THE TAXPAYERS

Of the Town of Heppner Who Will Vote on the Bond Question

TAKEN FROM THE CITY ASSESSMENT OF 1891—A Few Additions Exp- Through the Assessment of 18-:

It will perhaps be interesting to know who pay the taxes in the town of Heppner, since a vote of the taxpayers will, in the near future, settle the question of bonding the town for the purpose of securing a supply of water for all purposes, hence the Gazette has taken the trouble to compile a list of the taxpayers and their respective amounts of taxable property, as found on the city tax roll of 1891. The new assessment may change the roll to some extent; in fact, it is expected that it will.

"Excuse me, George, but when I saw you a year ago, your face was covered with pimples; it seems to be all right now." "Yes, sir; that's because I stuck to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the greatest blood medicine in the world. I was never so well in my life as I am now."

Hon. Henry Blackman, of this city, was a member of the committee that notified Grover Cleveland, officially, of his nomination. The senator is still being honored in a political way, it seems.

TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT.—Fred Miller has opened up a tailoring establishment on lower Main street, opposite the City hotel. Fred is a first-class workman, and you will make no mistake by placing your orders for summer and fall clothing with him. 501-8

LEXINGTON'S CELEBRATION.

About Fifteen Hundred People Celebrate the Fourth of July Celebration at Hardman.

The crowd at Lexington yesterday was estimated at 1500. At any rate it was not far from that number.

Early that morning the patriotic inhabitants of Morrow county began to pour in, and when the hour had arrived for the procession to move, the streets and grove were full of people. The procession formed at the corner of Main and C streets at 9 o'clock a. m. At 9:30 the march to the grove was begun, headed by the Lexington Cornet Band, and directed by Marshal Andrew Reaney and Asst. Marshal C. C. Boon.

The following program was rendered at the grove:

Music, by the Lexington Cornet Band. Prayer, by Rev. E. R. Beach. Reading of Declaration of Independence, by Miss Maud Glascock. Music, by the Lexington Cornet Band. Oration, by J. B. Brown and J. G. Young.

Afternoon there was speaking by Rev. Powell, and Rev. E. R. Beach recited a poem. At 3 o'clock the contest for prizes began. They were as follows:

Boys' race, under 12 years of age, won by Crawford Stone; prize, silk handkerchief. Boys' race, over 12 years of age, won by Ed. Lichtenhal; prize, hat.

Married men's race, won by Mr. Brown, of Elmer creek. Contest for girls under 12 years of age, won by Miss Mason and Miss Maud Swaggart, 1st and 2nd prizes, respectively; each was awarded a bracelet.

Foot race for young men, won by Ed. Lichtenhal, but the judges had the race run over, another party winning; prize, $5. Slow mile race, won by Jack Lane and Riley Benefield; prize, $3.00.

Three-legged race, won by Billy Padberg and Ben. Price, $1.00. Saddle race, won by Billy Padberg's horse; prize, $5.

The people then returned to the grove where occurred the "tag of war" between the married men and single men, the former winning easily. The prize was a $2.50 box of cigars.

It was an enjoyable occasion, so far as entertainment was concerned, for the people of Lexington made extensive preparations for the occasion.

Dancing was indulged in at the grove till quite late, and in the evening at the Heppner orchestra furnishing the music.

HARDMAN'S CELEBRATION. From those who attended the celebration at Hardman, we learn that a most enjoyable time was had.

The only accident that occurred was the breaking down of the liberty car, and later in the day a Miss Mulkey was thrown from a swing, but fortunately no one was hurt.

The celebration exercises were held under a bowery, which had been made for the occasion. The program was carried out to the letter, and the sports were varied and interesting, horse racing being one of the important features.

The number of people that participated in the celebration at Hardman, is variously estimated, but must have been several hundred.

MARION HALLMAN'S OPINION. Readers of the Gazette are familiar not only with the sprightly writings of Marion Hallman, but also with her sound common sense upon matters of every day life and action. Her name, indeed, is a household word, and is equally well known in parlor and kitchen. Her celebrated book, "Common Sense in the Household," is without a peer and shows that she has made a careful study of how to prepare good, wholesome food, in the best manner by the best methods.

In this issue we produce a fac-simile letter from Marion Hallman that speaks from her experience in the highest terms of the unequalled qualities of the Royal Baking Powder, the best material for baking, and should read the opinion of such an expert and act accordingly. All good cooks, who have used the Royal, are of the same opinion also.

NEW ORDINANCES.—On the first page of this issue appears Ordinances Nos. 49 and 51, both relating to the proposition submitted by Mr. H. V. Gates, and which have been passed by the town council, and published and posted according to the requirements of the ordinances, and the charter of Heppner. Ordinance No. 49 relates to the electric lighting, proposed by Mr. Gates, which requires no sanction by the people of Heppner, but rather the ratification of ordinance No. 51, which refers to the water question. Ordinance No. 50, which is published on one of the inside pages, has been read the first time before the council, but subsequent readings and final passage will be deferred till it is known what disposition will be made of the water question. As will be seen, it is in the form of a contract between the town of Heppner and H. V. Gates. The whole plan is now before the taxpayers of Heppner in a manner not to be misundestood. Read all ordinances carefully before deciding how you shall vote, for the disposition of this proposition means much for Heppner's future. Read and think, and you will doubtless come out on the right side of the question.

MURDER NEAR CONDON.—Word was received last Saturday evening that a gentleman named Ward, living near Condon, had shot and instantly killed a tough named Looney, a resident of the same section. Looney is said to be a very tough character, having served a term in the penitentiary. He had been entirely too familiar with Ward's wife during his absence; when Ward returned home he learned of this. In a short time he saw Looney approaching the house and fired at him with a Winchester, killing him instantly. Ward was arrested and taken to The Dalles, where he will be kept until the coroner's inquest and excitement is over. Ward has always borne a good reputation among his acquaintances and neighbors, being of rather a quiet disposition. Sympathy everywhere is with him.

A BAD PRACTICE.—A young man, thoroughly imbued with the spirit of "John Barleycorn," grew patriotic on Main street yesterday morning, and awoke the slumberers several blocks away. This drunken whooping and yelling on Main street, in fact, is another part of town, should be set down on by our citizens. Maybe some of them haven't backbone enough, but the Gazette has, and proposes to denounce it, and to give names of disturbers hereafter, let them be who they may.

BROKEN ARM.—A young son of Wm. Cox, of Eight Mile, while riding a horse with the harness on last Thursday, was thrown, and becoming entangled in the "gears" some way, suffered a fracture of the right thigh and of both arms above the elbows. Dr. Shipley was called to attend him, who reports him as getting along as well as could be expected.

NEW DRESSMAKER.—Miss Letha Parker, just from the East, has opened dress-making parlors over Mrs. W. A. Johnston's, where she is prepared to do all kinds of dressmaking in latest styles and at reasonable rates.

Rev. Potwine will hold evening service July 7th, in the Baptist church, and Friday morning at 10 o'clock, there will be communion services.

THE CHARITABLE.

The boys in the vicinity of Parker's mill gave an old-fashioned charitable, on the occasion of the marriage of Mr. Compton and Miss Mitchell, which occurred last week, and whose visit to Heppner was only noted in the Gazette. The serenaders expected to find them at the home of the groom's parents, but the young couple had heard of their coming and escaped to a cabin a mile away where they were found, and Bert DeFord was captain of the gang, and made noise enough to disturb the echoes from Little Wall creek to Hardman.

A DISLOCATED ELBOW.—On last Saturday evening, while Patrick Barry was on his way to Heppner, his horse stepped into a badger hole, falling and throwing Mr. Barry to the ground, dislocating his right elbow joint. He came on to town and Dr. Fox patched him up almost as good as ever. Though his injuries are painful, he hopes to be all right in the course of a few weeks.

Job work on short notice at the Gazette office. Best appointed job office in Eastern Oregon.

Postmaster Mallory's salary has been increased from $1.00 to $1.20, the receipts of last quarter justifying the department in making the raise.

Thompson & Bins won the bus which goes to and from the City hotel, but will call for parties desiring to go to train in any part of the city. Leave orders at City hotel.

Charley Jones got in from McDuffie springs Sunday, very little improved in health. However, he hopes for better results to follow in the course of a few days.

Smith & Williamson have added a full line of undertakings to be prepared to sell at reasonable figures. My street, one block east of the Palace hotel.

W. A. Kirk and J. W. Rasmussen have bought out the business of J. W. Matlock & Co. These men are well and favorably known, and we bespeak for them a most liberal patronage.

All those who are owing the old firm of Messrs. Kirk & Hayes, either by note, which is now due, or account, will please settle same at once. Remember these gentlemen must have money to settle bills.

Geo. Blackman, of Hardman, and C. G. Fagna, of Eight Mile, were in town Saturday and say their respective crops are looking well yet, Mr. Blackman's especially so. Both are of the opinion that there will be lots of grain yet.

In old times it seemed to be thought that medicines must be unguishing to be effective. Now, all this is changed. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the flavor being by no means medicinal.

Purder's Oregon Blood Purifier is the great conqueror of Bilelessness and Liver complaint. Relief certain in every case. Sold at One Dollar a bottle. Try it.
