. F. order, of which she was a member.
HYMENAEAL BELLS.—The marriage of Mr. George A. Aiken and Miss Lilly Adams was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roemus Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by Rev. J. M. Shulze. The bride's father, with a number of friends of the family were present. After the happy couple were made one, a delightful supper was served by the hosts. Both bride and groom are well known in Heppner and vicinity, having lived here many years. Their friends are legion and the Gazette joins them in sincere wishes for future happiness through their married life. They left yesterday for their new home at the Matlock ranch, on Hinton creek, where they will be pleased to see their friends. Mr. Aiken has been in the employ of Mayor Matlock for six years as trainer and manager on his extensive horse farm.
BASKET PICNIC AND EXCURSION.—A grand basket picnic and excursion will be given by the order of railway conductors, at Bonneville, Sunday, June 26, '02. A special rate has been secured over the Northern, Southern and Union Pacific lines. Bonneville is located on the U. P. 41 miles east of Portland, consequently the distance from Heppner is 306 miles. A special rate of $2.50 for the round trip from Heppner has been secured, which you will note is very low, even less than one cent per mile. Tickets are on sale at T. W. Ayers' and Slocum & Johnson's drug stores, Thornton's cigar stand and at the depot. For further information apply to H. C. French, conductor, or J. C. Hart, agent, at Heppner station. Train will leave the depot at 6 o'clock sharp. Remember the rate and date.
